

Several Hurt At Rosedale During Week

ROSEDALE—Earl Johnson received quite a shock, sprained ankle and severe bruises one day last week when his team ran away. He was in the field raking hay when suddenly the tongue of the rake broke, thus throwing him off the rake behind the horses, fracturing them and they shot out of the field raking away like a streak of lightning. They were not stopped until they had run about a mile. Johnson was forced to use crutches, but is now improving rapidly.
