

Play, Social Big Success at Rosedale

ROSEDALE—The three-act comedy, "Flying High," was presented on an overflowing crowd at the school house Saturday evening. The leading parts were played by Helen Weiburg and Edward Setniker. Others in the cast included Mrs. H. H. Hineck, Jr., Mrs. W. M. Courtney, Miss Dorothy Lewis, A. Sorenson, F. Meier, F. Thurnher, H. Schneider, J. Schlessner, and O. Nelson. Between acts Jess Snyder played two violin solos, accompanied by Mrs. W. M. Doern. Two vocal numbers were given by Betty Jean Girdler. Following the play a basket social was enjoyed, with H. A. Kuratli assisting. The proceeds, which were $55.50, will be used for equipment for the school.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Privasky and two children, and G. E. Montgomery, all of Hillsboro, were dinner party guests at the Art Sorenson home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Abraham of Portland and China visited at the E. F. Gony home Saturday evening. Mr. Abraham is foreign representative for the General Petroleum Corporation and will leave early in March for China.

The Hillsboro Baptist church choir met at the home of O. Schneider last week. The evening was spent in singing.

Laurel Acres

(By Mrs. Lewis Raymond) LAUREL ACRES—Ladies' club met February 9 with Mrs. Joe Smyser for a pot luck dinner with four members and three guests present. Guests were Alice Smyser of Hillsboro, C. F. Robinson and Joe Smyser.

Characters rehearsed "Where's Grandma" at the school house Friday. Under the instruction and supervision of Mrs. Joe Smyser, Mrs. C. F. Robinson and Mrs. Herb Johnson.

Joseph Merly, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Merly and son James Jay of Kelso, Wash., visited Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Raymond. Mrs. Merly and son are spending the week visiting in Oregon.

Mr. Leadbetter of Kelso visited his son-in-law, L. L. Gillispie, Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Martz were hosts at surprise birthday party for Al Roberts at his home Saturday evening. It being his 41st birthday. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Al Rank, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Raymond, and their house guests Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Simonis of Beaverton. The evening was spent playing cards. Al Roberts was also honor guest at the home of his sister-in-law, Mrs. A. G. Roberts, of McMinnville at a dinner party.

A special session of the Ladies' club was called Wednesday at the home of the president, Mrs. Al Rank.

Edward Heim, an eighth grade student at Firdale, was absent from school Thursday and Friday because of flu.

Frank Duncan has been confined to bed with flu.

Kenneth Rank did not make his usual trip home this week-end but

Garden Seeds

Now is the time to start planning your garden—and you'll want to select your seed from our complete stock.

- 10 varieties Peas
6 varieties Corn
10 varieties Beans
Seed Potatoes

Complete stock garden seeds in bulk—flower seeds in packets. Buy here! The prices are right.

Farmers' Cash Store

Hay, Feed, Poultry and Wool Telephone 3061

attended sports activities on Mount Hood instead.

George Wilcox, Resident of Cornelius Many Years, Dies

(By Mrs. Anna Rook) CORNELIUS—Funeral services were held Monday afternoon in the Methodist church for George A. Wilcox who died Saturday at his home here after an illness of several months. He was confined to his bed for the past four months.

Mr. Wilcox was born at Sharon in Walworth county, Wis., June 15, 1859, came to Oregon with his parents in 1872 and settled on a farm near Cornelius. He began working for the Southern Pacific railroad in 1881. McMinnville was his first station from there he went to Independence where he remained until June 1911 when he retired and moved to Cornelius, where he lived until his death.

He was a member of the Masonic order. Surviving him are his widow, Maude; two daughters, Mrs. Lulu E. Dornstife of Salem and Cecile Chandler of Marshfield. The services were in charge of the Masonic lodge. Rev. Alexander Hawthorne officiated. Interment was in Cornelius cemetery.

De Prez Recovering Fred De Prez, who has been ill with pneumonia for several weeks and was removed from the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland February 3 to the Southern Pacific hospital in San Francisco, is reported recovering satisfactorily. George DePrez accompanied his brother to the hospital as Fred was unable to make the trip alone.

