

Local D. A. R. Chapter Installs New Officers

CORNELIUS—David Hill chapter of Daughters of American Revolution met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lester Mooberry.

Mrs. William Manley presided and installed the following officers: Mrs. Glenn Payne, regent; Mrs. C. Kelley, vice-regent; Mrs. C. English, chaplain; Mrs. E. Bowman, recording secretary; Mrs. C. Curran, corresponding secretary; Mrs. A. W. Moore, registrar; Mrs. Eleanor Hare, historian; Mrs. Arthur Reynolds, Mrs. Lester Mooberry and Mrs. Charles Wells, directors. Mrs. Glenn Payne then installed Mrs. William Manley as treasurer and completed the business meeting.

Mrs. Manley was honored with an appreciation gift shower as retiring regent. Mrs. Eleanor Hare told about the ivy which was used in decorations about the rooms, saying the slip had been taken from Mrs. Vernon, Washington's home. The table for serving was in patriotic colors. Fifteen members and three guests were present.

Mrs. Payne appointed her committee chairman, followed by Americanization and distribution of D. A. R. manuals, Mrs. W. R. Manley; Angel Island, Mrs. A. K. Reynolds; correct use of flag, Mrs. Lester Mooberry; genealogical records, Mrs. A. W. Moore; historical research, Mrs. J. C. Hare; motion pictures, Mrs. B. F. Pile; press relations, Mrs. Edwin Bowman; campfire sponsorship, Mrs. A. W. Moore. David Hill chapter will be hostess at Champoeg cabin July 17. Anyone interested is welcome and if transportation is desired please contact Mrs. W. R. Manley, hostess chairman.

Miss Yanskey Bride Of Henry Tews

Miss Helen Yanskey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Yanskey of south of Hillsboro, and Henry A. Tews, son of Walter F. Tews of Hillsboro, were united in marriage June 16 at the Yanskey home. The ceremony was performed by Rev. George Reule, pastor of the Trinity Lutheran church, against a background of June lilies and greenery. About one hundred guests were present.

The bride was lovely in a gown of ivory satin and overdress of lace with long train and full veil. She carried a bouquet of calla lilies. Miss Violet Gibson, bridesmaid, wore a frock of pink georgette, and carried a bouquet of matching flowers. Little Margaret and Norma Freudenthal, cousins of the bridegroom, also attended her, carrying her veil and train. Harold Brown of Hillsboro was best man.

at Marquette, spent several days last week with his mother, Mrs. G. Russell Morgan. They left Monday morning for Coquille where they plan to spend the summer.

Nebraskan Bride Of Mr. Bennett

Before an altar banked with lily and delphinium blooms, Miss Lura Ann Kyle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Kyle, of Endicott, Neb., became the bride of Noel Stuart Bennett, of this city, at a ceremony performed at dawn last Sunday morning, in chapel of Pilgrim House. Pastor Henry S. Haller read the marriage rite before a congregation of relatives and friends of the young couple.

Miss Bennett is a recent arrival in Hillsboro, having graduated in the '38 class of the University of Nebraska. Mr. Bennett is associated with his parents in the Sweet Shop in the Hill theatre building on North Third avenue.

After a wedding breakfast in Portland for the wedding party, the newlyweds entrained for a brief honeymoon at the Oregon beaches.

Knights of Columbus Select Officers

John Seus of Hillsboro was chosen grand knight of the Hillsboro Knights of Columbus council at annual elections held last week. He will succeed A. H. Abts in that post.

Other officers include Ben Heesacker, deputy grand knight; William Borgelt, chancellor; Edward Seus, recorder; Carl D'Hont, treasurer; William Hermens, advocate; Morris Waibel, warden; Gottfried Krautscheid, inside guard; Francis Waibel, outside guard, and A. H. Abts, retiring grand knight, as trustee. Installation of officers will take place at the next meeting of the Knights July 14.

Miss Collinge Weds Mr. Haynes Sunday

CORNELIUS—Miss Edna Emeline Collinge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Collinge, and Joseph Zeis Haynes were united in marriage in an impressive ceremony read by Rev. Alexander Hawthorne Sunday afternoon at two o'clock.

Lester Mooberry sang "Sweet Mystery of Life," accompanied by Miss Phoebe Hawthorne. Mr. Mooberry then played Lohengrin's wedding march.

Miss Bessie Collinge of Eugene, sister of the bride, led the party. She was attractive in peach organza frock. A single white carnation was Frank's hair. Her arm bouquet was also of white carnations.

The bride entered on the arm of her father. Her tip-top length dress was of silk chiffon princess style and a high neckline. Her finger-tip tulle veil was caught in a cap shaped halo of pearls.

Miss Phoebe Hawthorne sang "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Lester Mooberry.

Miss Dorothy Cooke, Miss Geneva Shay, Miss Myra Weidewitsch and Miss Ruth Price were charming in net dresses as they held streamers marking the aisle for the bride.

