

Perfect Record in Attendance Set at Laurel

(By Mrs. F. L. Brown)
LAUREL—Pupils of the Laurel school neither absent nor tardy for the six weeks school ending October 22 were Rollin Dreezen, Bernice Galloway, Jimmy and Bernice Stoller, Lucille Speiring, Wesley Raymond, Ruth and Edward Losli, Ralph Keyser, Sokai Kyono, Bonnie Jean Kleir, Rosa, Mary and Mabel Kinoshita and Pearl Frost.

On Federal Jury
George Rosevear went to Portland Saturday where he was called to serve on the federal grand jury. He is at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Francis Coaldige, when not on jury duty.

McNays Entertain
Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McNay entertained at a card party at their home Saturday evening. Their room was appropriately decorated for Halloween and the same motif was carried out in the score cards and luncheon menu. High scores were won by Mrs. Leon Dreezen, Mrs. Speiring, and Mrs. W. L. Stevens. Ed Demmin received low. Others present were Messrs. and Mesdames Rollin Meyers, W. J. Shaw, F. L. Brown, B. G. McNay, Mrs. John Speiring, Leon Davis, W. L. Stevens of Hillsboro, Mrs. Ed Demmin of Seholts and Mrs. E. J. Humphreys of Surges, Cal., who has been the guest of her cousins, the McNay brothers, for the past few weeks.

Mrs. J. W. Mulloy, who has been ill at her home for some time, was taken to the Jones hospital Saturday where she underwent an operation Monday.

Mrs. Carrie Aggas has returned last week to the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. A. Soule, after spending the summer with another daughter, Mrs. W. F. Karbel, of Independence.

Pupils Enjoy Party
A costume party to celebrate Halloween was enjoyed at the Laurel school house Friday afternoon by the pupils and a group of mothers and young children. Present besides the pupils were Mesdames J. W. Twigg, Dreezen, S. E. Stoller, E. Losli, Coburn, J. Speiring, Sturm, Rutschman, B. McCoy, Kinoshita, W. Kieker, W. L. Reddig and David Losli, Betty Kinoshita, Bobby Rutschman, Charles Kleir, Ruth Coburn, Dale Sturm and Nickie and Phyllis Dreezen.

A pot luck dinner at the W. H. McNay home Sunday was attended by relatives from Newberg and Forest Grove and a cousin, Mrs. E. J. Humphreys, from California, who has been visiting here. She departed for her home Monday.

A large crowd of young people and juniors attended the Halloween party at the Whitmore home Friday evening. The "cabin in the woods" was the scene of the festivities.

John Ernst of Harvey, Ill., was a guest at the George Rosevear home from Friday until Monday. He is a former CCC member from Enterprise, but is now planning to return to his home in the east.

Treats More Popular
"Tricks or Treats" was the challenge of a crowd of junior young folks as they called at the houses in this community Sunday evening to celebrate Halloween. Treats were reported as more popular with most of the elders so not many tricks were played. A good scare and a shower of cold water were some of the experiences of the Halloweeners.

Irene Whitmore Hostess
Irene Whitmore was hostess to her Sunday school classmates the "Laurel Lights," Saturday at a party in the "cabin in the woods" on the Whitmore place. Other guests were the teacher, Mrs. Walter Schmidt, Mrs. Whitmore and Mrs. Amos Watkins. A wiener roast was enjoyed.

Miss Margaret Merz of Portland was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Elbert Stevens, several days last week.

C. W. Brown and his grandson Dickie Brown of Portland were guests at the home of the former's brother, F. L. Brown, from Friday until Sunday.

Mrs. R. E. McNeal of Portland spent last week as the guest of Mrs. A. A. Soule.

Mrs. Clara Bernhart of Portland was an overnight guest of Mrs. Richard Whittle last Wednesday. The ladies are co-workers in the "Top Notch" sandwich shop in Portland.

Class to Reorganize
Young People's class of the Sunday school will have a business and social meeting at the home of Lillie Brown Saturday evening. The class will be re-organized as most of these young people are the former Broadcasters. All young people are cordially invited to attend.

Sunday dinner party guests at the S. E. Stoller home were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Abraham and son Don of

Library Plans Discussed at North Plains

NORTH PLAINS—Mrs. Georgia Smith librarian of Hillsboro, was the speaker at the P.-T. A. meeting Tuesday evening at the school house. Books are the keys that unlock the doors to all other pleasures," she said, in her talk encouraging the plans for beginning a local library. The hospitality committee with Mrs. Carl Christener as chairman started a "vagabond basket" and Mrs. Cypher, chairman of the program committee, gave out sample blocks for an Afghan. This year, each committee is being responsible for a small money-making project. Mrs. W. M. Wilken gave a report of the county council meeting at Aloha and Mrs. Ruth Will gave a report on possibilities of a picture machine. Mrs. Esther Lewis was elected historian.

Friday night at the school house the young people enjoyed a Halloween party.

The following North Plains people were guests at a Halloween party in Portland at the home of Mrs. E. Matthes, Norma and Leo Knodel, Mrs. Minnie Blake, Lester and Norman Bidwell, Mr. and Mrs. V. Fair and daughters Millicent, Mavis and Delores.

Mrs. Riza Fair of Newport is visiting relatives and friends here. J. C. Rucker has returned from the hospital, but is in bed and not much improved.

Christian Endeavor young people sponsored a party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Chamberlain. Betty Coomes and Frank Fenimore, Ethel Johnston and Betty and Roberta Johnson assisted.

Mr. Wadsworth Ill
F. M. Wadsworth, who is 100 years old, is under the doctor's care. He has a cough that weakens him. Mr. and Mrs. Andy Christener leave November 2 for a three weeks' trip to Long Beach, Cal. Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Clark will accompany them. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Nelson will care for their place while they are gone.

Julius Schoenberg was taken to Hahnemann hospital last Wednesday. He is improving and is able to walk around in the hospital.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cypher Sunday included Robert Johnston, Mrs. Elizabeth Turner and daughter Joanne of Corvallis. Elvora Sanford, who is teaching in Portland, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Sanford, over the week-end. Other guests included Mrs. Warren Lindsey and son Joseph of Vernonia.
