

Operetta Held, Certificates Presented

(By Mrs. Frank Pezold)

ROCK CREEK—Operetta presented by the Rock Creek school Wednesday night drew a fair sized crowd. Much work had been done in preparing costumes and decorations and in practice. Some of the leading characters in the play were Stanley Congdon, Florence Dick and Aldeane Zahler. After the operetta L. E. Francis, assistant county agent, gave a short talk and presented members of the Rock Creek 4-H dairy club with pins and a certificate. Dick Jossy was presented with a four-year certificate and Elmer Grossen, Fred and Jack Bauman were presented with three-year silver pins. Rock Creek 4-H dairy club has eight members.

Honor Roll Given

The following pupils at Rock Creek school are on the honor roll for the last six weeks: Florence Dick, Stanley Congdon and Margie Epperson in the upper grades and Dolores Allwin, Glen Grossen, Shirley Zahler and Carolyn Benson in the lower grades. Those with perfect attendance were Virginia Allwin, Florence Dick, Roy Grossen, Aldeane Zahler and Eddie Tanner in the upper grades, and Carolyn Benson, Shirley Zahler and Dolores Allwin in the lower grades.

The Helping Hand club met with Mrs. Christ Reichen Wednesday. Mrs. L. W. Warner and Miss Helen Murphy were guests.

Oliver Dick has been absent from school due to illness. He was unable to take part in the operetta last week.

Mrs. Fred Pageler, who teaches school at St. Johns, enjoyed Easter vacation last week. She drives back and forth from here to her work.

J. Russell opened the Rock Creek garage last week.

Mrs. Maria Schmidt was hostess at an Easter dinner party Sunday.

Among those present were Miss Ruth Smith of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Abe Zahler and family of this section.

Birthdays Celebrated
Mr. and Mrs. Ben Leu and family were dinner guests of her mother, Mrs. L. Warner, in Hillsboro Easter Sunday. The dinner was also in honor of the birthday anniversaries of Galien and Verlene Adams.

Benson was home from Portland Thursday until Sunday.

Stanley Congdon spent the weekend in Portland. While there he visited his father, Morton Congdon, at the Veterans' hospital. Mr. Congdon, who is an invalid, had sustained a broken arm recently.

Fifty-Year Sheaf Given to Granger

(By Mrs. O. H. Peterson)

BEND—State Grange Master Gill presented Mrs. Rosa Tigar with a fifty-year sheaf certificate honoring her fifty-year membership in the Tigar Grange. This makes five gold sheaf certificate holders in the Tigar Grange.

Easter vacation was enjoyed Friday by the local school and the Tigar high school enjoyed a vacation Thursday, Friday and Monday.

A group of men and women of Tigar are planning a series of bi-monthly dances beginning April 21 in the auditorium of the St. Anthony's church. The music for the dances will be furnished by the "Mountain Ramblers" orchestra.

Announcement of the engagement of Miss Bertha Sheppard of Sherwood and Watson Thornton of Spokane was made to friends at a sorority tea held at the Beta Tau Alpha hall in Eugene recently. Miss Sheppard will graduate from the university this spring.

Bessie Lovinger and Irene Johnson of San Francisco, Cal. sisters of Ed Johnson, spent a couple days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Johnson and daughter Lucille.

Miss Lucille Peterson, who is employed in Portland, spent from Saturday until Monday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Peterson, and family.

Patty Gholson, Phyllis Woertendyke and Glenore Spousta were selected to go to the 4-H summer school at Corvallis. They are from the "Homemaking Project" in 4-H work under the direction of their teacher, Miss Frances Poe.

Mr. and Mrs. William Scott and son Norman came Saturday morning from Cloverdale, and visited at the home of Mrs. Scott's mother, Mrs. Otto Meyer, and family until Sunday and visited relatives Sunday at Fishers, Wash., and also at the home of Mr. Scott's sister, Mrs. H. L. Elsner, and family.

The Mountain Ramblers orchestra, that plays for the dances which are held every two weeks at the Kinton Grange hall, will have a carnival with fun-makers at the dance April 30.

