See Good Crops In Eastern Oregon

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence DeFree and daughter, Madeleine, returned Friday from a 10-day trip to Eastern Oregon, where they visited in Elmer and Ontario, where Mr. DeFree lived prior to coming to Hillsboro.

At Haines they visited Mrs. Laura Tibble, sister of Mr. DeFree. During Hillsboro's record hot-spell they were enjoying comparatively cool 82-degree weather at Haines, which is located about 90 miles from Baker. Considerable influx of dust-bowlers is also noticeable in the eastern portion of the state, they reported. Crops in the Ontario locality this year are exceptionally good, following a fair year last year. Much alfalfa and clover seed production is under way there, with considerable quantities being shipped to eastern points in the United States, Mr. DeFree said.

They were accompanied on the trip by Mrs. DeFree's nephew, Raymond McCoy, and family.

L. G. Heinrich and Miss Vadnais Wed

A wedding of interest to people of Hillsboro and vicinity was that of Miss Katherine Vadnais, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Vadnais of Portland, and Laurel George Heinrich of The Dalles, son of W. F. Heinrich of Hillsboro. The ceremony was performed July 16, in the evening, at the Faith Lutheran church in Portland. Rev. Charles Ely officiating.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a princess dress of white satin made with long full train. Her long tulle veil was held in place with halo cap combined with orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley, bouvardia, gardenias and roses. Miss Bernice Vadnais, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her empire dress was of sheer blue and she carried a bouquet of pink roses. Miss Darlene Berry of Boise and Miss Evelyn Jackson of North Plains were bridesmaids. They also wore empire dresses in shades of yellow and pink. They carried bouquets of roses and sweet peas. Mrs. Bud Elmer Sahnaw, cousin of the bridegroom, acted as best man. Others were Bud Cagen of Portland and Edwin Sahnaw of Hillsboro. The bride's cousin, Ned Hookinson, sang, accompanied by Gerda Roeder.

After a reception in the church parlors, the young couple left for a honeymoon trip through Yellowstone park, and upon their return will make their home at The Dalles.