Margaret Thornburg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Thornburg, who has been quite ill with stomach trouble for the past week, is somewhat improved.

A demonstration dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. Gloyd Hall, Wednesday evening. Guests were Mrs. and Mrs. Jerry Chartrey, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Frites, Mr. and Mrs. Ashley Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hanson, Mrs. Knight of Forest Grove, Ed Leona and Donnie Wyatt have been ill the last week with pneumonia.

A demonstration dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. Gloyd Hall, Wednesday evening. Guests were Mrs. and Mrs. Jerry Chartrey, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Frites, Mr. and Mrs. Ashley Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hanson, Mrs. Knight of Forest Grove, Ed Leona and Donnie Wyatt have been ill the last week with pneumonia.

Miss Mildred Rock, who has been employed in Bend for several months, returned to her home here Sunday.

Bonnie Olson gave a reading and Nels Fast sang a solo with accompaniment on the piano. The church school hour Sunday morning at the M. E. church, Lincoln day was observed during the worship hour with Rev. Alexander Hawthorne giving a Lincoln day sermon. Duane Olive played a violin solo, accompanied by Lester Mooberry on the piano. Henry Switzer and Mrs. Mattie Smith sang a duet.

Ed Alexander of Portland spent the week-end with his sisters, Mrs. Janice Beneham and Mrs. Josephine Squires.

Mrs. D. C. Whiting, who has been ill with pneumonia, is able to be around again.

Plans are being made for several new houses to be built here this spring and summer. The past years there have been several fine homes built in Cornelius. Among these are Paul Senko, Leo Subbauer, Mr. Davidson, Steve Verboort, Melvin Katham, Herman Jaenecke and C. L. Leona and Ernest Behrman has built a house in his peach orchard just west of town.

New Books in Library Mrs. Edna Russell, librarian, reports that there are now 25 new books in the school library. Among these are public to read. Fifteen are fiction and non-fiction books for adult reading and about 10 are books for children.

Mr. and Mrs. William Stokes of Portland came out last Saturday and spent a few days visiting Mrs. Stokes' parents and other relatives.

Minstrel Show February 25 Cornelius Civic Improvement club will put on a minstrel show Friday evening, February 25, in the auditorium. Beth Cochrane is pianist. Cast includes Mrs. Otto Osborne, Mrs. H. Jacobsmuhlen, Mrs. Frank Doher, Mrs. Howard Olive, Mrs. Don Engelen, Alice Jane Sim-

George Wilcox, Resident of Cornelius Many Years, Dies

(By Mrs. Anna Rook) CORNELIUS—Funeral services were held Monday afternoon in the Methodist church for George A. Wilcox who died Saturday at his home here after an illness of several months. He was confined to his bed for the past four months.

Mr. Wilcox was born at Sharon in Walworth county, Wis., June 15, 1859, came to Oregon with his parents in 1872 and settled on a farm near Cornelius. He began working for the Southern Pacific railroad in 1881. McMinnville was his first station from there he went to Independence where he remained until June 1911 when he retired and moved to Cornelius, where he lived until his death.

He was a member of the Masonic order. Surviving him are his widow, Maude; two daughters, Mrs. Lulu E. Dornstife of Salem and Cecile Chandler of Marshfield. The services were in charge of the Masonic lodge. Rev. Alexander Hawthorne officiated. Interment was in Cornelius cemetery.

De Prez Recovering Fred De Prez, who has been ill with pneumonia for several weeks and was removed from the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland February 3 to the Southern Pacific hospital in San Francisco, is reported recovering satisfactorily. George DePrez accompanied his brother to the hospital as Fred was unable to make the trip alone.

Margaret Thornburg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Thornburg, who has been quite ill with stomach trouble for the past week, is somewhat improved.

A demonstration dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. Gloyd Hall, Wednesday evening. Guests were Mrs. and Mrs. Jerry Chartrey, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Frites, Mr. and Mrs. Ashley Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hanson, Mrs. Knight of Forest Grove, Ed Leona and Donnie Wyatt have been ill the last week with pneumonia.