A card party and dance will be held at St. Anthony's hall at Tigar April 21 (tonight) with the Mountain Ramblers furnishing the music.

Program Given at Easter Service

(By Mrs. John Imhah)

HAZELDALE—Over 100 were present at the Sunday school Easter services. Joanne Stout received a prize for perfect attendance for more than one year. Tasheko Hayashi had a birthday program. Song by Mrs. W. P. Brooks boys' class, duet, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Cook; Easter exercise, Mrs. Ray Kinchloe's class; duet, Estella and Eloise Imhah, piano solo, Doris Webber; song by Mrs. R. C. Doty's class; exercise by Mrs. M. A. Ketchum's class; talk by D. W. Cook of Portland, duet by Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Cook.

Oneta Hesterlee has returned to her home at Kinton after staying for some time with Mrs. Lyle Taylor.

Joseph Krupa, who is attending Portland University from New Jersey, was a spring vacation guest of Byron Bruch.

Home Acreage
Mr. and Mrs. Burden have rented Mrs. Rebecca Ellerson's acreage, and are having it plowed for planting grain.

Henry Bauer has been quite ill at his home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Edwards entertained with a dinner Sunday honoring Mrs. Edwards' mother, Mrs. J. E. Scrimsher of Portland. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Eagleton of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. David Eagleton of Tacoma, Wash.

Guests over the week-end of Mr. and Mrs. James Broad and Mr. and Mrs. Arden Hays were Mr. and Mrs. Norman Lamb of San Diego, Cal.

House guests of Mrs. Bessie Bridgman are Mrs. Ednah Hanley and daughter, Mrs. Floyd Johnson, and two sons, Carvel and Keith of Berkeley, Cal. They expect to spend about a month visiting relatives.

The children had an Easter egg hunt with prizes at school Friday afternoon.

"Conquest of the Cascades" is a moving picture showing the work of boring the railroad tunnels, and "Coronation" of the king of England, were shown to the children at school Friday.

Hazeldale Happy Hour club met last Thursday with Mrs. Arden Hays. Thirteen members were present and three visitors, Mrs. Joe Bush, Mrs. Bert Dought and Mrs. George McGraw, Sunday.

Roller was celebrated. Next meeting will be with Mrs. Donald Fraser.

Education picture of Yellowstone national park was shown to the school children last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Imhah visited Mr. and Mrs. James Imhah of McMinnville Monday.

Birthdays Celebrated
Mrs. Bessie Bridgman entertained with a dinner Sunday honoring the birthdays of Mrs. Lillie Hanley, John Hanley, Mrs. Floyd Johnson and sons Keith and Carvel. Other guests were Charles Van Buren of Los Angeles, Mrs. Annie Sander, Lillian Carlson, and Vern Johnson of Portland.

MRS. EARL C. BELL
Funeral services for Mrs. Inez Ellen Bell, 35, late of Beaverton route 1, were held at the Beaverton Methodist church Saturday afternoon. Rev. Howell, assisted by Rev. Groeschel, officiating. Interment was in Rose City cemetery.

Mrs. Bell was born on Easter Sunday, April 12, 1903, in Lilly, Ill., and in 1911 moved with her parents to Montana. In 1922 she was graduated from Wibaux, Mont., schools and remained there two years as teacher. In 1924 she married Earl C. Bell, and in 1928 moved from Montana to this section, where the family had resided ever since.

Mrs. Bell is survived by her husband and two children, Paul and Phyllis, Beaverton; one son, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Williams, a brother, Herbert A. Williams, and sister, Mrs. A. J. Brooks, all of Portland. W. E. Pegg was in charge of funeral arrangements.

Blooming Local Meets 29th
Blossoming Farmers' Union local will hold a social meeting Friday night, April 29 at the Cornelius hall, according to plans made at the meeting April 13. All Farmer Union members and their friends are invited to attend. At the next business meeting, delegates will be elected to attend the state convention, and all members are urged to be present.

