

Program at Mountain Top Church Tonight

(By Mrs. Bird McCormick) CHEHALEM MOUNTAIN—Mountain Top church and the grade school, under the direction of the teacher, Mrs. Hal Chapman, will put on a Christmas program at the church this Thursday evening.

Program Attractions A Christmas program by the Pleasant View school pupils under the leadership of their teacher, Miss Helen Homm, was given at the Community club meeting Saturday night to a crowded house, including an unusually large number of visitors.

Miss Gladys Meeker, who teaches at Eugene, arrived home Saturday and will remain until after New Year's. Mr. and Mrs. John Walker visited her aged grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Tompkins, at Guther City Sunday.

Annual Hunt Held The Lena Meyers home was the scene of a party Sunday when twenty-three friends enjoyed a pot luck dinner in connection with their third annual mistletoe hunt on the south side of the mountain.

Couple Celebrate Silver Anniversary (By Mrs. O. H. Peterson) BEND—Miss Alma Juopa of Bull Mountain gave a party Saturday at the Tigard Grange hall in honor of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Juopa, who celebrated their silver wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Scott returned home Thursday from Portland, where they spent nearly two months with relatives. Virgil Meyer of Tigard, went to St. Vincent's hospital last week for an appendicitis operation.

The Mountain Ramblers orchestra of Tigard, will play for the dance at the Kinton Grange hall Christmas night and also New Year's eve.

The Rev. G. W. Plummer, pastor of the Kinton, Laurel and Mountain Home Evangelical churches is ill in a Portland hospital, but is improving slowly. The churches have missed their pastor for two Sundays.

No business firm should send out a letter without its being on a printed letterhead and in a printed envelope. It lends dignity to the business and gives it good advertising.

THE NEW ZENITH RADIO FOR 1938

Other Models $19.95 up

MELTEBEKE ELECTRIC STORE

Lester Ireland & Co. John Deere - "Caterpillar" Hillsboro, Oregon

berries this year, will be used in connection with their various holiday parties and entertainments.

Anniversary Celebrated Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Ornduff were honored with a surprise shower on their wooden (fifth) wedding anniversary December 11. It was also her birthday. Present were Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Kotera, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Cady, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ornduff, and family, Mrs. Rhoda Cady, Mrs. Mary Wood, Doris, Geraldine and Jean Ornduff, John Frye and Clarence Wood.

Mrs. Amos Morgan returned home Tuesday from a week's visit with a brother, Charles Mode, at Portland.

Mrs. Clarence Ornduff is staying at the Stewart home helping care for her uncle, Frank Stewart, who is seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Cady, accompanied by Doris, Geraldine and Jean Ornduff, took Mr. Cady's mother, Mrs. Rhoda Cady, to Corvallis Sunday to visit her sister, Mrs. Jane Johnson.

Lynn and Lloyd Guenther, students at O. S. C., arrived home December 14, for their holiday vacation. They will return January 3.

Oregon, its points of interest and industries, will be studied by the Buck Heaven Variant club, according to a decision made December 15 when the club met with Mrs. F. E. Hoffman on her birthday. Mrs. J. M. Kotera and Mrs. W. F. Wohlshlegel will tell of things learned about Central Oregon during their residence there. Mrs. E. C. Wohlshlegel, who lived at Corbett in her youth, will tell about interesting things there. Monthly meetings will be held at the home of a member whose birthday occurs in that month.

Benefit Tonight The Fir Grove Ladies' social club worked hard last week to finish a quilt, which will be sold at the Christmas program at the school house this Thursday evening. Money raised from the sale of the quilt will be used for the benefit of the school.

Mrs. Meyers Hostess Mrs. Len Meyers will be hostess for the Fir Grove Ladies' social club December 28. This will be a Christmas party. Members will exchange gifts. Last meeting was December 14 with Mrs. Flora Baker when 15 members met there and worked on their quilt.

Barney Jones of Newberg visited friends and relatives in the Buck Heaven neighborhood the first of last week telling of the birth of a 104-pound boy at the home of his brother-in-law and twin sister, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Reynolds, of Newberg. The boy is named Herbert Arlin. Mrs. Reynolds (Arlist Jones) made her home here with an uncle, Wilbur Jones, for a number of years and attended Hillsboro high school.

Ernie Wohlshlegel, who is recovering from a two weeks' attack of tonsillitis, will not return to Newberg high school until next semester.

Couple Celebrate Silver Anniversary (By Mrs. O. H. Peterson) BEND—Miss Alma Juopa of Bull Mountain gave a party Saturday at the Tigard Grange hall in honor of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Juopa, who celebrated their silver wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Scott returned home Thursday from Portland, where they spent nearly two months with relatives. Virgil Meyer of Tigard, went to St. Vincent's hospital last week for an appendicitis operation.

