

Helvetia Group Climbs Hood; Budget Passed

(By Mrs. J. M. Davidson)

HELIVETIA—Joseph Wenzel, scoutmaster for troop 247, and some of his Boy Scouts climbed Mt. Hood August 1. This makes the third year in succession that they have taken this trip and they all enjoyed it. The visibility was not so good, but they had the thrill of coming out of a cloud into the sunshine and looking over the cloud that covered the lower part of the mountain. Joseph Wenzel and George Happle reached the top in 3 hours and 55 minutes, the others following close behind. The group included besides the scoutmaster, Arnold Leppin, Walter Arden, Jim Davidson, Billie Batchelder, Howard Ritter, Elmer Grosen, Emil Yurkovich, George Happle and Ben Zuercher.

Entertain Mothers
A mothers' tea was given by the 4-H cooking club at the home of Ruth Guerber. The meeting was opened by singing club songs with Ruth Guerber at the piano. A model business meeting was given with all girls taking part. Their president, Iola Hoffman, has left the community and Vice-president Theresa Bishop took her place. Doris Jossi was

Speed Limit of 25 Miles Set Through Aloha; Plan Business

(By C. E. Barker)

ALOHA—Senator E. L. Ross has received a letter from the state highway department, the summary of which is: "Speed limit signs have been ordered erected at Aloha. The intention of the department was to erect signs some time ago, but after thorough study found that it had no authority to specify a 35-mile-an-hour limit as was suggested by representatives of Aloha. Consequently, they are setting the limit at 25 miles an hour."

H. A. Lowry spent Sunday at Oceanaside.

Head Advanced
In the last session of the legislature Senator Ross introduced a bill making it mandatory on every driver to install a mechanical governor on his car. But it seems that the legislature was not traffic-minded and the bill was defeated. Since Senator Ross says that judging by the large number of letters he has received strongly urging the adoption of some such measure, he concludes that the country has become positively traffic minded. Secretary of State Earl S. French expresses his faith and sets a good example by installing this safety device on his own car.

A number of the prominent laymen of this community will attend the meeting of the National Association of No-Control boards to be held in Portland August 5 and 6.

The guests entertained Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Verne Wilson were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Johnson and two daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Marti, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wilson of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Stewart of Gales Creek and Miss Alice Wilson of Lees Angeles.

A. J. Gerrow's sister, Mrs. William Prahl, Mrs. E. Damrou, son and daughter, Mrs. M. Shaffer of Scholastic, Wis. and William Boro of Couer d'Alene, Idaho, have been guests of the Gerrows for the past two weeks. They set the right example to out-of-state visitors by seeing all they could of our state in that time.

New Business Planned
J. B. Vincent of Newburg will enlarge the Home cafe building, which he recently purchased and is building a lumber yard. The family will move here as soon as quarters are ready.

Mrs. J. W. Hiatt underwent an operation Tuesday at Good Samaritan hospital, Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Morrison and family spent Sunday in Albany.

A. M. Janssen attended the Northwest District Shriners' convention in Victoria, B. C. last week, returning Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sidwell went to Bonneville Sunday.

Mrs. Gussie Sidwell of The Dalles, formerly of Aloha, visited friends here Saturday.

Improves Property
E. L. Nason has improved his property on Shaw street and is occupying it.

The junior cyclists of Aloha should meet in convention and pass a resolution to be more careful about running down automobiles, freight trucks and pedestrians, or first thing they know, they will be sadder and wiser.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith of Hood River are visiting Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Murphy. They arrived here in time to celebrate their brother Dan's wedding by way of a charivari.

Delarice Jersey, who underwent an appendectomy two weeks ago, is home from the hospital and well on the road to recovery.

Ed Smith reports that his brother Fred is spending his vacation from his work on the Oregonian at Tillamook in looking over this community with the view of making it his home.

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Ready of Salem visited Mr. Ready's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ready, Sunday.

A little harmless error crept into this letter last week. The Rev. George Gordon did not get to Germany where "he preached his first sermon and married his first couple" but stopped off at Germfask, Mich., and performed these rites.

Sunday, 15 of the older boys of the St. Mary's high school joined by the boys of the CCC camp at Tillamook and Catholic families of Washington county held a picnic at Balm Grove.

Has Novel Features
Some novel features may be seen in F. N. Mitchell's poultry house. Each hen occupies a laying cage of wooden slats and galvanized, electrically welded wire. These cages are made at the plant and one man can weld together 90 of the wire doors in one hour. On the inclined wire floor the egg rolls into an outside trough. There are three tiers of these cages to each of the four long compartments. Fresh water flows with Mott—which we did! He was most cordial and remembered being with Melvin at a chamber of commerce meeting in Estacada one time.

"Now take a big breath and hang on to your back hair. To-morrow morning at 10 o'clock we are to go to Mott's office and he will give us a letter admitting us to the White House! Just what all this includes we haven't the faintest idea, but just to get inside the place will be something. We are to meet Mott at noon and he will take us to lunch.

"We surely get a kick out of so much southern accent around here, whites as well as negroes. All help in hotels and restaurants is negro. The negro doorman here has personality plus.

"Before we came back to the hotel today we visited the supreme court building. Words cannot describe its beauty—all white marble inside and out. The supreme court room is furnished in black leather and is really a masterpiece that has no supports of any kind. I smiled at the Irish guard, and mirabile dictu! He rewarded us by leading us to the second floor to see the beautiful reached for their new radio installed that day, and missed it—it was not there! They do not know where it has gone. The sheriff kindly offered his services.
