

Movie, Better Lighting Show at Hazeldale

(By Mrs. John Imlah)
HAZELDALE—Talking moving pictures will be shown at the school Friday evening along with a better lighting demonstration under the sponsorship of the P. G. E. Parents of Hazeldale and Jacktown schools are invited to attend. The entire program is free.

R. G. Nichols of Aloha has moved into the Erwin place on William street.

Miss Thelma Davies returned Monday to teach the primary room after being absent for a week on account of illness.

Mrs. Bert Doughty spent several days last week at Amity. Her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Doughty, returned home with her Sunday.

Mrs. Rebecca Ellerson was the first dinner party guest at the home of the newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Arden Hayes, Sunday.

The county health officers gave the school children inoculation against diphtheria Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Keenan and daughter Patsy and Mr. Keenan's mother of Sandy were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Max Berger, Sunday.

Mrs. Rebecca Ellerson went to Portland Monday to stay in Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith's house while they go to Los Angeles to visit their daughter. She expects to be gone a month or more.

The school children in the upper grades received their fourth period report cards last Friday. Those having highest grades or over 90 were: Eighth grade—Clifford Holm; second, Leo Sallee; seventh grade—Clare Walker; second, Joan Heil; third, Jean Miller; sixth grade—first, Toshiko Hayashi; second, Ralph Johnson; fifth grade—first, Billy Imlah; second, Maxine Carey.

The first St. Brigit Anemones of the season are in bloom along with a bed of early yellow daffodils.

P. J. Van Bruggen of Portland conducted services at Sunday school Sunday in the absence of Ray McMinn, who was in Seattle on business.

Mr. and Mrs. William Heil and daughters Patsy and Joan visited relatives in Vancouver Sunday.

Mrs. M. O. Dobbson of Salem visited at the E. R. Dadds home one day last week.

The school board has purchased 20 desks for the school rooms.

Lois Kinchele returned to school Friday after being absent for four weeks with the mumps.

Mr. and Mrs. Arden Hayes returned last Friday from a honeymoon trip through Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hurd of Rosedale have moved into the Laura Dye place, recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Buster Ruelhart, who moved to Hillsboro.

E. R. Dadds, who has been quite ill, was visited last Friday by the sick committee from the Carpenters' union, Portland.

Junia Bower is unable to attend school at St. Mary's. She is ill with whooping cough.

Club Meets Today
Hazeldale Happy Hour club meets this Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lyle Taylor.

Mountaindale

(By Miss Margaret Mathieson)
MOUNTAINDALE—Mrs. Loel Hollenbeck was hostess for the Banks-Mountaindale "500" club Wednesday afternoon. High honors were won by Mrs. James Mathieson, Mrs. Claude Lyda and Mrs. Earl Hollenbeck, respectively. Mrs. Echo Willis and Mrs. Earl Hollenbeck were guests. Mrs. W. Walker will entertain the club on March 21.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Bates of Cottage Grove were Wednesday guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Mathieson.

Mrs. Gordon Hostess
Mrs. Fred Gordon entertained the Past Chiefs' club Thursday afternoon. After the business meeting "500" was played in which Mrs. Henry Cypher had high and Mrs. William Joos second.

Mrs. Ida Poland of Rose Lake, Idaho, who spent a week here visiting her mother, Mrs. Elsie Weaver, left for her home Thursday evening.

Sunday dinner party guests of Mr. and Mrs. Loel Hollenbeck were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Graves and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Morris of Portland.

Sunday party guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Tschanz were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lehman of Portland, Mrs. Rose G. Feller of North Plains, Mr. and Mrs. Deane Osbourne of Dixon's mill and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Greener.

Sunday party guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schlegel were Mrs. Anna Kaufman of Silvertown, Mrs. Ellis

McGraw and children Pat, Charles and Mary Lee, of Vernonia, Mrs. Reta Heltzel and daughters Norma and Betty of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Stoller of Laurel, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Imbrie and grandson Donald Imbrie of Orengo, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Schlegel and son Bob of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Williams and W. W. Williams, and Mrs. W. Walker of Banks.

Mrs. Elsie Weaver, who was seriously ill for several weeks, is able to be up and around again.

