

Double Wedding Held at Forest Grove

Miss Alma Love became the bride of Lanore Lyda and Miss Louine Love became the bride of Vernon Lyda in the presence of a large group of friends and relatives at a beautiful wedding ceremony Wednesday evening in the Forest Grove Christian church with Rev. George J. Turner, pastor, officiating.

Local Cub Pack Completes First Year's Work

Hillsboro's Cub Pack completed its first year of activity with its regular November meeting Tuesday night at David Hill school.

Forty-four boys entered into activities of the organization during the past twelve months, according to R. P. Rasmussen, cub master. Last November the pack began with 21 members and now has 36 active members on its roll. Four boys have been graduated into the Boy Scouts during the year, he said. The Hillsboro unit is said by Portland Boy Scout officials to be one of the state's best Cub Packs.

The ceremony was planned for Alma and Lanore and the second wedding was a complete surprise to all but the immediate families. The first bride, Alma, who was given away by her father, Oscar Love, wore a dress of white satin and tulle veil with a cap effect. She carried a bouquet of white gardenias and yellow rosebuds. Miss Louine Love, who was maid of honor for her sister, wore a dress of blue satin and carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds. The two bridesmaids were Juanita Miller, who wore a dress of changeable colored blue and pink taffeta, and Mrs. Estel Love, who wore a dress of pink taffeta. They both carried bouquets of sweetpeas and rosebuds.

The best man was Vernon Lyda. Ushers were Estel and Melvin Love.

Little Geraldine Waldron, the flower girl, was dressed in pink silk. She carried a basket of flowers as she marched with the ring bearer, Little Ellis Shipley, who was dressed in a dark suit. He carried the ring on a satin pillow.

Proceeding the ceremony Mrs. Harold Higby sang "I Love You Truly." Mrs. Smith played the wedding march. Immediately after the ceremony which united Alma and Lanore was performed, the maid of honor, Louine Love, and the best man, Vernon Lyda, stepped forward and were united in marriage. The church was beautifully decorated with baskets of yellow and white chrysanthemums and white candelabras.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the brides' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Love, at Thatcher. Only immediate friends and relatives attended. Both the brides cut the beautiful brides' cake.

The brides are the popular daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Love of Thatcher and both are graduates of Forest Grove high school. The grooms are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Lyda of Kansas City. They both are graduates of Banks high school.

After short wedding trips the happy couples will be at home on farms in the Thatcher community. Picture on page 3.

Blooming Local Meets—

Blooming local, Farmers' Union, will hold a social meeting Saturday evening, November 27, at the school house.

Miss Leonetti Bride November 7

COOPER MOUNTAIN—The marriage of Miss Virginia Leonetti, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Leonetti of Beaverton, and Richard Schleigh, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. Schleigh of Beaverton, was solemnized at the St. Cecilia church of Beaverton November 7 with Father George O'Keefe officiating.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of ivory brocade satin made in princess style, the full length skirt extending into a train. The full length lace veil was caught in a cap of white lace and trimmed with pearls. She carried a bouquet of roses and baby chrysanthemums.

Miss Amelia Leonetti, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and her only attendant. She wore a frock of Aquamarine taffeta and carried a bouquet of roses and chrysanthemums.

David Blettel of Portland acted as best man.

The ceremony was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents.

Hillsboro Student Managing Play

Four Forest Grove students will take prominent parts in Pacific University's play "Holiday," by Philip Barry when it is presented Friday night as part of the annual homecoming celebration.

Production manager of the play is Lawrence Wismer of Hillsboro. The beautiful sets designed and constructed by Wismer for the 1936 play drew much praise and led to his appointment for the second straight year. Forest Grove members of the cast include George Madsen, Ann Munkres, Eunice McGlasson and Wayne Hutchens. The three leading roles were given to Jean Rice of Seattle, Katherine Herd of Oregon City, and Ferdinand Stark of Grass Valley, according to the announcements made by Miss Margaret Morgan, university dramatic director.

P-T. A. Study Group Has Program

Mrs. Edward Kortzborn was leader for the organization meeting of the P-T. A. study group of David Hill school mothers, Tuesday afternoon, November 9, at the school. Superintendent J. W. Poynter explained the new grading system to the members. Mrs. Marie Priest's first grade pupils presented a song and drill, and little Katherine Reale played a violin selection, accompanied by her mother. Plans were made to hold future meetings the second Wednesday of each month at 1:15 p. m. at the school.

Hillsboro B. P. Club Brings Home Traveling Trophy

Hillsboro Business and Professional Women's club brought home the traveling trophy from the Eastern Oregon District Conference at Heppner Sunday, with ten members in attendance and a total one-mile mileage of 2220. Klamath Falls was second and Portland third. Portland won the trophy at the other two district meetings this year. The ten local members instrumental in bringing the trophy to Hillsboro for the first time were Mesdames Harry Morgan, Fred Sewell, Sam Coy, J. L. Auld, Gordon Sabnow, Emma McKinney, and Misses Berneta Kummer, Julia Tatom, Gussie Sigler, and Margaret Cady.

This was the third district conference of the year, and was equally as successful as the two preceding. Miss Leta Humphreys of the Heppner club was chairman of the conference, and the club members were gracious hostesses.

A reception was held Saturday night at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Dix, where those arriving that night had opportunity of becoming acquainted. Breakfast, executive council meeting, open forum, and luncheon were held at the home of Mrs. Lucas.

Program at the forum meeting was presided over by Mrs. Zola Morgan, state president, and the speakers were Miss Constance Lofts of Hood River, state membership chairman; Mrs. Jean Porten of Klamath Falls, state finance chairman; Mrs. Emma McKinney of Hillsboro, editor of the Oregon Business Woman; and Miss Evangeline Philbin, state international relations chairman. Club presidents reported on the activities of their clubs.

Mrs. Clara Beamer, president of the Heppner club, presided at the luncheon and extended greetings to the visiting members. Mrs. Morgan responded and introduced the officers. Special music was presented by Mrs. Elizabeth Blankinship and group singing was led by Mrs. Lucy Rodgers. Miss Rose Leibbrand of Heppner, who had spent several years in China as a correspondent for a New York paper, gave an address on the "International Kaleidoscope."