Argus classified ads get results

Legion Auxiliary of Banks To Judge Poppy Posters

(By Mrs. Max Dreeszen)

BANKS—All posters for the poppy poster contest sponsored by the Legion Auxiliary must be finished by April 27 so that the women of the auxiliary may pick them up and arrange them for the judging that will take place April 28 in the afternoon. Grade schools participating are Banks, Prickett, Manning, Buxton and Harrison schools.

Meeting Changed
The American Legion Auxiliary has postponed its meeting from the last Wednesday in the month to next Thursday. This change is on account of the poppy poster contest. Business meeting will be in the morning with a pot luck dinner at noon.

Honor Roll Given
Grade school honor roll for the past six weeks is as follows: primary room, "1's" and "2's" are Charlotte Finck, Derry Ellason, Kenneth Pool, Basil Hatter, Ellis Shipley, Elroy Winters, all "1's," Ross Sheeley, third and fourth grades: Lillian Mae Benefield, Sam Maeda, Kay Laep; fifth and sixth grades: Juanita Wolford, Connie Lou Van Doren, Barbara Wilson, Evelyn Kessler, Maria Finck, Janet Sellers; seventh and eighth grades: Sheila Hall, Norman Lien, Dickie Van Doren, Dale Dreeszen.

Lyle Wolford returned to his work at Forest Grove Tuesday after spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wolford, in Banks. Lyle spent Sunday and Sunday night at the Frank Genzer home on Green Mountain.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shipley of Banks and Mrs. George McFarlane and Nadine of Forest Grove took Charles Reppeto back to his home in Portland Sunday. Charles had spent the week-end with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Eckert have moved into their new home on Main street, recently purchased from Mr. and Mrs. Jack Benefield.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hartwick and daughter spent the week-end with Mrs. Hartwick's mother, Mrs. Rose Porter, in Portland.

Funeral Held
Mrs. Clell Carstens attended the funeral of A. A. Byers at Washougal Sunday. Mr. Byers was the father of Mrs. Arlie Carstens. He was killed Thursday by a logging train at Vernonia, where he was employed as a brakeman.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Woodman of Portland spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smejkal of Green Mountain and also visited Mrs. Woodman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George McGraw, Sunday.

Mrs. Amy Turner of Vernonia is employed in the Old Home cafe recently opened.

J. W. Letzel of Curtin is visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Dowling.

Easter party dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wade Armentout were Mr. and Mrs. Archie Thompson and children of Mountaineer. Mr. and Mrs. Leona Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Morgan and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Parnley and daughter Alvena of Banks.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cotty of Portland were week-end guests of Mr. Leona Robertson and Ed Clark.

An Easter egg hunt was enjoyed by children of the grade school Friday morning. Special treats were also provided by the teachers.

Dance Friday
Seniors are sponsoring a dance Friday night. The Nightingales orchestra will furnish the music.

Fenton Moore of Seattle was a week-end guest at the E. E. Hopkins home in Banks.

Verle Prickett of Neah Bay, Wash., arrived here Friday, a short time before the death of his mother, Mrs. John Prickett, accompanied by his wife, Mrs. Prickett, and three children, who have spent several months at the E. E. Hopkins home here in Banks. His father, John Prickett, also accompanied them home for a short rest and visit for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bell and family and Mrs. N. J. Griffen drove to Seaside Saturday and visited Mr. and Mrs. Harry Whitfield until Sunday evening. Mrs. Griffen remained to spend a few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Whitfield.

On account of the bad weather the Easter sunrise service of the Epworth League was held at the parsonage. Following the music and devotionals an Easter breakfast was served.

Mr. Kerrick, a representative of the state department dealing with accidents, spoke at high school assembly last week. He discussed the probable cause of accidents on the highways and said that there was always someone or something at fault, the driver, the pedestrian or the car.

Mrs. Fred Caldwell and Mrs. George Nelson of Neah Bay, Wash., came to Banks Saturday to attend the funeral of their aunt, Mrs. John Prickett.

Hopkins Agent
E. E. Hopkins has bid in the job of agent and operator at a Wilkesboro depot, which opened a few days ago when logging operations resumed.

Easter party guests with Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Sandy were Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Thompson and daughter of St. Helena, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Thompson and son of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Sandy of Kansas City.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Marr and daughter drove to Taft Sunday to spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stafford.