Miss Lola Haas of Sheridan spent the week-end with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Rafferty, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Haas of Sheridan attended the old time dance, given every year as the reunion and homecoming dance of the West Union and Jackson schools at the K. P. hall in North Plains, Saturday evening. They spent the week-end visiting relatives in this vicinity and her mother, Mrs. Maria Jackson, who returned home after spending a week with them.

Play at Firdale School Success

(By Mrs. John Haase)
FIRDAL-OWA HILL—The three-act play, "Where is Grandma," and the basket social given at the Firdale school last Friday night by the Sunshine club was fairly well attended. Proceeds were $15.70.

Collarbone Broken
Matilda Weaver, who is living with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Gann, broke her collarbone, when she stumbled and fell on her way home from school last week.

Fifteen ladies were present at the quilting party at the home of Mrs. Margaret Gnos Tuesday afternoon.

Rev. and Mrs. R. C. Muhly and children, Walter, Mary and Carol, of Shelton, Wash., visited his parents from Friday until Sunday.

Rev. R. C. Muhly was invited to act as toastmaster at the Waltham League Spring conference held in Cornelius Saturday.

Lois Pfahl Buried
Lois Pfahl, four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Pfahl, who died last Wednesday after about two weeks illness, was buried Saturday afternoon from the Blooming Lutheran church. Pallbearers were Albert and Oscar Muhly, Melvin and Vernon Meyer.

The Hill and Dale club will meet with Mrs. Tennis Pyle next Wednesday afternoon.

Lucille Haase has returned to school after being absent two weeks due to illness.

Couple Observe 20th Anniversary

BETHANY-CEDAR MILL—A group of relatives honored Mr. and Mrs. Sam Joos on their 20th wedding anniversary with a surprise party Sunday. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Wyss, Edward Wyss, Mrs. Chester Schulz, Misses Sarah and Florence Schulz, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Graf, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Neff, Mrs. Otto Schulz, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schulz, the guests of honor, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Joos, and their family.

Miss Catherine Wuthrick and Ed McAllen were married recently. A group of friends gave them a shower last week. Present were Messdames Harold Barnes, Bill McAllen, J. P. A. Thorne and family, Sam Walters, K. Leahy, Bill McAllen Sr., W. M. Barnes, L. S. Barnes, Charles West, Chester Haskell, James Walters and family, John Kluser, Ray DeYaugh, Fred Wuthrick, Clara Haskell, Lydia Wuthrick, Calvin Katterman and family, Misses Maxine and Betty Wuthrick, Arvelia Haskell, Helen Wuthrick, Verna Mae, and Evelyn Walters and the guests of honor.

Leedy Grange gave a card party and dance at the Cedar Mill Grange hall last Saturday night. Six tables of "500" were in play.

Mrs. Jesse Carr and Gloria Jean Wright of Berkeley, Cal., visited Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Carr over the week-end. Mrs. Carr is the mother of Glenn Carr.

Pneumonia Claims Three-Year-Old

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon from the Blooming Lutheran church for Lois Elvira Pfahl, three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Pfahl of Cornelius, route 2, Rev. E. W. Hin rich officiated at the services.

The Pfahl girl died at Jones hospital late Wednesday afternoon after a two-weeks' siege of pneumonia. She had been taken ill on February 11. She was born April 1, 1934.

Interment at Blooming cemetery followed funeral services. Donelson and Sewell were in charge of arrangements.

Old Time Resident of Banks Buried; School Election Set

(By Mrs. Max Dreesen)
BANKS—Mrs. Louisa Mills, an old time resident of Banks, was buried in the Banks cemetery Sunday afternoon following funeral services in the Forest Grove Undertaking parlour. She was a sister of Mrs. Emma Wilcox and Robert Ruffl of Banks. She died at the I. O. O. F. home in Portland February 24.

Mrs. Mills was born in Marion county, Ill. June 2, 1864, came to Oregon with her parents in 1873, and married Albert W. Mills December 18, 1883. At Banks, he died in 1932. Deceased is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Bessie McCool, Fillmore, Cal.; three sons, Fred A. of Forest Grove, William A. of Marshfield and Roy W. aboard U. S. S. West Virginia, five grandchildren; a sister, Mrs. Emma Wilcox of Banks, and two brothers, Charles Ruffl of Crawfordsville and Robert Ruffl of Banks.

