

County I. O. O. F. Picnic August 29 Rippling Waters

Washington County Odd Fellows' Picnic association and the Three Link association will hold a joint picnic at Rippling Waters on Gales Creek Sunday, August 29. Various committees have been appointed and are working ardently to make this picnic one of the best ever held.

Birthday Celebrated—

SCHOLLS—A pot luck dinner was served in the Roy Moore picnic grounds in honor of James H. Moore's birthday Sunday. About forty relatives and friends enjoyed the dinner and afternoon together.

Relative Losses Life—

Howard Murray of Hood River, who fell 221 feet from the top of Horstall falls Sunday to his death, was a nephew by marriage of Mrs. Ray Dillon of this city. His widow was formerly Miss Serina Moore, daughter of Hugh Moore of near Mountdale.

Wayne Tupper Home

Wayne Tupper, son of W. A. Tupper, arrived home Friday from Los Angeles, where he has been located for the past two years working and attending school.

Former Local Man Wed in Portland

The marriage of Miss Hester E. Carlson, daughter of Mrs. Mabel Wyatt, to Dick Hornecker, formerly of Hillsboro, was solemnized at a simple and impressive ceremony at Mt. Tabor Presbyterian church August 1, the Rev. John Beard officiating.

Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Hornecker left for a trip to Victoria, B. C., and northern coast resorts, after which they will be at their friends at 2010 S. E. Sherman street, Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Kramien and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Amacher and family and J. H. Garrett spent the week-end at Willowa lake. En route home they visited Breitenbush Springs and Elk Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Abrams were week-end visitors at Taff. They were accompanied by his father, M. Abrams of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Aldinger and little son of Portland were week-end guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Aldinger and Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Mohr.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Rogers returned Sunday from a week's vacation at Newport.

Miss Bybee Weds Irvin Boyd

BUXTON—Miss Louise Bybee and Irvin Boyd of Cornelius were married at Vancouver, Wash., August 5. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Bybee and was graduated from Banks high school with the class of 1937.

Moving Picture Taken—

A. B. McReynolds, evangelist of the Christian churches, of Oklahoma, took a motion picture of the Christian Sunday school Sunday morning. He will return in two weeks to show the picture. Evangelist McReynolds has his summer home in Portland and has this as his hobby. He has taken schools in Portland, Salem and Oregon City this summer.

Former Residents Visit—

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Davis and daughter Adrienne, his father, Milton Davis and brother, Earl Davis, all of Caldwell, Idaho, visited Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Johnson Monday. They lived near Hillsboro 20 years ago, and are much interested in the changes and improvements made since then. This is the first time they have been back to Oregon.

Returns from Mills—

Miss Kathleen Caldwell returned Monday from six weeks' summer school at Mills College, Oakland, Cal.

Miss White Bride of Ray Brunkow

At a beautiful wedding at the Rose City Methodist church in Portland Sunday afternoon at four o'clock, Miss Eleanor White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard White of Manchester, Wash., became the bride of Ray Brunkow of Hillsboro, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver D. Brunkow of Portland. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Fred C. Taylor, assisted by Dr. Ray Dunn.

The wedding march was played by Mrs. Esther Cox Todd, and Virgil Day sang "I Love Thee" and "Still as the Night." The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was given in a white lace redingote over white tulle with full length veil, and orange blossoms. Miss Margaret White, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor, and the bridesmaids were the Misses Louise Farley, Ruth Marsh, Gail Moreland and Doris Eder. The bride's traveling suit was blue tulle and wore haloes. Edward M. Dayton was best man, and the ushers were Milton Wilber and Kenneth Brunkow, brothers of the bridegroom, and Howard White, brother of the bride.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Brunkow, parents of the bridegroom, with 100 relatives and friends attending. The young couple left for two weeks' honeymoon trip to San Francisco and Monterey, and upon their return will make their home at 915 East Walnut street, Hillsboro. The bride's traveling suit was blue with wine-colored accessories.

Wedding Announced—

Henry T. Blair of Portland, formerly of Hillsboro, announces the marriage of his daughter, Helen Marguerite, to John William Wilson of Portland on Saturday, the thirty-first of July. After a short wedding trip the young couple will make their home in Portland. Mr. Blair, who has been with the Oregonian for many years, was connected with the Argus before going to Portland.

Impressed With Oregon—

Rev. and Mrs. Wagar and daughter Vidie May of Alexandria, S. D., and Mr. and Mrs. Wittstruck of Ethan, S. D., were guests of the L. P. Harrison family Monday and Tuesday. They are making a tour of the western states and were very favorably impressed with this part of Oregon.

Attend Legion Convention—

Delegates of the Legion and Auxiliary and many members of both organizations will go to Albany tomorrow to attend the state convention the remainder of the week.

Messrs. and Mesdames A. L. Chase, F. W. Welch, W. G. Ide, W. M. Smith, Jack Kennedy and children, Mrs. G. C. Chase and Ray, Mrs. Worriow, and Russell Ide picnicked at the springs on the G. C. Chase place Sunday.

Our Quality

Mrs. Harold Simpson of Portland is spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. C. E. Wells, who will accompany her to the American Legion Auxiliary convention at Albany and then to the Simpson summer home at Oak Ridge.

Training Course for Group Leaders Scheduled Here

A training course for leaders of boys and girls' groups will be held at the Hillsboro public library, beginning this Thursday afternoon at 2. Instructions will be provided in handicraft, naturecraft, and Camp Fire girls' theory.