A demonstration dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. Gloyd Hall, Wednesday evening. Guests were Mrs. and Mrs. Jerry Chartrey, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Frites, Mr. and Mrs. Ashley Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hanson, Mrs. Knight of Forest Grove, Ed Leona and Donnie Wyatt have been ill the last week with pneumonia.

Miss Mildred Rock, who has been employed in Bend for several months, returned to her home here Sunday.

Bonnie Olson gave a reading and Nels Fast sang a solo with accompaniment on the piano. The church school hour Sunday morning at the M. E. church, Lincoln day was observed during the worship hour with Rev. Alexander Hawthorne giving a Lincoln day sermon. Duane Olive played a violin solo, accompanied by Lester Mooberry on the piano. Henry Switzer and Mrs. Mattie Smith sang a duet.

Ed Alexander of Portland spent the week-end with his sisters, Mrs. Janice Beneham and Mrs. Josephine Squires.

Mrs. D. C. Whiting, who has been ill with pneumonia, is able to be around again.

Plans are being made for several new houses to be built here this spring and summer. The past years there have been several fine homes built in Cornelius. Among these are Paul Senko, Leo Subbauer, Mr. Davidson, Steve Verboort, Melvin Katham, Herman Jaenecke and C. L. Leona and Ernest Behrman has built a house in his peach orchard just west of town.

New Books in Library Mrs. Edna Russell, librarian, reports that there are now 25 new books in the school library. Among these are public to read. Fifteen are fiction and non-fiction books for adult reading and about 10 are books for children.

Mr. and Mrs. William Stokes of Portland came out last Saturday and spent a few days visiting Mrs. Stokes' parents and other relatives.

Minstrel Show February 25 Cornelius Civic Improvement club will put on a minstrel show Friday evening, February 25, in the auditorium. Beth Cochrane is pianist. Cast includes Mrs. Otto Osborne, Mrs. H. Jacobsmuhlen, Mrs. Frank Doher, Mrs. Howard Olive, Mrs. Don Engelen, Alice Jane Sim-

George Wilcox, Resident of Cornelius Many Years, Dies

(By Mrs. Anna Rook) CORNELIUS—Funeral services were held Monday afternoon in the Methodist church for George A. Wilcox who died Saturday at his home here after an illness of several months. He was confined to his bed for the past four months.

Mr. Wilcox was born at Sharon in Walworth county, Wis., June 15, 1859, came to Oregon with his parents in 1872 and settled on a farm near Cornelius. He began working for the Southern Pacific railroad in 1881. McMinnville was his first station from there he went to Independence where he remained until June 1911 when he retired and moved to Cornelius, where he lived until his death.

He was a member of the Masonic order. Surviving him are his widow, Maude; two daughters, Mrs. Lulu E. Dornstife of Salem and Cecile Chandler of Marshfield. The services were in charge of the Masonic lodge. Rev. Alexander Hawthorne officiated. Interment was in Cornelius cemetery.

De Prez Recovering Fred De Prez, who has been ill with pneumonia for several weeks and was removed from the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland February 3 to the Southern Pacific hospital in San Francisco, is reported recovering satisfactorily. George DePrez accompanied his brother to the hospital as Fred was unable to make the trip alone.

Margaret Thornburg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Thornburg, who has been quite ill with stomach trouble for the past week, is somewhat improved.

A demonstration dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. Gloyd Hall, Wednesday evening. Guests were Mrs. and Mrs. Jerry Chartrey, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Frites, Mr. and Mrs. Ashley Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hanson, Mrs. Knight of Forest Grove, Ed Leona and Donnie Wyatt have been ill the last week with pneumonia.

A demonstration dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. Gloyd Hall, Wednesday evening. Guests were Mrs. and Mrs. Jerry Chartrey, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Frites, Mr. and Mrs. Ashley Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hanson, Mrs. Knight of Forest Grove, Ed Leona and Donnie Wyatt have been ill the last week with pneumonia.

Miss Mildred Rock, who has been employed in Bend for several months, returned to her home here Sunday.

Bonnie Olson gave a reading and Nels Fast sang a solo with accompaniment on the piano. The church school hour Sunday morning at the M. E. church, Lincoln day was observed during the worship hour with Rev. Alexander Hawthorne giving a Lincoln day sermon. Duane Olive played a violin solo, accompanied by Lester Mooberry on the piano. Henry Switzer and Mrs. Mattie Smith sang a duet.