Amos Sellers and George Schneider spent a few days last week fishing at the coast.

Miss Marie Rieben, who is attending Oregon Normal school, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Rieben.

Program Given
Linfield college male quartet presented a musical program Thursday at the high school.

Speaker Named
With graduation only a few weeks away high school seniors are holding meetings in preparation for the event. Professor Charles of Willamette university has been selected to give the address on graduation night.

Honor Roll Given
Albert Whitaker and Betty McCann head the high school honor roll for the past six weeks with four "1's." Iva Lee Rosencrans and Alma Peterson earned three "1's." Those with a "2" average were Beulah Shigeno, Robert Schlegel, Jack Seidel, James Cason and Vera Reppeto.

Mrs. Max Dreeszen entertained the bridge club Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Alfred Lewis won first, Mrs. Cass Wilson second, and Mrs. Bruce Dowling last. Mrs. Bruce Dowling was an invited guest. Next meeting will be with Mrs. Arthur Ireland April 28.

Mrs. George Moss of Seaside is spending this week with her daughter, Mrs. Verze Prickett, and family and other relatives in Banks.

Miss Ruth West, high school domestic science teacher, spent the Easter vacation with her parents in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ghertz and daughter have moved into the house on Sunset avenue, which they recently purchased and improved.

Several business houses in Banks have been improved lately by receiving a coat of paint. Buildings improved were McDonald's Inn, Jack Benefield's confectionery, Bert Friday's house and barber shop and the Old Home cafe.

Amateur Night April 29
"Amateur Night" will be held Friday night, April 29, in the Legion hall. Anyone in the community or other communities is invited to furnish numbers, either instrumental or music, singing, readings or other numbers for this program. Admission is free but a collection will be taken for church improvements. "Amateur Night" is sponsored by the Ladies' Aid and is a monthly affair.

Agricultural Club Organized Friday

(By Miss Margaret Mathiesen)

MOUNTAINDALE—A 4-H meeting was held at the school house Tuesday evening for anyone interested in the project. L. E. Francis of Hillsboro was present to answer any questions that were put forth. An agricultural club has been organized for the boys and girls together.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Anderson of Dee spent the Easter holidays with her brother, Kenneth Keenan, and family.

Easter dinner party guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Layton were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Garrigus and daughters Joann and Marilyn of Forest Grove, and Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Baker and children spent Easter with his mother, Mrs. Henry Baker, of Mt. Angel.

Mr. and Mrs. Jason Little and son Robert of Portland spent several days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jensen.

Leigh Stetler of Portland was a Saturday overnight guest of Howard Hollenbeck and family.

Mrs. Ernest Haas and daughter Iola and Eugene Thompson of Sherida were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Rafferty.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Moffat of Chehalis, Wash., visited Mrs. Moffat's sister, Mrs. Echo Willis, and her brother, Loel Hollenbeck, and family Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Mathiesen were hosts for the "500" club Tuesday evening. Prizes went to Mrs. A. Reynolds, Mrs. William Jose, Andy Christner and Loel Hollenbeck.

Mrs. Delbert Fowles spent last week in Portland with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. L. Brown, and helped to care for her grandson, Bruce, who was ill with pneumonia.

Week-end guests of Mrs. Echo Willis were her sister, Mrs. Arthur Bishop, and family of Valsezt. They also visited at the Loel Hollenbeck home.

Birthdays Celebrated
Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Appleton were Friday evening dinner party guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Young of Gaston. The dinner being in honor of Mr. Young's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Smith and son Earl, and Mr. and Mrs. Grin Darcy and daughter of Shady Brook spent Easter with Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Connolly of Willamina. The men spent some time fishing on the coast.

Leisyville
LEISYVILLE—The 4-H program and pie social will be held Friday at the school house. Ladies please bring pies. Proceeds will go for a 4-H summer school scholarship.

Mrs. Edna Hanley and her daughter, Mrs. Floyd Johnson, and children of Berkeley, Cal., are visiting Mrs. Hanby's son John and other relatives.

