

Bible Sunday Observance Set Cornelius Church on Sunday

(By Mrs. Anna Rock)

CORNELIUS—Bible Sunday will be December 12 at the Methodist church. All are asked to bring their own Bibles and to bring before that Sunday for display any unusual Bible they may have. Many already have brought very old ones, some dating far back into the last century, some rescued from flood and fires or carried across the plains, also Bibles in different languages. There will be a program commemorating this day and a Bible for use at Manley Center will be sent by the church.

Mrs. Margaret Melanson has been ill several days as the result of a heart attack, but is much better now.

Card Party Tonight

Altar society of the St. Alexander church is sponsoring a card party to be held at the auditorium tonight (Thursday). There will be a prize and a lunch will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Fiske, who are on a trip to Los Angeles and other southern places, write from Tia Juana, Mexico, that it is summer weather there.

Mrs. Wilkins Hostess

Junior Lutherans will meet at the home of Mrs. Ted Wilkins Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Wyatt have as their guest this week Mrs. Jack Peerman of Burlington.

Mrs. Phelps Honored

Friends of Mrs. Earle Phelps gave her a surprise birthday party Saturday evening. Present were Mrs. Charles Selfridge, Mrs. Anna Johnson and friend of Forest Grove, Mrs. Bessie Bousely of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace McPherson and Maxine, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Henderlin, Miss Myra Wiedewitsch, Ed Phillips, Vera Sharp and friend, Earle Pavay, Billy Hamelman, Ernest Herr and Mrs. Anna Pavay, and Mr. and Mrs. Phelps.

Mrs. Holscher Hostess

Women's Home Missionary society met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Holscher.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ritthaler of Timber were week-end visitors of relatives and friends.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Pugh of Dallas, twin girls, December 1. Their names are Darlene Mae and Marlene Faye. Mr. Pugh was formerly a resident of this community and is a son of Mrs. Laura Pugh.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivy Hall, accompanied by Mrs. Hall's mother, Mrs. John Straughan, left Sunday morning for Waynoka, Okla. The Halls went upon receiving word of the serious illness of Mr. Hall's father. Mrs. Straughan will visit her daughter there.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schneider and small son have moved to the Jackson farm, where he will be employed.

M. E. church board members met Tuesday evening.

Veteran Home

John Heine, who has spent several months at the Veterans' hospital, is so far improved that he returned to his home here last week Wednesday.

Everett Straughan and A. E. Frye drove to Eugene Friday afternoon and visited Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Schmolcke. Mrs. Schmolcke is a sister of Mr. Straughan.

Mrs. Harry McKay of Portland is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Millie McPherson.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Jones entertained at their home Thursday evening members of the teaching staff and the school board. Present were Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Huson, Mrs. Mabel Hergert, Mr. and Mrs. William Hamelman, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Peabody and Mary Ann, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Kathan, Miss Margaret Sroufe, Mrs. L. M. Cochran and Miss Helen Flood. Games and music were enjoyed.

Mrs. John Pittock has been ill the past week, but is improving.

Mrs. H. R. Huson and Mrs. Mabel Hergert attended the Fern Hill Ladies' club meeting Thursday.

Miss Ellen Irmiler, who is employed at Salem, spent Sunday with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Ray of Bend came Friday evening and visited until Sunday afternoon with her father, F. B. Cleveland.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Melanson, Ralph Lucas and Glenn Smith visited the Veterans' hospital at Portland Sunday afternoon.

The Lutheran Ladies' Aid met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Adolph Hoffman.

Benefit December 17

Ladies of the Civic club will put on a program and a play December 17 at the school auditorium. The name of the play will be, "Mother Goose Jingles." The characters will be eight girls as wooden soldiers, and other characters will be taken by Mesdames Huson, Olaine, Kathan, Henderson, Osborn, Peabody, Jacobsmuhlen, Alter, Ingledo and Shaw, and Georgiana Jones. Beth Cochran will play during the intermission and Leland Jacobsmuhlen will lead community singing. There will be a door fee of 10 cents for adults and 5 cents for children, the proceeds of which will be used for built-ins for the kitchen and serving tables. Lunch will be served.

The Neighbors of Woodcraft met last Thursday evening and planned their Christmas party for the members and their families to be held December 16.

Sewing Classes Planned

Mrs. Becker of Reedville will be in charge as teacher of the WPA sewing. The classes will be opened every Wednesday at 1 p. m. in the club rooms at the school house.

Mrs. Schmidt Hostess

Altar Society will meet at the home of Mrs. Nick Schmidt Friday afternoon.

A week of prayer is being observed in the Advent church. It began last Saturday, with Elder Airey of Gaston delivering the first sermon of prayer week.

Franklin Oliver, who is employed at Oregon City, spent Sunday with his parents here.

