Attendance at school is almost normal again after the epidemic of "flu" and colds.
Birthdays Celebrated
Mr. and Mrs. O. Schneider and son Ellard attended a birthday dinner in Portland February 27, in honor of Mr. Schneider's father, Fred Schneider, on his 77th birthday. The center of attraction was a large birthday cake made by Mrs. O. Schneider and decorated with 77 candles. He received many gifts. Twenty-six relatives attended the affair.
Spending the week-end at the W. M. Courtney home was R. E. Courtney of Portland.
Birthdays Celebrated
One day last week was an occasion for a large birthday party at the R. H. Hansen home. The affair was planned in honor of the birthdays of Mrs. G. R. Johnson, Miss Harriet and Elmer Hansen. A huge birthday cake decorated with candles centered the table. Present were Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Johnson of Yakima, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hansen and family of Olympia, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hansen and family of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoag of Vancouver, Wash., and Miss Harriet and the host and hostess, Mrs. Johnson plans to stay with her parents for the remainder of the week and then return to her home in Yakima.
Record Perfect
The following children were neither absent nor tardy for the last six weeks: Mervel Schlessner, Pat Gillenwater, Ralph Gillenwater and Junior Tucker. There were no students on the honor roll, but the following attained honorable mention: Betty Ruth Schenk, Carol Courtney, Billie Sorenson, Henry Hinck, and Ellard Schneider.

He is in charge of the removal of the snow from the highway between Government Camp and Timberline lodge. He states that the means of removal is by large rotary snow plows and snow-go trucks. He also related that the snow is melting quite rapidly at Timberline as the result of such warm weather.
Miss Harriet Hansen, who has been working in the office of Dr. C. T. Smith of Hillsboro, has resigned in order to enjoy a two weeks' vacation before entering training in Good Samaritan hospital in Portland.
Miss Dorothy Lewis, the school teacher, has a badly infected finger. The infection was greatly reduced over the week-end.

"Fly-by-Night" Experts Scored

Recent sentencing of an unlicensed practicing veterinarian in Marion county who pleaded guilty to charges of practicing without a license was pointed out this week as an indication of stricter treatment of itinerant practitioners and "quacks."
Consultation of reliable veterinarians or the county agent's office was recommended rather than taking chances with unknown and "fly-by-night" experts who propose radical feed changes, unusual remedies and brand new cures for animals. A prominent county poultry-raiser said, particularly heavy toll in the nature of "easy marks" for the travelling experts was noted in the poultry raising field, with a large number of poultry remedies having been peddled in the Willamette valley. In many cases these remedies were not only worthless, but actually detrimental to the health of stock, it was declared.

BUY A MODERN CAR NOW—WHILE YOU HAVE MORE TO TRADE AND LESS TO PAY

SEE ANY CAR DEALER DISPLAYING THIS SIGN

Get there early while the choice is wide—fine cars now offered at rock-bottom prices

This National Used Car Exchange Week gives you a great opportunity to OWN A BETTER CAR for a small investment. Automobile dealers co-operating in this big sale have a fine selection of used cars—and prices are far below those of several months ago.

Many are 1937, '36 and '35 models—backed by the finest of dealer guarantees. All have thousands of miles of first-class unused transportation in them.

And the "first-class" transportation of these modern cars represents satisfaction which the owners of older cars can hardly imagine. Beautiful, modern styling—a more comfortable ride—more room for you and your luggage—finer, more powerful engines—better gas mileage—better brakes—bigger tires—dozens of improvements introduced since your old car was built.

Now's the time to make the switch, while you have more to trade and less to pay. Your present car may cover the down-payment—balance on easy terms. If you have no car to trade, you can still take advantage of the low down-payments and easy terms during this sale.
