

Homecoming Draws Many To Mt. Home

(By Mable Allison)

MOUNTAIN HOME—Mountain Home homecoming was well attended last Sunday, nearly two hundred being present. More than eighty were present for Sunday school with many more coming for the children's day program at 10:45. More arrived for the picnic dinner and continued to come until 2 p. m. The afternoon program was opened with a singing and a memorial tribute given to those who died the past year. Mrs. John Schmelzler began this by reciting the poem, "Crossing the Bar," by Tennyson. Linn Gubser, Yamhill county school superintendent, paid tribute to Frank Vincent Sr., John Schmelzler to Joe Magnuson, LeRoy Jaquith to George Linens, Marnie Emmal Moore to her sister, Bertha Emmal Cauler. Rev. Mr. Hornshoe, former district superintendent of the Evangelical church, gave the afternoon address. This was followed by brief talks by various old timers and a song by all old timers over 45 years of age. Rev. V. T. Speece, former pastor here and now of West Portland, spoke briefly, and then he and Mrs. Speece sang a duet.

Invitation Given
An invitation to attend the homecoming at Mountain Top July 10 was extended to Mountain Home folk by Rev. William Morse, pastor of Mountain Top church.
