

North Plains Lodge Elects New Officers

(By Mrs. Marie Chamberlain)

NORTH PLAINS—Friendship temple, Pythian Sisters, Friday evening elected the following officers: Eugenie Cypher, most excellent chief; Mabel Williams, excellent senior; Opal Connolly, excellent junior; Margaret Mathiesen, manager; Goldie Christner, mistress of records; Etta Lincoln, mistress of finance; Ada Qualls, protector; Janie Sanford, guard; Mabel Hahn, past chief; Mattie Joos, trustee; Mary Mathiesen, press correspondent, and Ada Qualls, installing officer. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Moyer, former members of Friendship temple, were present at the meeting. A pot luck supper and Christmas party was planned for the next meeting with Mrs. Sadie Hollenbeck and Mrs. Goldie Christner in charge of arrangements. After the meeting cards were enjoyed, with Opal Connolly and Will Joos having high score.

Everyone is invited to attend the silver tea given at the home of Mrs. James Mathiesen by the Past Chiefs' club. At that time the box of fancy work will be disposed of.

Sunday dinner party guests at the W. M. Wilken home were Mrs. Ruth Wills and son Sandy and Mrs. Esther Lewis and son Robert.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Moyer and daughters Frances and Patricia of Port Orford visited friends in this locality last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Kirkpatrick of Metaline Falls, Wash., surprised their daughter, Mrs. C. D. Chamberlain, with a three days' visit last week.

There were nineteen young people present at the first practice of the newly organized chorus conducted by Paul Collins of Eugene. All high school people are urged to be present at the next rehearsal Saturday at 7:30 p. m. at the Chamberlain residence.

Kaufman Injured

Edward Kaufman was seriously injured Friday while working at the Berggren & Johnson mill. He is in the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland.

Mrs. J. M. Nielsen of Marysville, Kans., is visiting with her cousin, Mrs. Carl Christner.

Merle Vandehey of Hillsboro spent the week with her aunt, Mrs. James Davis.

Man Badly Injured

Milford Berackman received serious back injuries Friday when a hoisted car that he was working under, fell on him in Jackson's garage. He is in the Jones hospital in a critical condition.