Ed Alexander of Portland spent the week-end with his sisters, Mrs. Janice Beneham and Mrs. Josephine Squires.

Mrs. D. C. Whiting, who has been ill with pneumonia, is able to be around again.

Plans are being made for several new houses to be built here this spring and summer. The past years there have been several fine homes built in Cornelius. Among these are Paul Senko, Leo Subbauer, Mr. Davidson, Steve Verboort, Melvin Katham, Herman Jaenecke and C. L. Leona and Ernest Behrman has built a house in his peach orchard just west of town.

New Books in Library Mrs. Edna Russell, librarian, reports that there are now 25 new books in the school library. Among these are public to read. Fifteen are fiction and non-fiction books for adult reading and about 10 are books for children.

Mr. and Mrs. William Stokes of Portland came out last Saturday and spent a few days visiting Mrs. Stokes' parents and other relatives.

Minstrel Show February 25 Cornelius Civic Improvement club will put on a minstrel show Friday evening, February 25, in the auditorium. Beth Cochrane is pianist. Cast includes Mrs. Otto Osborne, Mrs. H. Jacobsmuhlen, Mrs. Frank Doher, Mrs. Howard Olive, Mrs. Don Engelen, Alice Jane Sim-

George Wilcox, Resident of Cornelius Many Years, Dies

(By Mrs. Anna Rook) CORNELIUS—Funeral services were held Monday afternoon in the Methodist church for George A. Wilcox who died Saturday at his home here after an illness of several months. He was confined to his bed for the past four months.

Mr. Wilcox was born at Sharon in Walworth county, Wis., June 15, 1859, came to Oregon with his parents in 1872 and settled on a farm near Cornelius. He began working for the Southern Pacific railroad in 1881. McMinnville was his first station from there he went to Independence where he remained until June 1911 when he retired and moved to Cornelius, where he lived until his death.

He was a member of the Masonic order. Surviving him are his widow, Maude; two daughters, Mrs. Lulu E. Dornstife of Salem and Cecile Chandler of Marshfield. The services were in charge of the Masonic lodge. Rev. Alexander Hawthorne officiated. Interment was in Cornelius cemetery.

De Prez Recovering Fred De Prez, who has been ill with pneumonia for several weeks and was removed from the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland February 3 to the Southern Pacific hospital in San Francisco, is reported recovering satisfactorily. George DePrez accompanied his brother to the hospital as Fred was unable to make the trip alone.

Margaret Thornburg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Thornburg, who has been quite ill with stomach trouble for the past week, is somewhat improved.

A demonstration dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. Gloyd Hall, Wednesday evening. Guests were Mrs. and Mrs. Jerry Chartrey, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Frites, Mr. and Mrs. Ashley Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hanson, Mrs. Knight of Forest Grove, Ed Leona and Donnie Wyatt have been ill the last week with pneumonia.

A demonstration dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. Gloyd Hall, Wednesday evening. Guests were Mrs. and Mrs. Jerry Chartrey, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Frites, Mr. and Mrs. Ashley Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hanson, Mrs. Knight of Forest Grove, Ed Leona and Donnie Wyatt have been ill the last week with pneumonia.

Miss Mildred Rock, who has been employed in Bend for several months, returned to her home here Sunday.

Bonnie Olson gave a reading and Nels Fast sang a solo with accompaniment on the piano. The church school hour Sunday morning at the M. E. church, Lincoln day was observed during the worship hour with Rev. Alexander Hawthorne giving a Lincoln day sermon. Duane Olive played a violin solo, accompanied by Lester Mooberry on the piano. Henry Switzer and Mrs. Mattie Smith sang a duet.

Ed Alexander of Portland spent the week-end with his sisters, Mrs. Janice Beneham and Mrs. Josephine Squires.

Mrs. D. C. Whiting, who has been ill with pneumonia, is able to be around again.

Plans are being made for several new houses to be built here this spring and summer. The past years there have been several fine homes built in Cornelius. Among these are Paul Senko, Leo Subbauer, Mr. Davidson, Steve Verboort, Melvin Katham, Herman Jaenecke and C. L. Leona and Ernest Behrman has built a house in his peach orchard just west of town.