Birthdays Celebrated
Mr. and Mrs. Otis Johnson and Mrs. Ruth West were Thursday evening dinner party guests at the Charles Dodson home. The dinner was in honor of their daughter, Mrs. Otis Johnson, it being her birthday anniversary.

Mrs. McGraw and children of Vernonia and Mrs. Rita Heltzel and two daughters of Portland were week-end visitors at the W. G. Walker home.

Miss Ruth Bailey of Manzanita visited Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lein Sunday.

Albert Yoder, former Banks grade school principal, visited with friends in Banks Saturday. He is principal of Alsea school.

Tadua Shigeno, Donald Spiering and Lee Sheets visited Bonneville dam Sunday.

Mrs. Parnley Hostess
Fire Grove sewing club met Thursday with Mrs. Alice Parnley. A pot luck dinner was served at noon. The day was spent quilting. Extra guests were Mrs. Flora Mumford, Mrs. Walter Beard and Mrs. Lizzie Harris of Mountandale.

Mrs. George McFarlane and daughter returned to Portland Wednesday and spent the rest of the week. George McFarlane spent the week-end here and Mrs. McFarlane and daughter returned to Banks with him Sunday evening.

Ervin Shipley of Hillsboro is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shipley. Charles Shipley is improving from his recent illness and is now able to be dressed and around the house.

Marjorie Shipley Honored
Marjorie Shipley celebrated her 10th birthday Saturday by entertaining a group of little friends with a party. Whistles and surprise packages were given as favors. A beautiful pink birthday cake was served. Present were Roberta Heard, Kay Lien, Virginia Shipley, Tillie Lou Moore, Hazel Thompson, Harriet Gleason, Marie Rinck, Ruby Young, and Marjorie and Juanita Shipley.

Mrs. Johnson Honored
A surprise party was given Mrs. Otis Johnson Saturday night at her home to celebrate her birthday anniversary by her daughter, Fern, and Anna Van Grunven. The evening was spent playing cards. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schlegel, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lien, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dodson, Mr. and Mrs. Don Garrigus, Mrs. C. B. Hall, Miss Anna Van Grunven and Mr. and Mrs. Otis Johnson and Fern.

Verlie Prickett left Sunday for Neah Bay, Wash., where she is employed with the Crown Willamette Logging company.

Special Election Monday
A special election will be held Monday at 8 p. m. at the grade school house to elect a school director to succeed Earl Wilson, who has resigned.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Dowling spent the week-end at Eugene and attended the Oregon State-Oregon basketball game Saturday night.

Week-end guests of Rev. and Mrs. W. F. Willings were Mr. and Mrs. P. H. McDonald and son Peter, Jr., of Portland.

Dinner party guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Parnley were Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Friedly of Hillsboro, Mr. and Mrs. F. Mays and two children, Fred Blair and George Gorgenson, all of Rydewood, Wash.

Charlie Sandy and family are moving in their new home in Forest Grove, which they have just completed.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Winters and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Carstens at Vernonia, Mrs. Carstens who has been very ill with pneumonia at the home of her mother, Mrs. A. A. Bayers, is very much improved.

Mrs. Henry Miller, south of Banks, is very ill with septic sore throat.

Francis Morrill, who is employed at the Forest Grove Creamery, is taking a buttermaker's short course at O. S. C. He is finishing a course as buttermaker which will give him a state buttermaker's license.

Donald is working in his brother and Mrs. A. Morrill and Mr. and Mrs. Don Morrill took Francis to Corvallis Sunday a week ago and drove on to Albany and visited with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Morrill, Jr.

Mrs. Robert Pettit and two sons of Rainier, Wash., visited the past week with her parents Mr. and relatives in Banks, and other friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pettit arrived Friday evening from Baker, and spent the night with her parents, Mrs. Emmett Shipley, and family Saturday they returned to their home in Rainier.

