Osculation Not To be Eschewed Mayor Declares

Hillsboro's reputation for greetings will not resemble Portland's or Seattle's if Mayor J. H. Garrett can help it.

He indicated as much yesterday. Confronted with articles describing refusal of Mayors Joseph K. Carson of Portland and Arthur B. Langlie of Seattle to kiss visiting beauty queens, Garrett declared "I'm a very outgoing man by nature, and I'll go out of my way to do my duty."

Mayor Garrett's lip curled slightly in disdain as he considered the Langlie-Carson action. "You can rest assured we'll do the proper thing in Hillsboro."

When one citizen offered the suggestion that the mayor announce a policy on the osculation question with regard to the yet-to-be-named goddess of liberty of the coming "Happy Days" celebration, Garrett smiled broadly, declined to comment further.

Not as with Hugh Rogers, lone candidate yet to announce his intention of running for post of mayor in Hillsboro this fall. "Absolutely not," he declared when quizzed on the subject yesterday. "I stand with the mayors of Portland and Seattle. Many dangerous germs are spread through osculation. Of course, if I were younger..."

Burlingame Given Farewell Party

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burlingame gave them a farewell party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Kramien Wednesday evening of last week. A garden party and pot luck supper had been planned, but the supper was held in the house due to weather conditions.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burlingame left today (Thursday) for Hanford, Cal., where Mr. Burlingame has a similar position with a milk condensing plant. They are making the change principally on account of Mr. Burlingame's health. He has been with the Carnation company here for five years.

Delegates Attend State Grange Meet