New Books in Library Mrs. Edna Russell, librarian, reports that there are now 25 new books in the school library. Among these are public to read. Fifteen are fiction and non-fiction books for adult reading and about 10 are books for children.

Mr. and Mrs. William Stokes of Portland came out last Saturday and spent a few days visiting Mrs. Stokes' parents and other relatives.

Minstrel Show February 25 Cornelius Civic Improvement club will put on a minstrel show Friday evening, February 25, in the auditorium. Beth Cochrane is pianist. Cast includes Mrs. Otto Osborne, Mrs. H. Jacobsmuhlen, Mrs. Frank Doher, Mrs. Howard Olive, Mrs. Don Engelen, Alice Jane Sim-

George Wilcox, Resident of Cornelius Many Years, Dies

(By Mrs. Anna Rook) CORNELIUS—Funeral services were held Monday afternoon in the Methodist church for George A. Wilcox who died Saturday at his home here after an illness of several months. He was confined to his bed for the past four months.

Mr. Wilcox was born at Sharon in Walworth county, Wis., June 15, 1859, came to Oregon with his parents in 1872 and settled on a farm near Cornelius. He began working for the Southern Pacific railroad in 1881. McMinnville was his first station from there he went to Independence where he remained until June 1911 when he retired and moved to Cornelius, where he lived until his death.

He was a member of the Masonic order. Surviving him are his widow, Maude; two daughters, Mrs. Lulu E. Dornstife of Salem and Cecile Chandler of Marshfield. The services were in charge of the Masonic lodge. Rev. Alexander Hawthorne officiated. Interment was in Cornelius cemetery.

De Prez Recovering Fred De Prez, who has been ill with pneumonia for several weeks and was removed from the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland February 3 to the Southern Pacific hospital in San Francisco, is reported recovering satisfactorily. George DePrez accompanied his brother to the hospital as Fred was unable to make the trip alone.

Margaret Thornburg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Thornburg, who has been quite ill with stomach trouble for the past week, is somewhat improved.

A demonstration dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. Gloyd Hall, Wednesday evening. Guests were Mrs. and Mrs. Jerry Chartrey, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Frites, Mr. and Mrs. Ashley Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hanson, Mrs. Knight of Forest Grove, Ed Leona and Donnie Wyatt have been ill the last week with pneumonia.

A demonstration dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. Gloyd Hall, Wednesday evening. Guests were Mrs. and Mrs. Jerry Chartrey, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Frites, Mr. and Mrs. Ashley Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hanson, Mrs. Knight of Forest Grove, Ed Leona and Donnie Wyatt have been ill the last week with pneumonia.

Miss Mildred Rock, who has been employed in Bend for several months, returned to her home here Sunday.

Bonnie Olson gave a reading and Nels Fast sang a solo with accompaniment on the piano. The church school hour Sunday morning at the M. E. church, Lincoln day was observed during the worship hour with Rev. Alexander Hawthorne giving a Lincoln day sermon. Duane Olive played a violin solo, accompanied by Lester Mooberry on the piano. Henry Switzer and Mrs. Mattie Smith sang a duet.

Ed Alexander of Portland spent the week-end with his sisters, Mrs. Janice Beneham and Mrs. Josephine Squires.

Mrs. D. C. Whiting, who has been ill with pneumonia, is able to be around again.

Plans are being made for several new houses to be built here this spring and summer. The past years there have been several fine homes built in Cornelius. Among these are Paul Senko, Leo Subbauer, Mr. Davidson, Steve Verboort, Melvin Katham, Herman Jaenecke and C. L. Leona and Ernest Behrman has built a house in his peach orchard just west of town.

New Books in Library Mrs. Edna Russell, librarian, reports that there are now 25 new books in the school library. Among these are public to read. Fifteen are fiction and non-fiction books for adult reading and about 10 are books for children.

Mr. and Mrs. William Stokes of Portland came out last Saturday and spent a few days visiting Mrs. Stokes' parents and other relatives.