Max Dreesen is visiting this week with George Moss and family at Seaside.

Legion Celebration Set
Banks American Legion and Auxiliary are planning to celebrate the birthday of American Legion March 11. The Vernonia Legion and Auxiliary are to be guests. State officers will be speakers.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Croissant of Portland attended the dance at the high school Friday night. He was former principal of the Banks high school.

Miss Helen Dickerson of Molalla visited at the Jeff Kennedy home Friday night and attended the high school dance. Miss Dickerson was the primary grade school teacher in Banks last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Coffy of Portland spent the week-end with Mrs. Leona Robertson and Mr. Clark.

The strawberry growers are taking advantage of the fine weather the last week and have a crew of men hoeing and scattering fertilizer.

Kills Coyote
Another coyote was killed the first of the week by Clell Carstens in the Murphy logging, west of Banks.

Cemetery Meeting Saturday
Annual meeting of the Union Point Cemetery will be held Saturday at 2 p. m. at the home of Mrs. George McGraw. One trustee is to be elected and other business transacted. Following that meeting there will be a meeting of the Cemetery club. Everyone is invited to attend.

Thursday evening guests at the E. E. Hopkins home were Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Backer and son of Silvertown.

Dillon Jones and Ruby West of Salem visited Miss West's sister, Ruth, at the Otis Johnson home Friday night. Ruth West returned to Salem with them Saturday to spend the week-end.

Attracts Large Crowd
"Amateur Night" was again attended by a large crowd Friday evening. The following program was given: Piano duet, Billy and Evelyn Kessler; address on "Americanism," Mrs. Bruce McCann; guitar trio, steel guitars, Earl Genzer and Lyle Wolford; Spanish guitar Everett Genzer; orchestra music, Mrs. Bush, Boyd Bush, Mary Letta Bush, Earl and Everett Genzer and Lyle Wolford; cowboy singing, Willard and Kenneth McLain in costume; violin solo, Mary Letta Bush, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Bush, at the piano; piano solo, Fern Johnson; old-time dance music, Carl White, violin, and Mrs. Tom Engen, piano; piano solo, Marina Engen, and accordion music, Lee Reidel.

The numbers as in the past were entirely voluntary offerings and were much appreciated by the audience and the Ladies' Aid, which sponsors these amateur nights. These programs have done much to arouse a community spirit, bring out musical talent in the community and to make the people of the community more musical minded.

Next "Amateur Night" will be the last Friday in March. Anyone in the community who can sing, play an instrument, give a short play, present a play or skit is invited to give their numbers at that time.

Mrs. Cass Wilson and Mrs. Fred Bovee attended a pot luck dinner Friday at Mrs. Tom Qualls given by R. N. A. lodge of Hillsboro.

Mrs. Ray Parnley spent Friday in Portland while there she visited Mrs. Ada Coffield, a former Banks resident, Mrs. Coffield owns and operates the Lighthouse mission in Portland, and is compiling a hymn book of songs which she has composed. Her son, Burnell, is a singer with the National Broadcasting station in Spokane.

Mothers Meet Friday
The Mothers' club will meet Friday afternoon with Mrs. Alice Parnley.

Former Resident Weds
Mrs. N. J. Griffen has received the announcement of the marriage of Miss Alma Gourley of Westport and L. D. Ert of Woodburn, December 11. The bride resided in Banks for several years and is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Gourley. The couple are making their home in Woodburn, where he is in the insurance business.

Rev. W. F. Willings was ill Sunday with a severe sore throat and was not able to occupy the pulpit. Sunday night the Epworth League conducted live services, Stanley Morrill led the devotionals, and Miss Theresa Paetsch gave a short talk and led the discussion. The Epworth League choir furnished the music.

A. H. Wolford is improving from his recent illness.

Mrs. Creekpau Buried Monday

CORNELIUS—Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at Young's Funeral Home in Hillsboro for Mrs. Mary Lillian Creekpau, 88, who died here last week. Interment was in Hillsboro I. O. O. F. cemetery, Rev. R. L. Putnam officiated.

