(By Mrs. J. M. Davidson)
HELVETIA—David Tschobald was re-elected director for three years and Tommie Davidson, clerk for a year at the annual school meeting Monday. The financial report shows the district on a cash basis and with a bigger bank balance than last year. During the last year a piano was purchased and a water system installed together with other improvements. This year the board has voted to build a garage for the teacher's car. Budget meeting will be July 20. William H. Dierdorf was the unanimous choice of the eight voters present for director of the non-high school board for five years.

Couple Charivari
 A large group of neighbors gathered at the J. J. Nussbaumer home June 16 to charivari the newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Nussbaumer. The couple left Thursday for British Columbia and other parts of Canada and will return by way of Yellowstone park to their home in Modesto, Cal.

Godless Candidate Named
 Sunshine club met at the K. P. hall, North Plains, June 16, with Mrs. J. Jacobsen, Mrs. Jasper Keffer and Mrs. Chris Lauge as hostesses. The new president, Mrs. Gertrude Meek, was in the chair. Committee appointed to arrange a date and place for a picnic includes Mrs. J. Bernard, Mrs. P. C. Christenson and Mrs. Eva Meek. Sick committee for this month includes Mrs. Victor Christenson, Mrs. C. Lauge and Mrs. J. Pablos. The club has sponsored a member, Marjorie Meek, as a candidate for Goddess of Liberty. Mrs. J. M. Davidson will be her escort. Mesdames A. Leppin, J. Huber, G. Mays and C. Meek are hostesses for July 21.

The fishing story this last weekend was "all wet," but Joseph Wenzel got the limit, some of the trout being 12 to 15 inches long at the north fork of the Salmonberry river, where he went with Billie Buehler and James Davidson. They all seemed to enjoy the trip in spite of the rain.

The Sunday school picnic at the Phillips grove has been postponed for a time because of rain. Mrs. J. Pablos, Mrs. Willard Craig and daughter Alice Jane visited at the Pablos place. Mr. Craig is Mrs. Pablos' brother and a teacher at the University of Washington. Another guest was Mrs. O'Neil, Mrs. Craig's mother from Corvallis.

When Mrs. Henry Jacobson and children made the return trip from Spokane June 8, she was 16 hours on the road. Her uncle, C. W. Bowen, is seriously ill. Mrs. Jacobson visited a few days with her mother, Mrs. W. C. Dunn.

Several from here attended the barn dance at Mike Vrhacek's place near Valle Vista Saturday night. There were over 50 cars and they had to park in a clover field.

Harold McCuen is staying with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Tschobald. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace McCuen, brought him from Langview Sunday.

Levat Davidson, Ben and George Zorcher and Dan Bock went to Seaside over the week-end.