Minstrel Show February 25 Cornelius Civic Improvement club will put on a minstrel show Friday evening, February 25, in the auditorium. Beth Cochrane is pianist. Cast includes Mrs. Otto Osborne, Mrs. H. Jacobsmuhlen, Mrs. Frank Doher, Mrs. Howard Olive, Mrs. Don Engelen, Alice Jane Sim-

George Wilcox, Resident of Cornelius Many Years, Dies

(By Mrs. Anna Rook) CORNELIUS—Funeral services were held Monday afternoon in the Methodist church for George A. Wilcox who died Saturday at his home here after an illness of several months. He was confined to his bed for the past four months.

Mr. Wilcox was born at Sharon in Walworth county, Wis., June 15, 1859, came to Oregon with his parents in 1872 and settled on a farm near Cornelius. He began working for the Southern Pacific railroad in 1881. McMinnville was his first station from there he went to Independence where he remained until June 1911 when he retired and moved to Cornelius, where he lived until his death.

He was a member of the Masonic order. Surviving him are his widow, Maude; two daughters, Mrs. Lulu E. Dornstife of Salem and Cecile Chandler of Marshfield. The services were in charge of the Masonic lodge. Rev. Alexander Hawthorne officiated. Interment was in Cornelius cemetery.

De Prez Recovering Fred De Prez, who has been ill with pneumonia for several weeks and was removed from the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland February 3 to the Southern Pacific hospital in San Francisco, is reported recovering satisfactorily. George DePrez accompanied his brother to the hospital as Fred was unable to make the trip alone.

Margaret Thornburg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Thornburg, who has been quite ill with stomach trouble for the past week, is somewhat improved.

A demonstration dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. Gloyd Hall, Wednesday evening. Guests were Mrs. and Mrs. Jerry Chartrey, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Frites, Mr. and Mrs. Ashley Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hanson, Mrs. Knight of Forest Grove, Ed Leona and Donnie Wyatt have been ill the last week with pneumonia.

A demonstration dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. Gloyd Hall, Wednesday evening. Guests were Mrs. and Mrs. Jerry Chartrey, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Frites, Mr. and Mrs. Ashley Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hanson, Mrs. Knight of Forest Grove, Ed Leona and Donnie Wyatt have been ill the last week with pneumonia.

Miss Mildred Rock, who has been employed in Bend for several months, returned to her home here Sunday.

Bonnie Olson gave a reading and Nels Fast sang a solo with accompaniment on the piano. The church school hour Sunday morning at the M. E. church, Lincoln day was observed during the worship hour with Rev. Alexander Hawthorne giving a Lincoln day sermon. Duane Olive played a violin solo, accompanied by Lester Mooberry on the piano. Henry Switzer and Mrs. Mattie Smith sang a duet.

Ed Alexander of Portland spent the week-end with his sisters, Mrs. Janice Beneham and Mrs. Josephine Squires.

Mrs. D. C. Whiting, who has been ill with pneumonia, is able to be around again.

Plans are being made for several new houses to be built here this spring and summer. The past years there have been several fine homes built in Cornelius. Among these are Paul Senko, Leo Subbauer, Mr. Davidson, Steve Verboort, Melvin Katham, Herman Jaenecke and C. L. Leona and Ernest Behrman has built a house in his peach orchard just west of town.

New Books in Library Mrs. Edna Russell, librarian, reports that there are now 25 new books in the school library. Among these are public to read. Fifteen are fiction and non-fiction books for adult reading and about 10 are books for children.

Mr. and Mrs. William Stokes of Portland came out last Saturday and spent a few days visiting Mrs. Stokes' parents and other relatives.

Minstrel Show February 25 Cornelius Civic Improvement club will put on a minstrel show Friday evening, February 25, in the auditorium. Beth Cochrane is pianist. Cast includes Mrs. Otto Osborne, Mrs. H. Jacobsmuhlen, Mrs. Frank Doher, Mrs. Howard Olive, Mrs. Don Engelen, Alice Jane Sim-

George Wilcox, Resident of Cornelius Many Years, Dies

(By Mrs. Anna Rook) CORNELIUS—Funeral services were held Monday afternoon in the Methodist church for George A. Wilcox who died Saturday at his home here after an illness of several months. He was confined to his bed for the past four months.

