

Lesson Play Booked Here Next Wednesday

"Death Takes the Wheel," in which a jury finds the responsibility for the death of two young men killed during a "spree" of a young man with liquor as the cause, will be presented at the Hillsboro union high school auditorium at 8 p. m. next Wednesday.

Twenty-one characters in the "trial" are all Hillsboro citizens with the exception of Hayward H. Johnson, who will take the part of the defense attorney and direct the drama.

Local cast is as follows: Mr. B. Bump, judge; Henry Kurst, prosecuting attorney; J. W. Columbus, last Thursday night at prison; Rev. R. E. Walter, coroner; George Erickson, detective; Wanda Park, sweetheart; Martha James, star witness; P. A. Anderson, bailiff. Summoned on the jury: John Green, Mrs. Katie Shipley, Harry Thompson, Fred McClain, Carl Baldwin, Mrs. Agnes Chandler, L. B. Hall, Ralph Easter, B. W. Barnes, Mrs. Esther Turner, D. B. Bishop, Albert Hood, Delmar Wyatt.

"Death Takes the Wheel" is an actual reproduction of a "murder" trial taken from court records. Admission will be free. A voluntary pledge offering will be taken. The public is invited.

Annual Card Party Scheduled May 4th
Episcopal parishes throughout Oregon and in Denver, Col., the former home of Bishop Benjamin D. Bagwell, will join in the annual parties for his missions, all to be held on May 4. Hillsboro's Guild members will hold their party at the chamber of commerce rooms, where cards will begin promptly at two. Contract, auction, pinocle and "500" will be played. Tea will be served at four o'clock and a musical program presented. The Oregon Women's Diocesan league sponsored these parties last year at the request of the bishop and they have become an annual event.

Former Residents Visit—
Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Young of Libby, Mont., were Hillsboro visitors Thursday, calling on old friends. They formerly lived here, on East Main street, but left about 20 years ago for Montana. They were accompanied by their son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Madden. Mrs. Young reported that her sons, Carl and Eddie Theriault, are now located at Havre, Mont., and Boise, Idaho. Mr. Young is in the county treasurer's office at Libby.

Teachers Go to Monmouth—
All the teachers of the Hillsboro grade school will go to Monmouth Saturday to attend the education conference to be held there.

To Hollywood

Alda Lehman, 20-year-old Beaverton girl, was named "Girl of the Golden West" in a Portland contest last week and will be given a trip to Hollywood as a reward.

Alda Lehman Wins "Golden West" Title and Trip

Coveted title of "Girl of the Golden West" awarded Wednesday night at the United Artist theatre in Portland, went to Washington county's Alda Lehman, charming brunette daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lehman, Beaverton route 2. Miss Lehman, 20, the honoree from a field of six contestants including winners of the 1937 Portland Red-Head Roundup and the 1937 Red-Head Roundup and the 1937 Red-Head Roundup. Judges for the "Golden West" title were three of Portland's nationally-known authors, Ernest Haycox, Robert Ormond Case and Stewart Holbrook, all of whom have become famous through their stories on western themes.

Award of the contest is a United Air Lines trip to Hollywood and visits to the movie lots. Miss Lehman was entered in the contest at May fete queen of St. Helens Hall last year.

Miss Lehman will leave Swan Island airport on a United Air Lines trip to Hollywood for her Hollywood trip and will also stop over for several days at Stanford university, which she is planning to attend next fall.

Music Festival In Hilhi Gymn Friday Afternoon

(By J. W. Paynter)

The week-end finds the local grade school quite busy. The boys and girls are participating in the Washington County Music Festival which will be held on Friday at the union high school gymnasium, beginning at 1:15 p. m. Community sponsoring the festival is Lucille Fisher, Helene Schulte, Oliva Berger, Harriet Ford, and J. W. Paynter, chairman.

Program this year has two divisions, one for ensemble groups in which the pupils from all schools will participate, and a second division for the individual numbers to be offered by each school.

Special numbers to be offered by the various schools are as follows: Rhythm band, Jacktown; folk dance, Farmington; piano solo, Iowa Hill; band, Hillsboro grades; ballet dance, Redville; special chorus, all schools; ukulele solo, Iowa Hill; vocal solo, Reddale; piano duet, Witch Hazel; tap dance, Shasta; accordion solo, Blooming; America, The Beautiful, all schools, accompanied by band.

Mesdames Kittle May Crockett and Helen Campbell of the Hillsboro school will furnish the accompaniment for the ensemble groups.

It is expected that the gymnasium will be well filled with the pupils who are participating in the festival, thus leaving but little space for visitors. Purpose of the festival is not for a public demonstration but to encourage boys and girls to want to sing.

New Model Gas Ranges Attractive

Smart new styling, streamlined porcelain exteriors, chrome and metal handles, modern design lamps and controls, increased insulation with double thickness rock wool retaining heat for greater fuel economy.

All these things are to be found in new 1938 gas ranges now on display at Hillsboro dealers. Comparison of attractive features is expected to result in tipping of 1937 sales, when 5000 gas ranges were bought in this area and 1,000,000 throughout the country, according to T. H. Bailey, head manager. Many new technical advances have been incorporated in the stoves.

Reception Given—
Mrs. G. V. Payne is a member of the 40-voice choir of the First Congregational church in Portland, which presented a sacred concert at the church Sunday evening. A reception was held for choir members after the concert.

Scout Inspection Set—
Parents and friends are invited to attend inspection of the Sea Scouts of 8888 "Rainbow" to be held at the union high school gymnasium Monday evening, with officers of the regional sea scout committee handling the work.

Anniversary Celebrated—
