

Auxiliary Has First $5 Red Cross Membership

Auxiliary to the American Legion again sustained its reputation of being the first organization in the community to pay its $5 membership to the Red Cross. The amount being voted at the meeting Tuesday evening at the Veterans' hall. The Auxiliary will also have charge of the Christmas Seal sale this year.

Mrs. Mae Waters of Salem, state president, and Mrs. Otella Mardis of Dallas, district president, were honor guests. Mrs. Mardis was the first speaker, and stressed the importance of carrying out all of the requirements for citations, congratulating the Auxiliary on winning a citation having its membership quota paid. She also cited the mutual benefits to be derived from inter-unit visits, and extended an invitation to visit Dallas soon.

Mrs. Waters told her trip to the national convention in company with Mrs. Blanch Jones of Sherwood, past state president, from the time of leaving Portland for New York until her return. She told of some of the highlights of the convention, and incidentally of their visit to see the Dionne quintuplets on the return trip.

Other giving short talks were Mrs. W. R. Manly, president of the D. A. R.; Miss Anna Sias, representing the D. U. V.; and Mrs. Clara Baldwin, who recently transferred from Nebraska.

Mrs. Hazel Cyrus, past president, was presented with a past president's pin, the Junior past president, Mrs. Arlene Eslinger, making the presentation. Mrs. Cyrus was complimented on her two years' work as president.

Mrs. Estella Kroeger, American chairman, reported that another Blue Bird group had been organized with Mrs. Thelma Barrows as leader.

Next Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 was the time set for child welfare sewing and tea at the home of the chairman, Mrs. Georgia Patterson. All members are invited to attend.

Plans were formulated for the pot luck dinner to be served Armistice day, when the Legion Auxiliary will hold "open house" at the Veterans' hall on West Main street. Those attending are asked to bring food for their family. Coffee, cream, bread and butter will be furnished. Banks Legion and Auxiliary will join the local groups.

While refreshments were being served, a contest game with answers pertaining to war was passed around, honors being won by Mrs. Goldie Davis and Mrs. Ruth Poulos.

New Camp Fire Group Organized

Hee-Lah-Dee, the new camp fire group, organized a few weeks ago, is off to a good start. Already the girls have had lots of fun, having planned to do out-of-doors things as much as possible while the lovely weather lasts. A hike and yum-yum roast were enjoyed at one meeting, a cook-out the next time and a pot luck supper at the meeting of October 21. On hikes, nature was studied, each one naming trees and shrubs. Mrs. Hazel Bickford is the guardian of this group and the officers are Claire Elizabeth Bickford, president; Donna Mars, secretary; Betty Ann Clapham, treasurer; Mollie O'Donnell, publicity; and Lorraine Darnell, historian. This group plans to study astronomy one night a week under Miss Rowena Hermann, who is an enthusiastic student as well as a splendid teacher of astronomy.

Saturday afternoon a very successful candy sale was held by the Hee-Lah-Dee group. In preparation for the sale the camp fire girls were taught candy making at their Thursday afternoon meeting. Camp Fire songs were practiced, special attention being given to a council fire recessional in preparation for council fires which will be held at least once every two months.

November 14 to 21 Named Book Week; New Book Display

Book Week will be November 14 to 21, according to Mrs. Georgia Smith, librarian. The library will have a fine display of new books for all ages and all moods, she says. Everyone should visit the library that week.

Of the new books of special interest now is "Popularity" or "How to Get it, How to Hold it, How to Increase it," by R. W. Wieman. This book is equally helpful to young and old. Another of equal interest is by Donald Laird on "How to Make People Like You" or "Why We Don't Like People." In the book Dr. Laird shows you many easy ways to promote your happiness and influence. These two books and "Psychology of Dealing with People" by Carnegie and "How to Win Friends and Influence People" by White, formed the basis of a series of psychology talks by Dr. Ballard.

Your library has all four of these books.
