

Blue and White Gridders Hold Strong Tillamook Team, 0 to 0, in Upset

Hillsboro Ties Cheesemakers in Rainstorm

(By Ed O'Meara)
An underdog Hillsboro high school eleven battled through four fierce quarters of a rain-soaked game at Tillamook last Friday night to tie up with a 0 to 0 tie against one of the state's top-ranking undefeated teams.

Playing on a water-logged turf field in a driving rain, Hillsboro stalwarts smashed every effort of the top-heavy favorites to duplicate the scoreless tie of Astoria against the Cheesemakers several weeks ago. The Hill line, from left to right, consisted of the best performance of the year in stopping the vaunted power attack of the coast school's aggregation, Bonney. Tillamook's star back was bottled up all evening with the exception of a couple of midfield jaunts of a dozen yards each.

Fumbles Spoil Chances
Coach B. M. Goodman's team they are credited with every effort of the Cheesemakers throughout most of the game, but managed also to do a bit of excellent offense during the course of the game, only to see each of five potential scoring chances terminated via the recovered fumble route. The best offensive effort of the Blue and White team ended on the Tillamook 20-yard mark when the Cheesemakers pounced on an ill-timed fumble.

Tillamook's backs once advanced the ball to the Hillsboro nine-yard stripe where their best scoring drive ended after only four yards had been gained in four plays. On several other attempts the Tillamook drives were broken up around the 20-yard line. Late in the final quarter, Hillsboro took over the ball on the 12 and was set back with a five-yard penalty to the seven. Henry Tsugawa, stocky Japanese guard and signal-caller for the Goodman griders, eliminated the idea of a punt and directed a drive that took the ball out to the 25 before a kick was called. On another occasion Ray Lair intercepted a pass on the 30 to break up a Tillamook drive.

Passing attacks of both teams were stymied when aerial attempts in the opening quarter resulted in slippery incompletions of sure-fire passes. Wes Ketcham tossed the water-logged ball to Ed Grogan, who was standing out in the clear, only to see the slimy pigskin slide through Grogan's hands and mar what would have been a touchdown on a dry field. Tillamook completed two tosses and then tempted fate by throwing laterals from both, but managed to complete them for fair gains. Hillsboro completed none in five attempts.

Downs Favor Cheesemakers
Ground-gaining figures gave Tillamook a slight edge, with eight first downs to a half dozen for Hills. Most of the game became a punting duel, with big Bob Sutherland, Hillsboro tackle, more than holding his own with the single exception of one blocked kick.

Wes Ketcham very nearly shook himself loose for a touchdown gallop in the third period, but was nabbed by the safety man when a blocker drove his man the wrong way. Ketcham was credited with an outstanding performance in the backfield, with several nice gains and some excellent muddling through broken fields.

Hillsboro's fans were well represented at the game, considering the state of the weather. A good sized crowd viewed Tillamook's last game of the season with the covered grandstand housing a capacity audience.

Closes Career

Dick Sutherland, Hillsboro veteran on the Oregon State college eleven, played his last college game for the Beavers last Saturday as they bowed to Washington State, 7 to 0.

100 Per Cent Award Given Local Bowlers

First one-hundred per cent commendation certificate awarded a Pacific coast city bowling group will go to the Hillsboro Bowling association, according to a letter received here this week by E. W. Freil, secretary of the Hillsboro association, from E. H. Baumgarten, secretary of the National Bowling congress.

The hundred per cent certificate indicates affiliation of all leagues under the jurisdiction of the Hillsboro Bowling association with the national organization. In view of the fact that this is Hillsboro's first year of activities in connection with the national congress, as well as being the first coast city to qualify, it is regarded as a remarkable achievement.

Association Commended
The commendable record your association established in attaining this goal in its initial affiliation with our organization is certainly a distinct tribute," Baumgarten writes. "We desire to express our sincere appreciation to the officers of the Hillsboro Bowling association for the untiring efforts devoted to the cause of organized bowling."

The number of leagues and bowlers represented in the membership of your association compares very favorably with the per capita of bowlers affiliated with the congress in cities of a proportionate population. We believe that Hillsboro is above the average."

The official honorarium certificate is expected here soon, while the certificates of league affiliation with the National Bowling congress arrived last week. The coveted certificate is something of a rarity in the northwest, since the secretary of the Portland bowling group, who has held that post for the past nine years, has yet to see one.

One League Change Noted
Only one change occurred in the top places of Hillsboro's six bowling leagues during the last week, with the engineers and linemen going into a first place tie in the Peppo league for the only alteration in the setup of the last two weeks.

Next Sunday, four Hillsboro teams will invade the Oregon alleys in Portland in a return inter-city engagement. Two weeks ago, teams from Portland and Hillsboro broke even in games bowled here. Teams representing Fairway Market and Birdseye Frosted Foods, together with two ladies' teams, will make the Portland trip.

High man of the past week's pin-busting was Bud Rogers in the City league with 214, followed by Al Westwood and Brice Plymate, 204, Progressive league; C. Ingram, 197, American; Carl Russell, 194, Hubert Kimmmerle and F. Heinrich, 182, Commercial; V. Williams, 182.

Husky Winner

Ray Vanderzanden, North Plains land, turned in an excellent game at center for Gonzaga last Sunday as the Bulldogs edged out Portland's Pilots, 3 to 2.

National and Eva Williams, 159, of the ladies' contingent.

Big Eight Hoop League Formed; Bakers Enter

Hillsboro and five other towns in Washington and Yamhill counties will be represented in a new eight-team basketball circuit, known as the "Big Eight" league, as the result of meeting held last week at Pacific University.

Perfection Bakery will enter a team from Hillsboro, with Keith Wilcox already named as manager of the quintet. Managers of the teams entering the league took part in drawing up the league regulations and the schedule at the meeting. Several representatives were present from towns which were not included in the new loop because of either too great traveling distance or inadequate courts.

Play for the eight squads will open next week, following the Thanksgiving week-end. Actual nights of play were not assigned on the schedule drawn up but will be arranged by the managers of the competing teams to fit in with local playing conditions. A 14-game schedule, in which each team will meet all the others twice, was decided upon, with a two-week vacation period provided for over the Christmas holidays. At the conclusion of the regular 10-week season, the winners of each half will meet in a three-game series for the league title and trophy.

Pete Miller, assistant athletic director of Pacific University, was named league director in charge of rules enforcement.

In addition to Hillsboro, McMinnville, Tigard, Yamhill, Forest Grove and Newberg are included in the league, with the last two named entering two teams each.

The teams and their managers include Yamhill Town Team, Paul Durham; Forest Grove, Pacific Supply-Varsity, Pete Miller; Newberg, Stage Tavern, O. H. Best; Tigard, Town team, Lee Ariss; Newberg, College Pharmacy, Ray Parrish; Forest Grove, Cate Motor Co., Eldon Bailey; McMinnville, Hamblin-Wheler Clothing Co., A. J. Beeler.