Mr. Wilcox was born at Sharon in Walworth county, Wis., June 15, 1859, came to Oregon with his parents in 1872 and settled on a farm near Cornelius. He began working for the Southern Pacific railroad in 1881. McMinnville was his first station from there he went to Independence where he remained until June 1911 when he retired and moved to Cornelius, where he lived until his death.

He was a member of the Masonic order. Surviving him are his widow, Maude; two daughters, Mrs. Lulu E. Dornstife of Salem and Cecile Chandler of Marshfield. The services were in charge of the Masonic lodge. Rev. Alexander Hawthorne officiated. Interment was in Cornelius cemetery.

De Prez Recovering Fred De Prez, who has been ill with pneumonia for several weeks and was removed from the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland February 3 to the Southern Pacific hospital in San Francisco, is reported recovering satisfactorily. George DePrez accompanied his brother to the hospital as Fred was unable to make the trip alone.

Margaret Thornburg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Thornburg, who has been quite ill with stomach trouble for the past week, is somewhat improved.

A demonstration dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. Gloyd Hall, Wednesday evening. Guests were Mrs. and Mrs. Jerry Chartrey, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Frites, Mr. and Mrs. Ashley Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hanson, Mrs. Knight of Forest Grove, Ed Leona and Donnie Wyatt have been ill the last week with pneumonia.

A demonstration dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. Gloyd Hall, Wednesday evening. Guests were Mrs. and Mrs. Jerry Chartrey, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Frites, Mr. and Mrs. Ashley Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hanson, Mrs. Knight of Forest Grove, Ed Leona and Donnie Wyatt have been ill the last week with pneumonia.

Miss Mildred Rock, who has been employed in Bend for several months, returned to her home here Sunday.

Bonnie Olson gave a reading and Nels Fast sang a solo with accompaniment on the piano. The church school hour Sunday morning at the M. E. church, Lincoln day was observed during the worship hour with Rev. Alexander Hawthorne giving a Lincoln day sermon. Duane Olive played a violin solo, accompanied by Lester Mooberry on the piano. Henry Switzer and Mrs. Mattie Smith sang a duet.

Ed Alexander of Portland spent the week-end with his sisters, Mrs. Janice Beneham and Mrs. Josephine Squires.

Mrs. D. C. Whiting, who has been ill with pneumonia, is able to be around again.

Plans are being made for several new houses to be built here this spring and summer. The past years there have been several fine homes built in Cornelius. Among these are Paul Senko, Leo Subbauer, Mr. Davidson, Steve Verboort, Melvin Katham, Herman Jaenecke and C. L. Leona and Ernest Behrman has built a house in his peach orchard just west of town.

New Books in Library Mrs. Edna Russell, librarian, reports that there are now 25 new books in the school library. Among these are public to read. Fifteen are fiction and non-fiction books for adult reading and about 10 are books for children.

Mr. and Mrs. William Stokes of Portland came out last Saturday and spent a few days visiting Mrs. Stokes' parents and other relatives.

Minstrel Show February 25 Cornelius Civic Improvement club will put on a minstrel show Friday evening, February 25, in the auditorium. Beth Cochrane is pianist. Cast includes Mrs. Otto Osborne, Mrs. H. Jacobsmuhlen, Mrs. Frank Doher, Mrs. Howard Olive, Mrs. Don Engelen, Alice Jane Sim-

PROVED SAFETY PLUS Liberal Earnings
4% On Your Savings!
Washington Savings & Loan Ass'n.
John Deere - "Caterpillar"

A Bank for Business Men
A Bank for the Family
Commercial National Bank
Home Owned by Local Home Owners
Hillsboro, Oregon

Semi-Annual PENNEY DAYS
SILK HOSE 25c
Dish Cloths 10c
CRETONNE 10c
RAYON PRINTS 39c
DISH TOWELS 7c
WOMEN'S HANKIES 2c
SAVE at PENNEY'S

5-10-15 STORE
NOTHING OVER 49c
HOME REPAIRS
COPELAND Lumber Yards