The Mountain Ramblers orchestra of Tigard, will play for the dance at the Kinton Grange hall Christmas night and also New Year's eve.

The Rev. G. W. Plummer, pastor of the Kinton, Laurel and Mountain Home Evangelical churches is ill in a Portland hospital, but is improving slowly. The churches have missed their pastor for two Sundays.

No business firm should send out a letter without its being on a printed letterhead and in a printed envelope. It lends dignity to the business and gives it good advertising.

THE NEW ZENITH RADIO FOR 1938

Other Models $19.95 up

MELTEBEKE ELECTRIC STORE

Lester Ireland & Co. John Deere - "Caterpillar" Hillsboro, Oregon

CATERPILLAR track-type TRACTORS

POWER and TRACTION FOR Steep Hills UP, DOWN OR AROUND THE CONTOURS!

The Vicious Circle

Cornelius Native Son Dead Result of Accidental Shot

(By Mrs. Anna Rock) CORNELIUS—Ernest Marsh, 24, of the Vernonia vicinity was fatally injured Friday when he accidentally shot himself in the side, while exhibiting a new gun given to him as a Christmas present. He was rushed to the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland, but died the same night. He was born on the old Marsh place, 2 1/2 miles north of town, and was married about one year ago. Besides his wife he is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Marsh, one brother, William, and also his grandmother, Mrs. Josephine Squires.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Fiske returned a week ago last Saturday from a trip through California and as far south as Mexico. Miss Lottie Chestnut left last Wednesday for Kansas for a visit with her sister, who has been ill for some time. She will return in early spring.

Francis Schultz and Buford Wadley were among those from the high school singing in a mixed chorus at the Methodist church in Forest Grove Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. J. Cooper and children of Watseco were luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Skillman Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Pidecock are confined to their beds. Mrs. M. Adanson is caring for them. Ladies' Aid of Methodist church had a social afternoon Wednesday in place of their regular meeting. Gifts were exchanged.

Miss Blanche Finnegan, who is attending O. S. C., returned home last Wednesday for the holiday vacation. Program Success The "Mother Goose Jingle" put on at the school auditorium last Friday evening by the Civic club, was enjoyed by a good crowd and the ladies wish to thank all who donated toward it and helped in any way to make it a success.

George and Martha Spiessheart were host and hostess to some of their friends at a dinner party Sunday evening. Decorations were in keeping with the holiday season. A miniature Christmas tree graced the table and the favors were sleds for the men and baskets for the ladies. Present were Loretta and Alberta Krauthafer of Sheridan, Lena Delplanche, Minnie Wyffels, May VanAken, Delbert VanAken, Loretta and Dyke, Percy Becker, Robert VanLom and the host and hostess.

Hold Christmas Party Neighbors of Woodcraft on Thursday night had a Christmas tree for the members and their families and a treat of candy and nuts for all.

Mrs. C. W. Brosher has been assisting Mrs. C. F. Robinson with the pre-holiday household tasks at the Shaw home the past few days. Twelve club members were present at the meeting December 15 at the home of Mrs. Wilbur Rose. Next meeting will be December 29 at the Dan O'Rear home.

The Lokett place is undergoing a renovation as the new owners, Mr. and Mrs. Gillespe, of Portland are preparing to move in. Martz Place Sold The T. A. Martz place was sold last Monday to settle an estate. The new owner is Mr. Johnson of Woodburn.

Mr. and Mrs. I. O. Neimi of Rose Lodge were guests of her sister, Mrs.

Season's Greetings Best Wishes for a Happy Holiday!

Our sincere wish to our many friends and patrons is contained in these simple words: Merry Christmas to you all! E. A. Griffith 131 S. Second Ave. Phone 171 preserve in the mountain wilds of Lane county. The inhabitants along Indian creek, a tributary of the Siuslaw, learned to become expert tree limbers. Whether or not it was their queer idea of a practical joke, the two infuriated moose chased every man they saw up a tree. It was were lucky enough to get there first. At last, empty trees getting scarce and high, the government pronounced the experiment a failure and ordered the animals shot.

Hazeldale to Hold Program

(By Mrs. John Imlah) HAZELDALE—School Christmas program will be given this Thursday at 8 p. m.

A dinner party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Doty at Beaverton Friday evening to the pupils of Mrs. Doty's Sunday school class, who learned the most Bible verses. Those attending were Louis Kinchelo, Joan Heil, Bertha Jeldrick, and Eloise, Estella and Bernice Imlah.

Hazeldale Happy Hour club will meet this Thursday with Mrs. William Heil. Pot luck lunch at 1 p. m. Mrs. C. P. Syverson is recovering from injuries received in a recent fall.

