Ireland Named Deputy Sheriff

sheriff, Hallie Ireland Tuesday took the oath of office. The vacancy was created through the resignation of Harry Johnson, chief deputy.

Johnson has been a deputy sher-iff for six years, five of which he has served as chief deputy. His du-ties have included investigations, finger-printing and identifications. He leaves the office July 1 to accept a position as circulation manager in this district for the Oregonian, tak-ing the place of William Boscow, who has purchased a wine store in Ireland has been attached to Con nell's staff as special deputy for three or more years, working when-ever extra help was needed. Last summer he worked on special patrol in the berry fields. He is a native of Hillsboro and widely acquainted. The change will promote Deputy R. C. Busch to chief deputy in charge of the work carried on by Johnson. Sheriff Connell said Wednesday.
