Former Local Girl Attends Convention

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Hawk of Milton arrived Sunday for a visit with Mrs. Hawk's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Ball, while she attended the League of Western Writers' convention in Portland.

Mrs. Hawk, who is a member of the Walla Walla chapter of writers, was one of the speakers at the Tuesday afternoon session, her subject being "Methods of Conducting Meetings and How to Secure Markets."

Mrs. Hawk, who is a graduate of the Hillsboro high school, is now connected with the Milton Eagle, and is also writing for the Union Bulletin and East Oregonian.

Mr. Hawk just returned last week from Washington, D. C., where he attended the Boy Scout Jamboree as a leader.

Miss H. Johnston Weds Mr. Barbur

A wedding of interest to Hillsboro people was that of Miss Helen Johnston to Mr. Harold Barbur, Wednesday evening, August 11, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. S. C. Butterfield, in Portland.

The bride entered the room to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march with her brother, Clifford Johnston, who gave her in marriage. She wore a lovely lace gown of hydrangea blue and carried a bouquet of white sweetpeas, pink roses and bouvardia.

The rooms, which were softly lighted by candles, were decorated with pink and white gladioli and ferns. The four aunts of the bride presided at the reception which followed the ceremony.

The bride was on the Hillsboro high school faculty for several years, and since leaving here has been an instructor in the Vancouver, Wash., high school. She is a graduate of the University of Idaho.

After a trip to the beaches, the young couple will make their home in Vancouver, Wash.

Out-of-town guests included Misses Tennessee and Eva Weathered of Hillsboro.

Housewarming Given Andersons

Members of the Christian church and friends of the P. A. Anderson family surprised them at their new home on North Third avenue with a housewarming Tuesday evening.

An occasional table and a wall plaque from the group were presented by Rev. and Mrs. R. L. Putnam.

All guests were taken through the new house, and after the tour, musical selections, games, and refreshments were enjoyed.