Mrs. Creekpau, who was born on February 25, 1858, in Mason City, Illinois, came to Cornelius from Peoria, Ill. in 1903, and had lived here ever since. She married Joseph Creekpau at Mason City on September 26, 1875. He died in December, 1891. Two of the five Creekpau children survive, including Ernest of Cornelius and Alonzo B. of Portland. In addition, Mrs. Creekpau leaves four sisters, Mrs. N. E. McCluggage, Hollywood, Cal.; Mrs. Louisa Smith, Excelsior, Minn.; Mrs. Anna Hull, and Mrs. Ellen Pierce and two brothers, Jean and Guy Broomer, all of Mason City.

Mrs. Creekpau was a lifelong member of the Christian church, and was also a charter member of the Cornelius Improvement club.

Beaverton
BEAVERTON—About seventy-five persons attended the father and son dinner at the Congregational church Tuesday evening.

Mrs. R. L. Lacy, worthy matron of Beaver chapter O. E. S. is able to be out now after having been confined to her home with a sprained ankle, caused by a fall at her home.

The ritualistic work of Bethel No. 20, Daughters of Job of Beaverton, was officially inspected by the grand guardian, Mrs. Charlotte Wing Monday evening. The order entertained with a dancing party recently at the local Kiwanis hall.

Mrs. Agnes McFreen is at the Portland general hospital receiving treatment for injuries received in an automobile accident in Portland.

Rubber stamps and office supplies—Hillsboro Argus.

Your Dental Work

DONE AS I WOULD HAVE MINE

DR. ABRAMS
Over Piggy Wiggly

COMPLETE LABORATORY for Making and Repairing PLATES

EXTRA SPECIALS

at WEIL'S DEPARTMENT STORE

Friday-Saturday-Monday

MEN'S BIB OVERALLS

Here they are Men! Just in time for the spring work! Buy two pair for the price you generally pay for one! A 3 days sale! Similar to illustration.

2 PAIR

59c

2 PAIR

$1.00

WORK SHIRTS

In blue and grey, 14 1/2 to 17. Stock up now while you have this opportunity!

3 FOR

39c

3 FOR

$1.00

Work and Dress SOCKS

Coarser knits for work and rayon mixtures for dress. They go on sale at

10c Pair

$1.50 WORK PANTS

79c

Pair Sanforized

Heavy enough for all kinds of work! Good looking enough to wear in town. Sizes 30 to 42 waist.

YOU'LL BE AMAZED

AT THE WAY BENDIX WASHES CLOTHES AUTOMATICALLY!

THIS IS ALL YOU DO:

- Put dry soiled clothes into the dry cylinder.
- Set two automatic controls—add soap and bluing.
- Remove clean clothes damp-dry, ready for line.

Thousands of women who have seen actual demonstrations have been thrilled and amazed at the way it washes, rinses and damp-dries clothes, cleans itself, shuts off automatically. Workless washdays are really here. The week's wash done without hands touching water. And Bendix washes clothes far cleaner. Pays for itself with actual savings... may be owned with a small down payment and easy terms.

SEE THE BENDIX HOME LAUNDRY DEMONSTRATED AT 2:30 P. M. TUESDAYS, THURSDAYS and SATURDAYS Evenings by Appointment

Lester Ireland & Co. 3rd and Main HILLSBORO Phone 2411

A Higher Wage Scale For Your Dollar

4%

Plus Safety

There is no worrying about the safety of your savings when you invest them here. You get double protection—first mortgages on homes and unconditionally guaranteed by our entire RESERVE FUND.

MEMBER FEDERAL HOME LOAN BANK

SAFE

RELIABLE

Washington Savings & Loan Ass'n. J. M. PERSON, Manager Savings & Loan Bldg. Hillsboro, Oregon

Plan Now For Your HOME

The Man Who Builds Today Is Smart!

The man who plans for the future... who strives to put his family on a secure basis... has a home of his own or is planning to build one.

See COPELAND for FREE House Plans FREE Estimates Quality Materials

COPELAND Lumber Yards

Phone 301

SHIRTS and SHORTS

For MEN and BOYS

You'll need plenty at this low price. Cotton knit shirts and broadcloth shorts. All sizes for Men and Boys!

Extra Special!

25c

Each