

Registration Record Set C. E. Convention

Reverend W. L. Killiam of Mizpah Presbyterian church, Portland, was the featured speaker of the Washington Christian Endeavor Union convention held at Bethany Presbyterian church Saturday and Sunday. Rev. Killiam centered his three messages around the convention theme, "Going unto Bethany."

The convention opened Saturday afternoon with a pot luck luncheon followed by registration and the afternoon session.

Bob Sawyer of Corvallis, state C. E. Union vice-president, acted as toastmaster at the Saturday evening banquet served to a capacity house Saturday evening's session was closed with an address by Arthur Stanley of Dayton, past president of the state union.

A new record in registrations for a Washington Union convention was set with 159 registered.

Paul Collins, student of Northwestern Christian college at Eugene, was the convention song leader, assisted by Irene Beamer of Pacific university, who served as pianist.

Gaston for the second successive year was awarded the C. E. plaque for having been the most active society in the union during the past year. Bethany received the award for the most convention registrations.

With Bob Sawyer serving as installing officer the following persons were inducted into their respective offices for the following year: Floyd Shaw, Forest Grove, president; Virgil Savage, Beaverton, vice-president; Pearl Shorb, Forest Grove, secretary; Nels Johnson, Bethany, treasurer; Joe Bates, Gaston, prayer meeting superintendent; Helen Kob-

Miss Stewart Weds Harold L. Jensen

BANKS—At a beautiful wedding ceremony Saturday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Reber, in Forest Grove. Miss Ethel Genevieve Stewart became the bride of Harold LeRoy Jensen Jr. of Banks. The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. A. Marcy of Portland.

The bride, who was given away by her step father, wore a dress of cream tulle and carried a bouquet of white roses and sweet peas. She was attended by Miss Rhinhart of Portland, who wore a rose colored dress and carried a pink bouquet. Miss Wagner, who was dressed in blue, played the wedding march. Donald Lucas of Portland was the best man.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Reber home. During the reception, Harold's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Jensen of Banks were presented with a beautiful set of silver in honor of their 25th wedding anniversary, which was October 27. The bride used a knife of this set with which to cut her wedding cake.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Arthur Reber of Forest Grove and a teacher in Rufus high school. The groom is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Jensen of Banks. He is employed in the survey crew for Consolidated Logging company. Both bride and groom were graduates of Pacific university this June.

V. F. W. and Auxiliary Elect Officers Friday

Election of officers of Washington county post No. 2969, V. F. W., and Auxiliary was held Friday night with the following members elected to office:

Auxiliary officers—Josephine Barron, president; Agnes Farrow, senior vice-president; Madeline Corn, junior vice-president; Grace Sutton, chaplain; Mamie Barber, treasurer; Verle Brown, secretary; Mary Farrow, conductress, and Daisy Plapp, guard.

Members of the post and auxiliary are planning a series of open meetings and entertainments to increase membership and attendance, also to promote the various activities of the organization. The first of this series will be a Halloween dance Friday evening, October 29, sponsored by the auxiliary in the V. F. W. hall at Ninth and Oak streets.

All member and their friends are invited to attend. Music will be furnished by Harry Pearson's orchestra. Supper will be served at midnight.

Ladies of the auxiliary and friends are invited to a quilting bee at the Veterans' hall Wednesday, November 3. The hall will be open at 9:30 Wednesday morning and a pot luck dinner will be served. A large attendance is requested as several quilts are to be finished soon.

Membership drive is in full swing with the post divided into two teams. Henry Barron is captain of team No. 1, and Lee Clark is captain of team No. 2. Referee will be Fred B. Corn.

The members of the post held a "Digging Bee" Sunday and installed their new sewer system, and also discussed several changes in their hall. Members dining were Comrades Lockett, Clark, Plapp, Farrow, L. L. Brown, Ferguson and Corn.

Remember Armistice day. Members are requested to attend 100 percent for the parade and services at the theatre.

There will be a broadcast under the name of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, department of Oregon, on November 4, from 9 to 10 p. m., over station KEX—originating in the auditorium of the Veterans' hospital. It is possible that this broadcast will be a coat as well as a nation's hooking. Some of the speakers will be "boys" who have not been out of the hospital since the war.

Local Folk Return— Mr. and Mrs. John Green and daughter Rosemary and Mrs. Green's mother, Mrs. C. J. Anderson, returned Tuesday from a four weeks' motor trip to Missouri, Kansas and Arkansas. In Arkansas they visited Mrs. Anderson's brother, George Tipp, who is very ill. Conditions, Green said, are not as good there as on the coast, although a good crop this year has cheered people up quite a bit. He said they encountered the worst electrical storm he had ever seen at Joplin, Mo.

Dr. A. O. Pitman of Hillsboro and C. B. Buchanan Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Scott of near Gaston returned Tuesday from a deer hunting trip to the John Day country. They left Eugene Sunday morning after attending the U. of O. O. S. C. football game.

Annual B. and P. Jamboree Proves Great Success

The annual jamboree given by the Business and Professional Woman's club Tuesday night at the chamber of commerce was an enjoyable event and a financial success, according to the committee in charge.

Various games were played at booths gayly decorated with Halloween colors and autumn leaves, and the Halloween motif was carried out in the refreshments.

A minstrel show was the opening number on the program, with Mesdames Maud Stannard, Eunice Kammerle, Fannie Haverstick and Maude Caldwell as the black-faced minstrels, assisted by Mrs. Jessie Sewell, pianist; pupils of Helen Wick's dancing class, Dorine Foelker and Gloria McGuire, delighted the audience with their singing and tap dancing, and dramatic pupils of Mrs. Stannard, Velma Abendroth and Ardis Ellingson, gave a humorous skit, "Home Life."

Jamboree committee consisted of Mesdames Stannard, Haverstick, Minnie Coy, Myrtle Hornback, Jessie Sewell, and Miss Pearl Allen.

Gate Woodworth Married

Word received at Pilgrim House from Gate Woodworth, former Hillsboro resident, announces his marriage last week in Shreveport, La., to Miss Mildredje Marnard of New York City. Both Mr. and Mrs. Woodworth are playing in a stage production in "The Showboat" theatre and the grounds of the Pan-American exposition at Dallas, Texas. At the close of the exposition, their company will make a tour of the southern states. Woodworth is the son of the Rev. M. S. Woodworth of Coquille, former pastor of the Baptist church in Hillsboro.

Mr. Heaton Honored

Mrs. E. G. Heaton and son Cecil entertained with a surprise pot dinner luncheon party Tuesday night at their ranch home near Scholls, complimenting Mr. Heaton on his birthday anniversary. The color scheme was white and old rose, and the centerpiece was a large birthday cake with 55 candles. Mr. Heaton has lived in the Scholls for 30 years, coming from Council Grove, Kan. when a child.
