

Miss Berneta Kummer President B. P. Club

Miss Berneta Kummer was elected president of the Hillsboro Business and Professional Women's club Friday evening at the meeting at the chamber of commerce. Miss Frances Post is vice-president, Miss Emma Mohr, second vice-president, Mrs. Gordon Sahm, secretary, and Misses Patty Lomax and Gussie Sigler, council members.

Rev. C. P. Gates of Portland in a talk on "How Much Alive Are You?" stressed the importance of contacts, friendships, and a diversified interest in and knowledge of religion, art, sports, business, and current happenings, toward the making of a full personality. Miss Constance Fisher of Portland sang two numbers, accompanied by her sister, Miss Lucie Fisher, program chairman.

Candidates for the Goddess of Liberty contest were special guests of the club and were introduced by Mrs. Reece Hathorn, chairman of contest committee. All but three of the girls were present. Plans for the candidates' ball and the coronation were discussed.

Reports of the state convention at Eugene were given by the delegates, and Mrs. H. R. Morgan, state president. The retiring president, Miss Elaine Caldwell, gave a report of the year's work of the club.

Two visiting members were present, Miss Deborah Edwards of Muncie, Ind., and Miss Gertrude McCoy of Coquille, and made a few brief remarks about their club activities.

Committee in charge of the dinner was Misses Helen Stevens, Emma Mohr, Gussie Sigler and Anastasia Lazack, assisted by Misses Margaret Cady and Julia Tatom. July meeting will be a picnic, probably at Shute park.

The retiring president, Miss Caldwell, was presented with an emblem pin by the executive council at a dinner meeting of that group at the Hillsboro Pharmacy Wednesday night of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Gentry and three children of Billings, Mont.,

were guests of the Washington hotel during the week-end. They are touring the Pacific coast, and were visiting friends in Hillsboro.

Week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kelley and Mrs. R. D. English were Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Pritchard of Olympia, Wash., Donald Elmer of Valer, Mont., and Robert Emerson of Portland.

Vacation School Termed Benefit
The Union Vacation Bible school, held from June 7 to June 18 in the Christian church, was of great profit to both children and parents, according to those in charge. Several churches of the city joined in this school with Rev. Putnam of the Christian church in charge of the school program, Rev. Duffield of the Foursquare church in charge of the music, and Rev. Weniger of the Baptist church as chairman. The other pastors assisted in some measure to the success of the school. The closing program of the school was very interesting.

Red and White; Just Right

Smart summer dresses feature red and white this year in the manner of the dance frock worn above by youthful actress Betty Grable. Miss Grable's frock is white crepe on which are printed clusters of white daisies set off against red carnations. An interesting note is the red grosgrain bow at the throat, falling in streamers to the hemline. It is held in place by a red belt at the waist which is tied in bow.

Miss McCoy Bride of Mr. Schroeder

Miss Gertrude I. McCoy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ned McCoy of Forest Grove, and Howard E. Schroeder of Riverton, were married at noon Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reece Hathorn, brother-in-law and sister of the bride. Dr. H. L. Bates of Forest Grove performed the ceremony.

The bride wore an afternoon frock of robin's egg blue silk crepe with pink and gray accessories. She wore pink rosebuds in her hair and carried a bouquet of pink roses and sweetpeas. Her sister, Mrs. Hathorn, attended her. She wore a peach-colored silk crepe with gray accessories and carried Talisman roses. Karl Alpine of Riverton was best man.

Miss Ruth Boyles of Forest Grove played violin selections, "Melody From the Skies" and "When Irish Eyes are Smiling," and also played Mendelssohn's wedding march. Only relatives and a few friends were present.

After the wedding a buffet dinner was served with Mesdames William Clarke and C. P. Fish, and Misses Ruth Burlingham and Virginia Fish, assisting Mrs. McCoy.

The couple left immediately for their home in Riverton, where Mrs. Schroeder taught in the high school during the past two years. Mr. Schroeder is employed with a lumber company in Coquille, Mrs. Schroeder was graduated from Pacific University, where she was a member of Kappa Delta sorority. She wore a gray suit with blue accessories for going away.

Miss Shay Weds Seth Smith at Church Ceremony

CORNELIUS—A beautiful wedding was solemnized at the Cornelius Methodist church at 11 o'clock Sunday morning, when Miss Doris Shay, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Shay, became the bride of Seth Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Smith. Rev. Alexander Hawthorne performed the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was charming in an ankle-length organza gown with high neck line. She wore a halo veil of white net, and carried an arm bouquet of white carnations and snapdragons.

Her only attendant, Miss Dorothy Cooke, wore an ankle-length pale blue lace dress, trimmed in shaded pink, and carried a bouquet of white pink carnations.

William Cooke, dressed in a white linen suit, carried the ring in a pink rose. LaVern Shay of Tillamook, brother of the bride, acted as best man.

Proceeding the ceremony, Lester Mosberry sang "I Love You Truly," accompanied at the piano by Russell Beals of Portland, cousin of the bride. The bridal party proceeded to the altar to the strains of "Lobengrin Wedding March" played by Mr. Beals. The altar was beautiful with a gate-way of mock oranges and blue delphiniums. Large baskets of pink roses stood on either side of the altar.

After the ceremony the young couple received the congratulations of their many friends.

Ushers were Glen Shay and Glen Smith.

Later a dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents on Fern Hill to the members of the family and the members of the bridal party at which twenty-five were present.

The bride is a graduate of Forest Grove high school and the bridegroom, a graduate of Hillsboro high school and Oregon Institute of Technology at Portland, is employed at the Halverson Motor company in Hillsboro.
