

New Residence Construction Begins Orenco

(By Mrs. Gail Karns)
ORENCO—Mr. and Mrs. J. Harala of Milwaukie have purchased the McCullough property and are erecting a new home.
Mr. and Mrs. John Eckert and daughter of Nebraska are occupying the Ring cabin. Mr. Eckert is working for Rich's nursery.
Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Rennels drove to St. Helens Monday to look at some property.
New Home Started
D. C. Boiceff, former restaurant owner of Portland, is building a new home in South Orenco.
Mr. and Mrs. Sam Rich and Helen and Amos, after spending a week in New York with their son and brother, Mark Rich, and family will start on their trip home and en route will spend several weeks with relatives in Kansas.
Mrs. M. B. Hopton is spending several weeks with her daughter and sisters in Spokane, Chelan and Walla Walla, Wash.

Move to Farmington
David Rich and family are moving this week to Farmington on the former Sims place.
Skeeter Hubbard of Ontario left for his home last week after having spent several weeks with his aunt, Mrs. W. H. Ring.
Miss Susan Rutschman spent the week-end with her parents at Silverton.
Dinner party guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Rich were Rev. and Mrs. Schweitzer and son Donald, Mr. Tolbert of Ferndale, Wash., and Mrs. Theo Lezer of Portland.
Leaves for O. S. C.
Kenneth Woodward left Sunday for Corvallis to attend O. S. C. Sunday dinner party guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ring were Mr. and Mrs. Forest Holmes and children and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Holmes of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. Axel Berg and Mr. and Mrs. Anton Etheson and son of Milwaukie.

Makes Improvements
Mr. Rountree is building a new barn and garage on his premises.

Hillsboro Cops in Playful Mood

"Jiggers, the Cops." has become an unknown expression among the youngsters of Hillsboro since the cops began renewing their youth by holding vacant lot meetings for baseball in the summer. With the arrival of the football season, baseball has been discarded for a football, and Chief O. O. Freeman and Night Policeman W. W. Weaver, can be found giving instructions on spinner plays, reverses, and punting. Pictured above are Chief Freeman and his assistant explaining an intricate play.—Cut courtesy The Oregonian.

visited the Homer McQuire home in Chesaw, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Leist at Goble on their return trip home.
Choir practice will be held Friday at 8 p. m. at the church, under the direction of Mrs. William B. Chandlee. Everyone is invited.
Visitors at the Carl Wohlschlegel home during the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Leist of Oakland, Cal.
Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Taylor went deer hunting at Eastern Oregon last Saturday.

Library Notes
(By Georgia Smith, Librarian)
Schools, clubs and reading courses are starting for the winter and we hope you will turn to your library for help and also for recreational reading.
We have added to our reference shelves "The World Book." This fine new encyclopedia should prove helpful as well as the Reader's Guide, which is an index to the periodicals and will be helpful to students and clubs.
The young people are becoming each year more library minded as is shown by increased circulation of juvenile books and the response to the summer reading course.
The following magazines will be found on our shelves this year: Harper's Magazine, Atlantic, Life, Current History, Nature Magazine, Better Homes and Gardens, Cosmopolitan, American Home, Hygeia, American Magazine, Saturday Evening Post, Reader's Digest, Popular Mechanics, Time, National Geographic, Pictorial Review, Ladies Home Journal, Woman's Home Companion, McCall's, Good Housekeeping, Wee Wisdom, Boys Life, Child Life.
Remember these magazines circulate except current issue. Let us make use of this privilege.