Program Presented Attendance was 96 at Sunday school Sunday. Special Christmas music was enjoyed with a Christmas tree and candy, nuts and oranges.

Mrs. Bertha Dailey is quite ill at her home. Her daughter Mary is taking care of her. "The Light of the World," a story of light from cave man days to modern times, was the moving picture shown to the pupils Friday by their teacher, R. Prillaman.

A high school bus took the children to Beaverton one day last week to receive Shick test for diphtheria. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Buster Rinehart, December 14, a boy. The baby has been named Thomas Buster.

Estella and Eloise Imlah sang in the junior choir at Congregational church in Beaverton Sunday night during the Christmas program. Billy Smith returned home last week from a trip into Mexico, and reports he was rained out of California.

Kansas City Pupils to Give Program

(By Mrs. J. A. McCoy) KANSAS CITY—Kansas City school children are busy now days with two Christmas plays, which they will present Christmas eve at the Kansas City hall. Mrs. Floyd Shaw, teacher of the Fair View school, held her Christmas program last night, Wednesday.

Waldron Home F. A. Waldron, who has been in the Forest Grove hospital for awhile recovering from a stroke, was able to return to his home Tuesday.

Mrs. Martin Vanderzanden will entertain the Harmony club members and their husbands with an all day meeting January 12. A pot luck dinner will be served at noon.

Arthur Vanderzanden of Portland visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Vanderzanden, several days last week.

Mrs. J. P. Vanderzanden and son Frank and Miss Ethel McCoy spent the week-end in Portland visiting Mrs. Vanderzanden's sister, Mrs. Mary Esh, and family and Mrs. Myrtle Morgan and mother and Arthur Vanderzanden.

Party guests at the Roscoe Baker home at Wapato Saturday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Zolbert Baker and little daughter Corinne Ann and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McCoy.

Tony Kemper of Gales Creek is having his house wired this week for electricity.

Argus classified ads get results.

Bennett's Sweet Shop IN NEW LOCATION Saturday, December 25, in New Hill Theatre Building Stop in for Home-Made Candy - Ice Cream - Soft Drinks after the show! We congratulate Phelps and Hill on the opening of the New Hill Theatre. We wish them success

Congratulations - - -

IN MOVING into the new Hill Theatre building to accommodate our increasing business, we wish to thank Phelps and Hill, not only for providing us with this splendid location but for giving to Hillsboro such a beautiful and up-to-date theatre. Progressiveness such as this (so often lacking in the smaller towns) will contribute much towards the growth and success of Hillsboro. Let us not only wish them success but help them attain it!

Hillsboro Auto Parts Co. Now in New Location Hill Theatre Bldg. Phone 2001 Hillsboro, Oregon

Weil's Announce Big Sales Event Weil's Department store announces its annual dollar sale between Christmas and New Year's, starting Monday, with a full page advertisement on the back page of the first section of the Argus this week. Jake Weil states that it is a general store clean-up of short lines of regular merchandise and that it is the store's policy to clean out all odds and ends before January 1. "Yes, the holiday business is much better than last year," declared Weil. "Practical gifts are selling more and more as busy days draw to a close. Extra salespeople employed are Rosetta Estopp, Grace Freeman, Maurice Schmidt and Roy Burnett and will remain for the dollar sale next week."

Congratulations - - - Orange Phelps and Harry Hill and much success to the NEW, BEAUTIFUL Hill Theatre

Weil's DEPT STORE

Best Wishes - - - to O. PHELPS and HARRY HILL on the grand opening of the NEW HILL THEATRE we wish you every success!

FAIRWAY MARKET

Congratulations - - - to O. Phelps and Harry Hill on the occasion of the opening of the New Hill Theatre We wish for them the best of success Bristol Hardware Co. Plumbers on the New Hill Theatre 257 E. Main Hillsboro Phone 761

THE officers, directors and staff of this bank join in wishing every member of this community the very Merriest of MERRY CHRISTMASSES.

Let us turn our thoughts at this holiday season to deeds of helpfulness and to acts that promote happiness—let us make hearts lighter and smiles brighter.

We invite you to join us in the true spirit of Christmas—"Peace on Earth, Good Will to All Men."

W. C. CHRISTENSEN, President M. P. CADY, Vice-President J. L. SEARCY, Cashier EARLE BOWMAN, Assistant Cashier W. V. BERGEN, Assistant Cashier CAL JACK Jr., Assistant Cashier CLYDE YOUNT, Assistant Cashier A. H. ABTS, Field Representative MISS AUGUSTA SIGLER, Teller GLORIA COULTER FLORENCE BUNGER RUTH DYKE BLANCHE MCCORMICK

Commercial National Bank Member Independent Bankers' Association Hillsboro Oregon MEMBER FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION