Funmakers Star

Friday and Saturday the Venetian theatre will present Patsy Kelly, Jack Haley, Rosina Lawrence, Michla Auer, Lydia Roberts, Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy in a mirth provoking comedy "Pickering a Star".

Second of the two features is "The Woman I Love". Modern youth's revolt against conventions and situations created when three families must shelter under the same roof, provides the background for "Make Way for Tomorrow".

Sunday, Monday and Tuesday lead feature with "North of Rio Grande," a Hop-Along-Cassidy story, for the close.

Trachsel, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Trachsel of Portland.
John Darrel Smith left for Hood River Saturday morning to spend the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Davis.

Scheidt Pupils in Recital Next Tuesday

(By Mrs. Frank Pezold)
ROCK CREEK—Edward L. Scheidt will present a group of his piano and violin pupils in a recital at the Phillips Reformed church Tuesday evening.

The following pupils will play: Shirley and Aldene Zahler, Dick Jossy, Clara Jean Puhols, Werner Stork, Bernice and Harold Zahler, Alice Bradley, Edna Mae Berger, Ruth Guerber, Elaine Schlaefli, Norma Berger, Evelyn Schmidt, Ronald Zahler, Marjorie Munson, Alma Zahler, Gladys Berger and Elaine Yungen. The public is invited.

Enlists in Navy
Gene Lewis, formerly of Kansas and who had been at Brooks Hill for many months past, has joined the navy and left for San Diego Tuesday evening.

Picnic Postponed
The Sunday school picnic of the Rock Creek and Helvetia Reformed churches, which had been scheduled for last Sunday, had to be postponed on account of the rainy weather. The picnic will probably be held some time in July.

To Clean Cemetery
Members of the Reformed church met Monday to clean the cemetery and to tear down part of the old wagon shed. A parking place for cars is to be made where the shed stood, after it is removed.

Milk Route Extended
The milk route, through here, of the Hillsboro condenser plant, with Louis Staus as truck driver, has been extended several miles up the Cornelius Pass road and west on Skyline road.

The recent extended rains have delayed farm work somewhat here, but not a great amount of damage has been done to local crops so far, as not much hay had been cut and this community raises few strawberries. However, the rains have greatly benefited the late sown grain and the gardens.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Vrlicak entertained with a barn dance Saturday evening for people from Portland, Helvetia, Brooks Hill and Mount Hope Hill and from this section.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gutschmidt of this section, Mr. and Mrs. John Schneider Jr. and Loraine Schneider of Shady Brook and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schabele of Sauvie Island visited Mr. and Mrs. William Green at Hubbard Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Green have a chicken ranch. They are raising 1900 little chicks this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gutschmidt of Portland have returned from a short trip to Crescent City, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. William Luethe and son of Brooks Hill are living in Oakland, Cal. Mr. Luethe is employed in Oakland and his brother, Alfred Luethe, is employed in San Francisco.

Only 19, So He's Still Growing!

This business of growing up is really getting to be something for a friend. Robert is now 8 feet 7 inches tall and is still growing. Although his family has been opposed to his traveling with a circus, Robert has just signed contracts calling for appearances in New York, Boston, and Brooklyn, in a "dignified" act.

dist church Monday night reports of the Roseburg convention were given by President Young and C. Bannister.