Francis Smarsted, brother-in-law of the bride, was best man. Ed Phillips and Raymond Trites were ushers.

After a short wedding trip the couple will reside in Portland.

Miss Dunham of Cornelius Bride

CORNELIUS—A pretty wedding was solemnized Friday afternoon when Miss Bertha Annice Dunham and John Williams Blakeway took their vows at the Methodist Episcopal church.

Ferns and assorted summer flowers surrounded the altar, where the couple were united by Rev. Alexander Hawthorne, who used the impressive ring service.

Mrs. Frank Mooberry, accompanied by Lester Mooberry, sang "Oh Promise Me." Lester Mooberry played the wedding march and recessional. Claude Blakeway, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and Reynold Greiger was usher.

Little Robert Davis, nephew of the bride, dressed in a blue and white sailor suit, led the procession, carrying the ring on a blue and white satin pillow. Mildred and Beverly Davis, nieces of the bride, wore dainty frocks of pink and blue satin. They scattered rose petals from tiny baskets. Mrs. Claus Blakeway, sister-in-law of the groom, the bridesmaid, wore toe length frock of peach net. Her bouquet was pink sweet peas and pink roses.

Mrs. Wilford Davis, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a blue satin jacket dress. Yellow roses and sweet peas formed her bouquet.

The bride was charming in a white satin gown made with a matching bolero jacket with full sleeves. Her long veil edged with lace formed a pearl beaded cap about her head. Her bride's bouquet was of roses and sweet peas tied with a cupid's bow of blue.

After the ceremony a wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Williams Blakeway. The couple will reside near Forest Grove, where the groom is employed.

Home from East—
John Peterson returned Sunday from a three months' trip down through California over the Truckee Pass and east to his home town, Whitehall, Mich., where he visited his sister. There was eight feet of snow over the Truckee Pass when he crossed it in April, and it is estimated that the yearly cost to keep it open is one and one-half million dollars. In Michigan Peterson found cold and rainy weather, frost and but little fruit. Strawberry berries were selling for 25¢ a box. He returned the northern route and encountered much rain until he reached Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bose and daughter Mildred, and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Stone returned Tuesday from Arcata, Cal., where they visited Mr. and Mrs. F. Fitzwater and family. On their return trip they visited the Oregon Caves and Crater Lake.

Mrs. A. Gorton and son LeRoy of Idaho City, Idaho, are visiting Mrs. Gorton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Betzer, and family and her daughter, Mrs. Omer Ferguson. They plan to be in Hillsboro until the middle of July.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Hall visited Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Howe at Ocean Lake Sunday.

Miss Tongue Weds Mr. Macnamara in Garden Ceremony

Miss Dorothy Grace Tongue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Tongue Jr. of Hillsboro, and Gerald Richard Macnamara of Portland were married in the garden of the Tongue home Saturday afternoon in a simple ceremony read by Dean Horace M. Ramsey of Portland.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father, wore a frock of white marquisette with fingertip veil of white tulle falling from a cap of the same material. She carried a shower bouquet of white boxwood and lilies-of-the-valley.

Her sister, Miss Margaret Tongue, her only attendant, wore light peach organza with a picture hat of a deeper shade. She carried a nosegay of geraniums shading from light salmon to deep pink.

Little Helen Huntington Wall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wall of Portland, was flower girl. She wore a long picture frock of pale blue organza and carried a small nosegay of geraniums.

Vernon Robinson of Portland was best man and Stuart Kerr of Portland and Thomas Tongue III were ushers. Miss Sally Reed of Portland played the wedding march.

At the reception which followed, the bride's aunts, Mrs. F. E. Fey of Portland and Mrs. E. B. Tongue Sr., presided at the table. Assisting were Mesdames Benjamin Lombard of Seattle, Wash., Mrs. Howard Wall, Mrs. Stuart Kerr, Mrs. Alfred J. Herman, Mrs. E. B. Tongue Jr. and Miss Margaret Minger, all of Portland.

After a few weeks' honeymoon in British Columbia the couple will be at home at 1618 Southwest Laurel street in Portland. For traveling the bride wore a tailleur of dark blue crepe with blue and white accessories, and corsage of white boxwood.

Mrs. Macnamara was graduated from Hillsboro high school and from the University of Oregon, where she is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. She has taught in the Hillsboro union high school for several years. Mr. Macnamara came to Portland from New York about six years ago and has been with Commonwealth Inc. since his arrival on the coast.

Appointed Grand Officers—
Fern Prickett of Forest Grove, worthy adviser of the Hillsboro assembly of Rainbow for Girls, was appointed Grand Service at the Grand Assembly held in McMinnville Friday and Saturday. Mary Jean Doane, Faith of the Hillsboro Assembly, was appointed grand representative to Michigan. Reports on the Grand Assembly were made Monday night at the last meeting of the Hillsboro Assembly until fall.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hartman and Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Hartman and family spent Sunday at Salem with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Luther.
