

Confirmation Class Begins at Blooming

(By Mrs. E. W. Hinrichs)
BLOOMING—Regular confirmation class of St. Peter's church began its work Monday morning with an enrollment of ten pupils. They are Jeanette Brandaw, Bernice Meyer, Jean Hergert, Maxine Huth, Helen Liebenow, Franklin Koch, John Steele, Orville Meyer, James Butterfield and Alvin Haase. Instruction will be given by the pastor in the parsonage each Monday, Wednesday and Friday morning at nine. Double desks discarded by the Lutheran school last week are being used by the class.

A road marker to direct traffic was placed at the Blooming school junction last week.

Enter College
Leonite Voelker, Lester and Walter Mully and Daniel Hinrichs entered Concordia college, Portland, last week. Leonite started his junior year, Lester sophomore and Walter and Daniel as freshmen.

James Butterfield enrolled in the Lutheran school here Monday.

Attends School in East
Elmer Mully left Saturday for Concordia seminary, St. Louis, where he will complete his theological studies.

Relatives of Mrs. Ida Meyer, who had been visiting with her for the past weeks, left last Wednesday for their home in Minnesota.

Add Teachers
Harold Meyer and Melvin Meyer have been added to the staff of St. Peter's Lutheran Sunday school to instruct the two senior classes. They are filling the vacancies created by the resignations of Miss Esther Meyer and Mrs. Ernest Brelje, who taught for many years.

Enroll 17
Iowa Hill school opened Monday with an enrollment of seventeen pupils. Those enrolled in the first grade are Roy Newman, Joyce Gross, Betty Ruedfner and Donald Rosenau.

New Home Started
Erection of a new home for Mr.

and Mrs. Oliver Newman was begun last week.

Forest Grove Plans City Hall Building

Possessing an adequate cash reserve for financing, Forest Grove city council has taken definite steps toward the construction of a $16,000 city hall, and an architect has been retained to draw plans.

Present plans call for concrete construction in a building which will be 75x78 feet, two stories high. Council chambers, firemen's club rooms, and kitchen will be on the second floor, with the city offices and fire equipment on the ground floor.

Complete study of the plans will be made at the annual budget meeting September 27. Members of the budget committee include C. A. Broderson, W. B. Coon, Richard Fendall, S. E. Todd, Vernon Burlingham and Harley Armfield.

Schools Pay Honor to U. S. Constitution

Speaking before the assembled students at the union high school, stressed the rights and liberties granted under the constitution, asking the students to strive for the protection of these rights. He also spoke forcefully against the many "isms" which have become so apparent throughout the world, and which show evidence of introduction into the country.

Tractor Demonstration
The public has been invited to attend the demonstration of pneumatic tired, and steel tired, tractors September 20, all day, at the Pete Yunker farm near West Union.

The demonstration has been arranged for by Jack Foster, local implement dealer.

Bethany Man Sets Subscription Record

Long distance subscription record was established this week by Ernest Schaar, Bethany, on the eve of the announced increase in subscription rate. He paid his subscription to the Argus for 10 years, or to November 1, 1947. The best record for long distance payment to that time was for five years.

Schaar is one of the successful orchardists in the county, producing quantities of prize apples each year which go to supply a steady demand from individuals.