Treat Yourself to a GOOD TIME at the Knights of Columbus Easter Carnival DANCE

BUCKEYE PAVILION, Cornelius
TONIGHT (April 21)

Intermission entertainment by Miss Dorine Foelker and Genzer Brothers
Winners of 1937 and 1938 American Legion Amateur Contests
ADMISSION, 25c

COMPLETE LINE Gas Furnaces

Fully automatic heat for your home!
SEE THE NEW GAS CABINET FURNACE and air conditioning unit that will fit in a corner of the room or closet.

Up to 36 Months to Pay Under FHA

HILLSBORO Sheet Metal Works

C. R. (Chet) Merrill, Prop.
230 E. Washington St. HILLSBORO Phone 1333

HILL THEATRE Starting Tonight 6 BIG DAYS

Thursday, April 21, through Tuesday, April 26, inclusive
Continuous Show Sunday—1:30 to 11 P. M.

LOOK WHO'S IN GARY'S ARMS NOW!

AMERICA'S LEADING LOVE TEAM IN THE COMEDY HIT OF 1938!

ADOLPH ZUKOR PRESENTS
CLAUDETTE COLBERT - GARY COOPER
"BLUEBEARD'S EIGHTH WIFE"
EDWARD EVERETT HORTON · DAVID NIVEN · ELIZABETH PATTERSON · HERMAN BING
Screen Play by Charles Brackett and Billy Wilder · Based on the Play by Alfred Soren · English Play Adaptation by Charlton Andrews
PRODUCED AND DIRECTED BY ERNST LUBITSCH A PARAMOUNT PICTURE

PLUS—Selected Short Subjects

Return Engagement—By Popular Demand
Coming Soon to the Hill Theatre
"TRAIL OF THE LONESOME PINE"
and
"THE PLAINSMAN"

VENETIAN
THUR., FRI., SAT. THIS WEEK
Continuous Show Saturday—1:30 until 11 p. m.
2 MAJOR FEATURES 2

GENE AT HIS BEST! ADVENTURE AT ITS HIGHEST PEAK!
Hot lead - hard riding - stirring songs - mark your ace star's biggest hit!

GENE AUTRY
BOOTS and SADDLES

with SMILEY BURNETTE
JUDITH ALLEN · RA HOULD
Directed by JOSEPH KANE
Screen play by Jack Natteford, Oliver Drake · Original story by Jack Natteford · Associate producer Sol C. Siegel
a REPUBLIC picture

PLUS—Feature No. 2

The tense and timely drama of today's danger zone!

INTERNATIONAL SETTLEMENT

with DOLORES DEL RIO
GEORGE SANDERS
JUNE LANG
DICK BALDWIN
Ruth Terry · John Carradine · Keye Luke · Harold Huber · Leon Ames · Pedro de Cordoba

VENETIAN THEATRE
SUN. - MON. - TUES. April 24, 25, 26
Continuous Show Sunday—1:30 p. m. till 11 p. m.
BIG DOUBLE BILL

"What have your models got that I haven't got?"

SHE MARRIED AN ARTIST
JOHN BOLES
LULI DESTES

Studio life a la mad Manhattan!

PLUS—Feature No. 2

ONE FALSE MOVE MEANT DEATH!

"DAUGHTER OF SHANGHAI"

with ANNA MAY WONG
Philip Ahn · Charles Bickford · Larry Corbett · Cecil Cunningham · J. Carroll Nash · Anthony Quinn · John Patterson · Evelyn Brent
Screened by Robert Lewis · A Paramount Picture

PUBLIC MEETING
HEAR Henry L. Hess
Democratic Candidate for Governor
— and —
Howard Costigan
Executive Secretary W. C. F.
Also other speakers of interest
Forest Grove Union High School Auditorium
Friday, April 29, 1938
8 P. M.
EVERYBODY WELCOME

PLATES
or
FALSE TEETH
Made for You in My Laboratory in 1 to 3 Days
Do Not Fear DETECTION
Material Color Harmonizes with Gums
Hollow Cheeks and Sagging Faces Avoided by a Proper Fit
— SEE —
Dr. Abrams
DENTIST
3rd and Main, Hillsboro
Over Piggly Wiggly