

District Convention Forest Grove Friday

Pythian Sisters of District No. 8 will hold a convention at Forest Grove Friday afternoon and evening at the K. P. hall, with Mrs. J. P. McGlasson as district deputy grand chief, and Mrs. Lucretia Mann as convention secretary.

Seven temples are in this district—McMinnville, Yamhill, Gaston, Forest Grove, North Plains, Vernonia and Hillsboro. Hillsboro's part in the session will be response to address of welcome by Mrs. J. W. Barnes, exemplification of the law, initiation by Phoenixia Temple officers, Mrs. Estella Johnson will act as grand senior, and Mrs. H. R. Chantler will give a reading.

Reception and registration will be held from 1 to 1:30 p. m. and the session will be called to order at 1:30. The address of welcome will be given by Mrs. Lucille Franklin, most excellent chief of Delphi Temple, Forest Grove. Temple reports will be given and work will be exemplified as follows: Officers march by Vernonia Temple, balloting by Lakeview Temple of Gaston, installation by Friendship Temple of North Plains, and draping of the charter by Forest Temple of Yamhill.

Dinner will be served at 6 o'clock at the Congregational church, and the evening session will convene at 8:15. Delphi Temple will give the opening, closing, and degree staff work, Diancia Temple of McMinnville will exemplify the Knights' initiation, and Phoenixia Temple the ladies' initiation.

Mrs. Clara Moss of Allice, grand chief, will be the principal speaker, and other grand officers will give short talks. Musical numbers and skits will be included in the program.

Speaker

Mrs. Clara Moss, grand chief, speaker at Pythian Sisters' district convention at Forest Grove Friday.

Tualatin Chapter Honors 20 Guests

Twenty non-affiliate members of the Eastern Star were honored guests of Tualatin chapter Tuesday evening. Eighteen chapters and seven states were represented. All were introduced and the ladies presented with Easter baskets filled with bulbs. Following the meeting Miss Ruth Boyles of Pacific university, Forest Grove, presented her string ensemble in several violin selections.

Easter lilies and green candles were used in decorating the dining room. Mrs. G. V. Payne sang "Ave Maria," accompanied by Mrs. Fred Sewell. Group singing of well known hymns was enjoyed, with Mrs. J. H. Murton as accompanist.

Rainbow Official Visits Here Monday

Miss Dorothy Magnusson of Eugene grand worthy advisor of Oregon, will make an official visit to Hillsboro and Vernonia assemblies at the Hillsboro Masonic temple Monday evening. All Masons and Eastern Stars are urged to attend.

Hillsboro girls will exemplify opening balloting, escort and closing and Vernonia assembly will have the initiatory work. Glennis Carlson and Mary Manley have charge of the program and Ann Peterson will act on the refreshment committee.

"Guest Day" Planned Social Club O. E. S.

Eastern Star Social club will have a "guest day" dessert and bridge party Friday at the J. M. Person home. Dessert will be served at 1:30 p. m. Hostesses are Mesdames Person, George Jacobson, Arnold Jensen, E. J. McAlvar, Marie Dinmore and R. W. Peterson. All members are to bring guests.

Mrs. Sarah Haney Honored on Birthday

Mrs. Sarah Haney was given a birthday party April 10 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ringle. Forty-two relatives and friends attended, among them her sons, Ted and Will Haney, of Thathen, Fred of Strassel, Newton of Forest Grove, daughters, Mrs. Lou Wright and Mrs. Charles Sears of Thathen, seven grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Peters Ill—

Mrs. R. Frank Peters is confined to her home with severe throat trouble. "Misfortunes never come singly" an old saying, seems to be true in this instance. Robert Peters has just recovered from a case of blood poisoning brought about by a fall at school, and Mrs. Peters' father, R. H. Craddock, is recovering from a severe illness.

Birthday Celebrated—

Betty Sparks was given a birthday party Easter Sunday at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. W. Hamner. She was born on Easter day, April 17, 1927, and this is the first time since that the date has fallen on Easter. Guests were Katherine Jones, Wallace Sigler, Carol Coslett, Charles Coslett, Dolores Miller and Ralph Hanna.

Youth Groups Plan Dance for May 14

See Scouts and Girl Mariners of Hillsboro will join forces for a spring dance on Saturday evening, May 14, at 8:30. It was announced this week. Providing music for the occasion will be the Pacific university "Collegians" orchestra.

"Old Fellows" hall has been selected as site of the dance by the committee in charge, which includes Mary Manley, Marjorie Patterson and Margaret Duxbury of the Girl Mariners and Ted Gardner, Dave Wiley and Bob Allison of the Sea Scouts.

"Recession" Over In Marriage License Bureau

Springtime and Dan Cupid have once again united forces and are on their way to making another record in Washington county, according to marriage license records in the office of County Clerk W. A. Tupper.

From January 1 until last week, only 13 marriage licenses had been issued in Washington county. Then in a burst of spring business, 11 licenses to wed were issued during the past week as blushing young brides and bashful grooms prepared for Easter-season weddings. The wedding "recession" is over.

Hillsboro Scouters Planning Acts For Annual Circus

Five Boy Scout troops of the Hillsboro district are making plans to participate in the gigantic Scout circus on May 7, at Multnomah civic stadium in Portland, when nearly 6000 Boy Scouts of the entire Portland Area council will be seen in action.

Hillsboro, Cornelius, Orenco, and Hillsboro Rotary and Legion troops have signified their intentions of entering the event. Members of the Sea Scout Ship Rainbow will probably participate in opening of the circus.

The circus is planned to include a first aid demonstration and a horse and rider tourney. Trek cart drill will be put on by the Rotary troop, and the Legion troop will demonstrate wall-scaling and bridge building.

This year's circus will be presented only the one night, instead of for two evenings as was the custom in the past. The grand entry parade will begin at Kamn field adjacent to the stadium at 8 p. m. Signaling, first aid, animal acts, horse and rider tourney, clowns, chariots, bridge and tower building, camping and slide shows will be included in the program.

Meanwhile, Hillsboro district scout leaders plan for their monthly court of honor April 28, in the circuit court room of the county court house.

Girls Sell Doughnuts—

Hee-la-dee Camp Fire girls met Tuesday afternoon at the home of their guardian, Mrs. H. L. Bickford. A new member, Winona Husell, was received into the group.

Bookbinding was taught, and plans were made for a doughnut sale. The girls are taking orders this week for delivery Saturday.

The group will meet soon at the Bickford home to study plans under direction of Miss Rowena Hermann. Next meeting they will study "Etiquette for Young Moderns."

Mrs. Bessie Anderson of Salem was visiting with Hillsboro friends Sunday. Mrs. Anderson is employed with the Montgomery Ward company in Salem.

Mrs. Clarissa Owen of Eugene was a week-end guest of her sister, Mrs. W. C. Christensen, and family.
