

Jackson, West Union Schools Hold Reunion

The annual homecoming party of the West Union and Jackson schools was well attended. Thomas Goodin was the oldest pupil present from the West Union school and Mrs. Maria Jackson was the oldest pupil present from the Jackson school. Those present enjoyed meeting Thomas, Charles, Henry, George and William Mencham and Mrs. Bertha Ennis, brothers and sister, and all pupils of the Jackson school.

February 28, being the wedding anniversary of Mrs. and Mrs. S. A. D. Meek, the two schools presented Mrs. Meek with a lovely cake plate and fruit dish. Mr. Meek was ill and unable to attend. Former pupils attending from Portland were Charles Keffer and family, John Shute and wife, Mrs. Myrtle McClain Griffith and husband, William Meacham and wife, Pauline Joan Hargood and husband, Charles Heuston, George Gibson, James Parker, and Mrs. Edna Imbrie Zilly.

Former pupils from Hillsboro were Mrs. Jane Greer Hare and husband, Mrs. Bertha Meacham Ennis and husband, Mrs. Wilma Lincoln Merrill and family, Mrs. May Imbrie Smith, Mrs. Ida Goodin in Gulick and Mrs. Winnie Lincoln Hulbert, Ernest Haas and family and Dave Paine and family of Sheridan; Mrs. Jennie Riley Ivie of Eugene; Walter Keffer and wife of Salem. There were about 200 present.

The two schools are considering a picnic at the Rafferty grove the third Sunday in July, this year. Jackson school had three former teachers present. Walker's old-time orchestra furnished the music.

County C. E. Plans for State Session

Eighteen persons attended the County Christian Endeavor cabinet meeting in the Hillsboro Christian church Sunday.

Miss Esther Robb, new president of the Tualatin Plains C. E. society, is a new member of the county cabinet.

The Gaston society was the first to hand in a publicity scrapbook to the county chairman. The compiling of such a scrapbook is one of the standards considered in awarding the C. E. plaque to the society having the best record at the end of the year.

Gaston, having forty per cent of its membership registered for the state convention, was awarded a year's subscription to the C. E. World by Floyd Shaw, county president.

Washington Union is still in need of twelve registrations for the state convention to fill its quota.

A committee, consisting of Helen Asbahr, Irene Beamer and William Nolan, all of Forest Grove, was appointed to select a distinctive feature to identify members of Washington Union, who attend the state convention and to be used especially in the parade. This committee is also to perfect plans for a float in the parade.

A county social will be held in the Hillsboro Christian church Tuesday evening, March 15. A rural theme will be carried out. All members are asked to wear gingham in clothing, or overalls and to bring a lunch for one in a paper bag. However, no one will eat his own lunch.

A county deputation team visited the Beaverton Congregational C. E. society Sunday evening. Its members, Dorothy Howes, Irene Beamer and Helen Asbahr of Forest Grove discussed several phases of county and state Christian Endeavor work.

"Guest Night" Enjoyed by Service Club

The Women's Service club held "guest night" meeting Wednesday of last week at the chamber of commerce rooms, with Mrs. Wayne Patterson, president, presiding. Miss Corinne Pennington, school nurse, gave an informal talk, citing the good work the Service club is doing by supplying milk to undernourished school children.

Mrs. Ruby Estep was program chairman and presented the following numbers: Piano solo by Miss Mildred James; a skit, "Friends," by Mrs. H. H. Stannard and Mrs. L. B. Hall; a song, "Traveling on the Highway with Jesus," written by Mrs. C. H. Noser, and sung by Mrs. Noser, Mrs. P. A. Anderson, Mrs. J. L. Anderson and Mrs. Marie Priest. Mrs. Noser was presented with a lovely corsage bouquet in appreciation of her work, the presentation being made by the president.

Charades were played, using names of songs. Mrs. W. R. Manley, Miss Corinne Pennington and Mrs. George Laver received first prize on "Jingle Bells." At the tables those present answered to a roll call of their maiden names by telling a joke. Mrs. Noser received the prize. The George Washington birthday motif was carried out in table decorations and refreshments. Refreshment committee included Mesdames C. Eslinger, George Seifridge, J. L. Anderson, Reid Eldridge and E. Schulerich.

