

Laurel Group Holds Picnic; Farm Bought

(By Mrs. F. L. Brown)

LAUREL—The picnic held at Roamer's Rest Sunday, sponsored by the Ladies Social club, was attended by nearly 50 persons from here. Next regular club meeting will be held Wednesday with Mrs. Ruby Meyers as hostess at her home.

Mrs. S. H. Davis fell down several porch steps at her home Saturday and was quite badly bruised, being confined to her bed at this writing.

Bus Service Same

Hillsboro Union high school pupils of this section starting to school next Tuesday will have the same bus service as last year, until further notice.

Miss Irene Little of Enterprise, who has been visiting her aunts, Mrs. George Rosevear and Mrs. F. L. Brown, departed for home Sunday.

John Will has installed a new milking machine in his dairy barn.

Picnic Sunday

Annual picnic of the six Sunday schools of this district will be held at "The Riffles" near Kinton on Labor day. Sports will be in charge of Rev. Cushing of Scholls, S. Pomeroy of Kinton and Mrs. Brown of Mountain Home; W. H. McNay will have charge of the ball game; Mrs. Myrtle Whitmore, of the punch and Kinton Sunday school of the tables and coffee. Schools included are Mountain Top, Mountain Home, Farmington, Laurel, Scholls and Kinton. All are cordially invited to come, bring your lunch basket with your own dishes and silverware included.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Whitmore and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Whitmore and daughter Eleanor spent several days recently at Pacific City where they canned clams.

Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Ballantyne of near Salem were guests at the Amos Watkins home last Tuesday and Wednesday. They called on other old friends also. Mr. Ballantyne was pastor here 12 years ago.

Schumachers Buy Place

Winner of Coveted Vacation Trip

Two 4-H club boys of Washington county were included in a club vacation trip spent at the Dorchester hotel, Ocean Lake, on the coast. The vacation was provided by a group of businessmen of the state interested in the work, and is one of the most coveted prizes offered for 4-H achievement. The two boys are John Stanton, left, and Clayton Nyberg. The girls are Margaret Moulton of Canby and Rosa Reichle of Portland, with the chaperon, Mrs. W. A. Pettit.—Cut courtesy the Oregonian.

Will of West Timber, Mr. and Mrs. William Will of Cle Elm, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. John Will Sr. The Will family lived in this community about 40 years, the children all being born and reared here.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Brown and Mrs. Adolph Schmidt spent several days last week at Lincoln Beach. They returned home via Salem and visited the D. B. Cooley family, former residents here. Mrs. Cooley and their daughter, Mrs. Lola Metcalf of Los Angeles, who is their house guest, are recovering from pneumonia and influenza. They also called on Mr. and Mrs. Ersel Munding (Neva Cooley). They are building a modern home on Capitol street in Salem.

Pot Luck Enjoyed

The members of the Friendly Corner class of the Sunday school and their families enjoyed a pot luck supper at the W. H. McNay home Friday evening. Tennis was played until dark. The supper, which was planned for out-of-doors but the cool weather changed to indoors, was followed by contest games. Next meeting will be at the Mrs. Lena Meyers home and the Broadcasters class is invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh Whitmore and daughters, Irene and Elaine, spent from Monday until Friday at the beaches, going as far south as Yachats. They were joined Wednesday by Mrs. Whitmore's mother, Mrs. Haveman, her brother, Eldon, and sister, Mrs. Hillie Tykeson and children Donald and Beverly and George Ziegler and daughter Vivian.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Rutschman and daughter Helen spent Sunday at Depoe Bay.
