

Panorama of Events Presented at Fair

A panorama of events of early days in Oregon will be presented at the Shute park auditorium Thursday evening in a Pioneer Pageant arranged by Mrs. H. H. Stannard. Community clubs and groups have been asked to contribute numbers in tableau and pantomime. No dialogue will be used, but the story of each episode will be related by a reader. Miss Helen Wick will arrange the dance numbers.

Program as planned includes the Prologue, "Indians of the Columbia" with vocal solo by Mrs. V. W. Gardner; 1840—First Wagon Train to Western Settlements; 1843—Provisional Government, Mrs. S. A. D. Meek, Cornelius, Rt. 1, chairman; 1847—The First School, Mrs. Pearl Vandomelen, Mountaineer, chairman; 1841—"Star of Oregon," Mrs. Gladys Meyers, Tigard, chairman; 1848—"Los Angeles" ensemble scene of gold field excitement in which several communities will take part; 1850—The First Post Office, arrival of mail, Mrs. Gladys Hall, Kinton, chairman; "Beautiful Blue Danube" Costume Dance, Mrs. Eva Welch, Aloha, chairman; "Among My Souvenirs" tableau of 1900, with vocal solo by Mrs. V. W. Gardner, Mrs. Louise Carter, Beaverton, chairman; Costume Dance by Dorine Foelker; 1905 Costume numbers by Pacific university glee clubs, Mrs. Rex Wilson, Forest Grove, chairman; Current Events, from Hillsboro Argus files 1909-1910, Mrs. H. B. Stannard, chairman; and "One Day" in 1911, Mrs. Arthur Anderson, Gaston, chairman.

Annual Meeting Sunday at West Union Church

The annual meeting at the West Union Baptist church will be held next Sunday at that historic church. Captain G. L. Hall of McMinnville announces, Dr. P. W. Starning will be the principal speaker, and others will also speak. A good program has been prepared, including special music by the three Tennessee sisters in costume.

A picnic dinner will be served with coffee, hot and plenty according to announcement. Everybody is invited to attend and bring picnic lunch.

Father Costello Returns

Father J. T. Costello returned Monday from a six weeks' trip to Nebraska and Kansas. Father Theo Hard of Kansas, who has been in charge of the church here during Father Costello's absence, leaves today. Father Costello reports encountering extreme heat in the middle west. He says that the wheat crop was fair in western Nebraska and mediocre in middle Nebraska, while corn in the eastern part of the state was fair.

Miss Kalkwarf Weds Edward K. Robinson

The marriage of Miss Eleanor Lois Kalkwarf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Kalkwarf, and Edward K. Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robinson, was solemnized Saturday evening at the new country home of the bride's parents, Rev. Alexander Hawthorne, read the service before the beautifully decorated fireplace.

Robert Kalkwarf, brother of the bride, sang "Unto" and "I Love You Truly" before the ceremony. Mrs. Rex Howell played the wedding march.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was charming in a floor-length dress of white silk crepe, with a coronet of orange blossoms in her hair. She carried a shower bouquet of rosebuds, sweet-peas and bouvardia. Her sister, Miss Carolyn Kalkwarf, was bridesmaid, and wore a dress of orange. Miss Dorothy Becker, maid of honor, wore a similar dress of pink organza. Both carried bouquets of rosebuds and sweetpeas, and both wore coronets of the same color as their dresses. Little Nadine Goldflog, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. She wore yellow organza and carried a basket of flowers. Robert Davis of Beaverton was best man.

A reception was held following the ceremony at which Mrs. W. H. Bucher and Mrs. Albert McGee cut, and Misses Bernice Howard, Betty Horlacher, Minerva Fuller and Ethel North assisted in serving. Mrs. Louise Reister served the punch, and Mrs. Kalkwarf, mother of the bride, cut the bride's cake.

For going away the bride wore a gray suit with blue accessories. After September 1 the couple will be at home at 902 1/2 E. Baseline.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. D. J. Kalkwarf, grandmother of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Kalkwarf, and Misses Amanda, Dorothy and Helen Kalkwarf, all of Ritzville, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rector and Mrs. Doreen Dyer of Bend, Mr. and Mrs. Harry O. Kalkwarf and son Donald, Mrs. Bertha Joslin, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Goldfoot and Miss Nadine Goldfoot, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. G. Hedlund and daughter Helen of St. Johns, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Horlacher and family and Mr. and Mrs. B. Miller of Forest Grove.

Sahnows Return from 11-Day Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Sahnaw returned the first of the week from an 11-day trip through Yellowstone and Grand Teton National parks, where elevation ranges from 7,000 to 11,000 feet, all available to car travel; and to Salt Lake City, where they attended the organ recital in the Mormon tabernacle. They drove through the western entrance to Yellowstone, via Spokane, Wash., and Montana, and were among the 63rd thousand of cars to go through that entrance this season. On the return trip they came through Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Wismer, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wismer, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wismer and daughters Ruth and Edna, returned Monday evening from three days' trip to Crater Lake and the Oregon Caves. Mrs. Agnes Brown is vacationing at Rockaway for two weeks.

Local Woman Drives School Bus from East

Mrs. Mildred Christensen returned Sunday night from a trip east, where she took delivery on a school bus at Richmond, Indiana, and drove it back from there, a distance of 2804 miles, Mrs. Christensen tells of her trip as follows:

Left Portland, Oregon, Sunday, July 25, at 2:43 p. m. for Chicago, on the Steamliner City of Portland. This trip only took 39 1/2 hours and was a very enjoyable one. The service, conveniences and meals were very moderate and economical. Visited my cousin, Mrs. Walter Dietz, from Tuesday until Thursday.

Wednesday morning I met Miss Josephine Stuart, who had also come to Chicago. She came by way of Great Northern on the Empire Builder. On Wednesday, after she arrived, we boarded a sight-seeing bus and rode most of the day and evening taking in the sights of Chicago. In the course of this trip we were shown some of the largest buildings, hotels, two universities, University of Chicago and Northwestern University of Law. We also were on both the North and South Shore on which a great many of Chicago wealthy citizens have their homes, each of these homes covering many acres of land overlooking the beautiful Lake Michigan. On the trip we visited the Elks' Memorial to the World War veterans, which is a wonderful tribute to our soldiers who died during the war. We were shown the home of a general of the outstanding men who are active in the political world, including that of former Vice-President Dawes at Evanston, Ill. In the evening the trip took us to Union Square, where the soap-bubble orations are heard. This is where Professor Mednick, who was formerly at the University of Chicago, has a chance to express his radical and communistic views without any one objecting.

Was through Chicago's Chinatown, on Maxwell street, where the people of this district are active in shopping on the curbs, a very desirable part of the city. Saw also the home of Al Capone, and the exact place where John Dillinger was shot.

Took a ride through Wacker Drive, which is one street below street level. This is used during the day by trucks to do delivering. Within a certain area in downtown Chicago, you are not allowed to park your car during the day, therefore, the streets are lined with taxicabs. Also visited Marshall Field & Co., the largest department store in the world. The Board of Trade building is Chicago's newest business building. It is 43 stories high. In this building is the grain market. This is a very interesting place. There is a gallery there for visitors, where you may go to observe how the grain and malt market is without being in the rush. The Merchandise Mart is another large building, which is a brokers' building, and is 40 stories above the street and seven below street level. The City of Chicago has 3 1/2 million people and is spread out over a wide area.

From Chicago we went to Flint, Mich., where Miss Stuart took delivery on the grain market. It is a very nice little city and is located in the rich farming district of Michigan. We made a complete tour of the Chevrolet Motor Co.

When I was in Buhl, Idaho, I stopped and visited Rev. LeRoy Walker of the M. E. church, who was formerly of Hillsboro. He wished to be remembered to his friends here.

Arrived home in Hillsboro Sunday evening at 9:30 without a mishap of any kind and had a most enjoyable trip which covered 2804 miles from Richmond, Indiana. This plant This was indeed a very interesting sight. From there on to Detroit, Mich., then on to Windsor, Ontario, Canada, under Lake Erie through a newly completed tunnel, which only takes three minutes by bus and costs only 10 cents. While in Detroit we visited Henry Ford's Greenfield Village and Edison Museum. This takes about five hours to make the complete tour. In leaving here we drove to South Bend, Ind. and stayed all night. Drove all through the campus of Notre Dame, which is a beautiful sight as the main building has a dome on it made of solid gold. This is surely a football town. They have the pictures of their famous players is the largest in public places, especially the late Knute Rockne.

The next day we drove to Juliet, Ill., where Miss Stuart left for Oregon and I went back to Chicago.

While in Chicago this time my uncle and aunt took me on a week-end trip to Ephraim, Wis., which is on Green Bay and Lake Michigan in the most northern part of the state. This is supposed to be the greatest dairying and cherry-raising country in the world. Coming back to Chicago I visited the Brookfield Zoo, which is the largest in the world. The animals do not have fences around them but are kept from escaping by deep crevices in front of them filled with water, and over which they cannot jump.

Left Chicago on August 13 for Richmond, Ind., which is 60 miles east of Indianapolis. This is the place where I took delivery of my 40-passenger school bus. From Richmond I drove to Peoria, Ill., the first day. In Peoria it was 113 that day and did not go below 92 all night. Slept with windows shut and two fans going all night. Next day I drove to Des Moines, Iowa, where I spent a day with my uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Rumsey. That day and night they had a terrible electric storm and a good rain. The crops all through Illinois, Iowa and Indiana are exceptionally good this year. Some of the corn being 14 feet high. The next stop I made was Schuyler, Neb., where it also rained and had an electric storm. The rain was very welcome though, because it was the first rain in a long time. Coming through many places in Nebraska the cornfields had been stripped clean by grasshoppers. Stopped the next night in Laramie, Wyo. At this place you reach an altitude of 8,591 feet. The scenery is beautiful, even if it is all rocks and desert. Coming through Wyoming I paid 20c cents a gallon for gas, as the Sinclair Oil Co. has a monopoly on this state as far as gasoline is concerned. The next stop was made at Soda Springs, Wyo., which was a very cold spot. Had more bedding over me that night than we use here in Oregon in winter. Stayed Saturday night in Payette, Idaho.

When I was in Buhl, Idaho, I stopped and visited Rev. LeRoy Walker of the M. E. church, who was formerly of Hillsboro. He wished to be remembered to his friends here.

Arrived home in Hillsboro Sunday evening at 9:30 without a mishap of any kind and had a most enjoyable trip which covered 2804 miles from Richmond, Indiana. This bus is to be used by School District No. 7, on the route formerly driven by Mr. Taggart. It is the very latest in school bus construction and has an all-steel body with shatter-proof glass and will pass all state school bus inspection. After all Oregon looks the best and I have wondered why people ever wish to live anywhere else.

Gordon Macnab of the Telephone-Register, McMinnville, and his sister, Miss Florence Macnab of Chicago were visiting Hillsboro friends Tuesday. Miss Macnab, who has been spending her vacation with her brother, leaves this week for home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bergen and son John of Marshfield are visiting the V. W. Gardner, Glenn Payne, and W. V. Bergen families this week.

Mrs. H. M. Francis and daughter Eleanor of Corvallis spent the week-end with Mrs. Francis' son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Francis.

Miss Ruth Fritsch, who has been nursing at Jones hospital, is now a nurse at St. Vincent's hospital in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Forney plan to move to an apartment in Portland this week-end. Mr. Forney is now employed in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Lyle and Mrs. Emma Kauffman of Thea, N. Y., and R. L. Beach of Bergen, Texas, were guests last week of their relatives here.