Miss Jean Oversby Emanuel Graduate

Miss Jean Oversby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Oversby of this city, graduated from the Emanuel hospital on February 18, and remained at her home here until Tuesday, when she returned to the Emanuel to resume her work as a nurse.

Miss Oversby has quite an unusual record for her three years of training. She never lost a day during training and was one of four nurses with that record. Graduation at that time. This is the first time in the history of the hospital that four nurses have been graduated without losing one or two days during the three years.

Big Potatoes Displayed—
In the Argus window this week are three "immense" Burbank potatoes brought in by F. A. Brady and grown on his farm above North Plains, on Pumpkin Ridge. Mr. Brady says all the potatoes he raised are about the same size.

Mrs. Verdenius Speaker March 10 at Coffee Club

Mrs. Thomas Verdenius of Portland will be the speaker at the Coffee club meeting Friday afternoon, March 10, at the chamber of commerce rooms. Mrs. Verdenius recently returned from a world tour and will give some interesting highlights on her trip. She is not unknown to Hillsboro audiences, being the speaker at the mother-daughter banquet at the Business and Professional Women's club several years ago, and at the P. E. O. meeting a short time ago. The program is in charge of the publicity committee with Mrs. Emma McKinney as chairman. Mrs. E. E. Bentley of the art department, who was to have been co-chairman for this meeting, assisted with the American Home department meeting last month. This meeting is also the annual past presidents' day, and all past presidents will be guests of honor at the meeting. Special invitations will be sent to all past presidents and other past officers to be present.

A special musical program (being prepared by Mrs. Vesey Gardner, music chairman. Hostesses for the meeting are Mrs. E. J. Kortzborn, Mrs. R. P. Rasmussen, Mrs. J. W. Holt, and Mrs. P. J. Saunders.

All ladies of the community are invited to attend this meeting.

Colonia Tea and Musicals Given

The Colonia tea and musicals given by All Saints Episcopal Guild at the V. W. Gardner home February 23 was an outstanding pre-Lenten event. The hostess and her assistants were attired in costumes appropriate to the occasion and an old spinning wheel placed before the fireplace added color and attracted much attention.

Little Barbara Harrows and Edward Burnett, dressed as Martha and George Washington, received guests at the door. Mrs. Reginald Hicks and Mrs. R. L. Burnett received with Mrs. V. W. Gardner.

Vocal selections were sung by Miss Minerva Fuller and Miss Maurine Moore with Mrs. F. J. Sewell as accompanist. Miss Lucille Fisher told an interesting story of American folk-lore, Indian and negro spiritual music and played a record of a spiritual. Mrs. C. E. Wells talked on true patriotism and a tribute to the flag.

Rooms were decorated with spring flowers and the tea table was presided over by Mesdames W. G. Hare and Alf O. Johnson of Forest Grove, Reginald T. Hicks, and George T. McGrath, Mrs. Robert Burlingame and Mrs. H. E. Barrows assisted in the dining room. About sixty attended.

Pythian Sisters Plan Another Old-Time Dance

Pythian Sisters, at their meeting Friday night, planned to have another "old-time" dance, and Friday night, March 11, was selected as the date. Temple meeting will be held prior to the dance, and dancing will start at 9 o'clock. Members of the Past Chiefs' club will be the hostess committee. All Knights, Pythian Sisters, their families and friends are invited to attend.

Initiation was held at Friday night's meeting and the charter was draped for Past Grand Chief Meriam B. Brooke, who died in Portland February 17. Mrs. Brooke, who was 79 years of age, was a prominent member of the order and had worked faithfully in the grand temple for many years.

Grand Junior Margaret Phillips of Rose Temple, St. Johns, was present and gave an interesting talk. Other guests were Mrs. Betty Holes, Mrs. Larson and Mrs. Golden Silverman of Portland, and Mrs. W. E. Ogilbee of Aurora.

V. F. W. Social, Dance Attract

Veterans of Foreign Wars held their regular social and dance Friday evening at V. F. W. hall with the largest crowd of the season present. Prevalence of illness had caused postponement of the dances during the past two months, but they will be continued regularly on the fourth Friday of each month until the summer vacation, it was announced.

The post is planning a St. Patrick's day dance open to the public, with details to be announced later.

Past Chiefs meet Tonight—