John Leopold, who is employed at Keasey, spent the week-end at home.

Fred Barber, who was seriously ill last week, is much improved.

Mr. and H. Alexander of Portland were week-end guests of Mrs. Benham and Mrs. Squires. Mr. Alexander is a nephew of the ladies.

Church Renovated

The St. Alexander church is being repaired, redecorated and there will be new electric light fixtures installed.

Plan Meeting

Next meeting of the Civic club will be held December 21 in the club rooms at the school house. Program committee in charge will be Mrs. J. W. Peabody, Mrs. Gene McCornack and Mrs. Otto Osborn. Mrs. H. V. Jones and Mrs. H. Jacobsmuhl-en will head the serving committee.

Miss Olivia DeVeries, director of the Oregon conference of Methodist churches, gave a talk on religious education. Miss Helen Oliver sang a solo.

West Union

David Croeni of Bonneville is spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Croeni.

The Christmas seal sale is progressing rapidly. West Union has sold 700 this year.

Library books from the state library were received this week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dailey and family have moved to Reedville.

Rev. Leypald of Cleveland, Ohio, will lead revival meetings at the Bethany Baptist church every evening this week except Saturday, at eight o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jacobson and children Betty, Doris, Marion and Jimmy spent Sunday with relatives in McMinnville.

Several Hurt

P. B. Kent's car collided with Joe Brook's car last Sunday. Kent received no injuries. Mrs. Brooks and daughter received minor cuts and bruises.

Henry White of West Union has purchased a forty-acre farm near Brush Prairie, Washington.

Mason Hill

(By Mrs. B. E. Waldorf)

MASON HILL—Mrs. R. K. Billings visited last week at Grande Ronde.

Mrs. Marguerite Pate went to her home in Gresham Wednesday owing to illness, and Mrs. Adams substituted at school Thursday and Friday. Three Edmondson children have entered school here. The pupils are preparing for a Christmas program to be held probably the night of December 23.

Mrs. L. Lohmann and son Donald are visiting relatives at Gresham.

Norene Johnson has been out of school with tonsillitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Christensen and Virginia and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Gonyo were Thanksgiving dinner party guests at the Elmer Miller home in Portland.

Mrs. B. E. Waldorf visited her mother, Mrs. I. Wolf, in Salem Wednesday.

Make Gas Installations

Automatic gas heating equipment was recently installed in two Hillsboro buildings, the public library and Dr. Robb's new medical-dental center, according to Thomas H. Bailey, district manager for Portland Gas & Coke company. The equipment included an automatic gas conversion burner for the library's steam heating plant and a gas-designed warm air furnace, with winter air conditioning, for the medical building.

Large Supply Apples, Barn Destroyed

Fire of unknown origin destroyed the J. B. McGinn barn at Fern Hill and between 4,000 and 5,000 boxes of apples early Friday morning. Loss was partly covered by insurance. The roof was falling in when the blaze was discovered.

Please send in news copy early to the Argus.

Richardson Appointed on State Committee

C. T. Richardson, manager of the Carnation plant here, has been named by Solon T. White, state director of agriculture, as a member of the state dairy advisory committee of the state agricultural department.

Use the Want Ads in the Argus. Thousands profit by their use.

VENETIAN

Thursday- Friday- Saturday
DOUBLE BILL

Also Disney Cartoon Revue

Santa Recommends a

ROYAL

Christmas Holiday

Holiday season entertaining calls for plenty of ROYAL BEVERAGES—and you'll find the one to meet your needs in our assortment.

Bottled and Distributed by

Royal Soda Works

Phone 2432 Hillsboro 345 E. Main St.

SANTA SUGGESTS

A Savings Account

"Sonny" may be of the opinion that it's 'a heck of a Christmas present'—but there can be no finer gift for children.

In opening a saving account you give more than mere cash—you are instilling a proper habit of thrift that will grow more significant each year.

Make your gift as generous as you can afford—or open an account for as little as $1. Personal savings pass book and bank given with each account.

Commercial National Bank

Member Independent Bankers' Association
Hillsboro Oregon
MEMBER FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORP.

Santa Suggests

Custom-Built TIRES

for the Motorist

- Heavy Goodyear Tread
- New Tire Guarantee
- For as Little as

4.75x19	$5.30	5.50x17	$6.95
5.00x19	5.75	6.00x16	7.75
5.25x17	6.15	6.50x16	9.65
5.25x18	$6.35

Plus Your Old Tire

COME IN TODAY! SEE THEM MADE!

Assortment Auto Accessories Suitable for Christmas Gifts

TWO HANDY LOCATIONS

SERVICE GARAGE BUSCH'S SERVICE STATION

Phones Hillsboro 501 or 391 A. H. Busch, Prop.