PORTLAND, Ore., January 19-(INS)—Approximately 50,000 tons of wheat will be shipped from here to foreign ports during the next 60 days, constituting the greatest amount of business from here in recent years, the Portland Merchants' Exchange announced today. This is the best revival of Portland's export trade in months. Prac-tically all shipments will be in parcel lots. Most of the grain will go to the United Kingdom, with some lots to Ireland and the continent. In bushels, the movement will totgained by moaning or begal 3,330,000 bushels. ging if your cheap insurance policy fails to stand
