IS IT A FOOL THING?

From their comfy homes travel our Mission Trustees to handle the program this night. From out the warmth and cheer of firesides, where love rules and prayer is wont to be made they come.

A big swing from all this to the back seats in the Mission hall, for it has always seemed that those back seats shelter the fearful, Sin and drugs, shabby clothes and hunger, make men shy of too much light. And the Trustees with such a background as theirs, tell these mired-down ones of a mighty God who came from out the infinite somewhere to prove his friendliness and love and power to all such as have cracked up. To many a man this must seem a shadowy thing until the life stories come out. So these men of affairs testify. One a cursing cigarette boy years ago; another a boastful infidel; a third was of poor emigrant parents and he listened late at night as the mother plead with God to save her brood of eight from sin and its sorrow.

Now a climax when the hall stood to sing "Jesus, Lover of My Soul." Stanza one set out an arresting voice close up in front. Would the stranger sing the second verse and all join in the chorus? Such a voice! Like some John McCormick come through to the Lord and with us. Would he not give the men a word? So he told of the Friend of the Friendless coming into his life and that out of gratitude he was back and forth across the land singing in the missions.

So the services run on 365 nights in the year. Pastors and people reaching more homeless and unconverted men than ever gather under their own church roof. Ye are the salt of the earth, you who reach the strays, whether by personal presence here or by your upholding prayers and dollars.—George N. Taylor, Beaverton.—Paid adv.

If your advertisement were in this space, as many people would read it as are reading this. But your advertisement isn't here, and people don't know or care a rap whether you are selling real estate, peanuts, or pop corn.—New York Press.
