Royal Neighbors Close Contest With Big Party

An attendance and membership contest closed Monday night for the Royal Neighbors with a party at their hall. The losing side, with Mrs. Florence Compton as lieutenant, entertained the winners of which Mrs. Freda Frost was lieutenant. Mrs. Ada Qualls, captain, offered prizes to the leaders for making the most money, attendance record, and procuring the most members.

Forest Grove and Banks camp members were guests; also some members from Portland, and one from Nebraska.

Gifts and flowers were presented to Mrs. Mary Jane Gray of Portland, past supreme chancellor and past district deputy. Mrs. Qualls making the presentation with an original poem and a song dedicated to her. The new district deputy, Katie Fairfax, who also organized the local camp, was presented with a gift of flowers, as was Mrs. G. Prickett of Forest Grove, state orator.

The program consisted of tap dancing by Carol Colet and Doraine Foelker, piano solo by Mrs. Stella Strahl of Forest Grove, a reading by Mrs. Fred Boyce of Banks, a skit by Mrs. Qualls, and a duet by Mrs. W. F. Lormer and Mrs. Qualls.

The hall was decorated with fall flowers, and a big cake with the lodge emblem in purple and white was the attraction on the refreshment table.

Local Happenings

National Hearing Week Observed October 24 to 30

October 24-30 marks National Hearing Week, which, with the endorsement of President Roosevelt, and sponsored by the American Society for the Deaf, is set aside for the purpose of acquainting the public with the problems of the hard-of-hearing, the aims of both national and local societies, and the need of concerted effort in the prevention of deafness and the rehabilitation of the deafened through the study of lip reading and social contacts; aiding the deafened to secure employment; and stressing the need of annual hearing tests and proper medical treatment for children, of whom it is estimated that more than one and a half million in the United States now have impaired hearing.

Broadcasts from the national association, Portland league, and others will be on the air during that time, and everyone is urged to become familiar with the work of these worthwhile organizations. Hillsboro lip-reading class is observing the week with display of posters and distribution of literature on the aims and ideals of their organization. Co-operation of every deafened and hard-of-hearing person in the community is earnestly desired.

J. W. Taft, manager of the Acousticon institute of Portland, spoke to lip-reading class at their weekly meeting Friday in the public library. He urged organization of a chapter of the American society for the hard-of-hearing in this community. A number of visitors interested in the work were present from nearby towns.

Kraus Unworried by Albany Report

"No need for alarm" was the way that Superintendent O. B. Kraus of the Washington county school office described district budget troubles in this county following an article from Albany in which an educator told of distressing obstacles in the way of school improvements. The report centered on the large number of schools that had to exceed the six per cent limitation.

Kraus pointed out that 29 districts in Washington county had exceeded the six per cent excess of $26,383.36. This is about normal, he said, adding that some of these districts had no base, and hence were necessarily forced to exceed the limitation.

GOT WHAT WAS COMING

The poor simp—said he could take it or leave it alone—but he didn't use his will power—now see where he is—serves him right—got what was coming.

You knew him back in the palmy days when he just took a bit to be sociable. Yes—he could take it.

Calvert WHISKEY COLLINS

Say you saw it in the Argus.

or leave it alone—so he told himself. Of good family, a stream of clients seeking his services; a growing bank account and one of the coming men of the section.

Just as the curtain drops on all this of promise, you must recall one stubborn fact. Like leprosy that eats in until fingers drop off and nose and ears slough away, so does sin eat into the will power. Little by little the ability to say NO weakens. At last the will fades out. Your man is now helpless, a slave to the thing that has been coiling itself about him to crush the life out of him.

Scene Two—You can guess. An old bum, ragged, smelly, bleary-eyed. And the well-dressed who must pass through that part of the city tell themselves—"It serves him right; he had it coming; he didn't use his will power and leave it alone." One moment my friends, God makes no distinction between different kinds of sin. In his holy eyes, sin is sin and all sin is a wall separating between him and his creatures. For the man away at the bottom and you who have just begun to play with sin there is but one hope—

"Just as I am, without one plea, But that thy blood was shed for me; And that thou bidd'st me come to Thee."

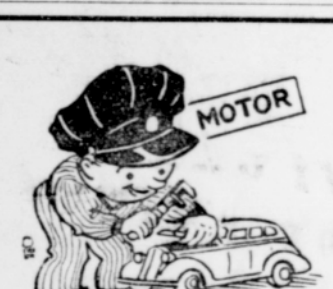

O Lamb of God, I come."

Jesus Christ Saves. Keeps and Satisfies. SAVES in that He died under your death penalty to clear you. KEEPS—"I give unto them eternal life and they shall never perish." SATISFIES—"Casting all your care upon Him, for He careth for you."—George N. Taylor, Beaverton.—Paid adv.

All-Steel Hoppers --- An Important Improvement in M'CORMICK-DEERING Grain Drills

McCormick-Deering 14-7 Grain Drill.

ALL-STEEL Hoppers on McCormick-Deering plain grain drills—that's the big drill news now. Come in and let us show you this real improvement in a real line of drills. They will drill more accurately and last longer than ever before because the steel hoppers combine with the strong steel frame to hold the feeding mechanism in correct alignment.

The new hoppers on these McCormick-Deering Drills will not sag, warp, split, or rot—they are made of rust-resisting, heavy-gauge steel containing copper. They are water tight and grain tight—you can pour grain into them without spilling it on the ground.

Improvements have been made in the feeds, too, and there are roller bearings in the fully enclosed end axle boxes. Whatever kind of drill and attachments you want, we can furnish it.
