Homes Threatened By Forest Fire

(By I. R. Strubbe)

GREEN MOUNTAIN.—A forest fire started near Hoffman look-out Thursday night which spread rapidly in the high wind and soon blocked the road from Buxton to Bacoona in spite of the efforts of 50 men who are fighting it in charge of Fire Warden Wainless. The C. A. Feller and George Lawrence bulldozers were treated Friday but the cooler weather of Saturday lessened the danger.

Fred Keim, who recently underwent a major operation, returned to the county hospital this week.

Mrs. Rosetta Morris returned Sunday to her home with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smekal, after visiting a few weeks in Portland and Tigard.

Mrs. Rose Newhouse of Portland and Mrs. Bessie Shultz of Tigard visited their sister Mrs. Olaf Smekal last week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Yazolino and two children of Portland visited at the George Ziegler place, where they were cutting wood.

Mrs. James Kirkland and a friend of Huntington Park, Cal., visited O. J. McMahon one day last week. The ladies, leaving their own car, are here.

BENJAMIN BUTLER

Benjamin Butler, 78, well known pioneer resident of Scottsburg, Douglas County, died at Buxton, July 21. The farm settled by his father Rufus Butler, in 1850, had been his home until a few weeks ago.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Rosa Butler; one daughter, Mrs. Cordelia B. Horell, Buxton; one son, Walter Haines, Elton; two brothers, L. Butler, Elton, and D. U. Butler, Portland; and one sister, Mrs. Mary Scott, Estacada.

Mr. Butler was a member of the Elton Methodist church, where funeral services were held Saturday morning and a number of Elton lodge, I. O. O. F.

He has joined her husband at his muskrat farm at Charleston in Southwestern Oregon.

Mrs. L. L. Murray and children, Roderick, Laura, Lou, Sherman and Virginia, spent last week at the beach. They were guests of the children's aunt, Mrs. Fred Kyser, at Tillamook.

Mr. and Mrs. Granville Everett attended the funeral at Elton Sunday of a cousin, Vivian Hadley, 51, who died at his home at Springbrook Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Keith and two children left Saturday for California, where he will work in the pear and olive harvest.

Irene Simpson and Howard Eberhard attended a Catholic picnic at Champoog Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Goodrich of Pasco, Wash., arrived Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Harriman, for an indefinite visit.

Mrs. Arthur Harriman returned Saturday from Portland where she had been receiving medical treatment. She was a guest of Mrs. S. W. Garriott.

Mrs. Wayne Jones visited a sister, Mrs. Hoscoe Howard (Mable Kenall), and three children of Grants Pass Tuesday. They are house guests of relatives in Newberg.

Carl and Charles Harriman and family picnicked at Jantzen beach Sunday. Charles Harriman played in the orchestra there.

Ples Bryan returned Thursday from a week's visit with relatives in Portland.

King and White Take New Posts

(By Miss Zelma Hooker)

BEAVERTON.—Beaverton Kiwanis club last week held its ninth anniversary meeting and among those present were nine of the original charter members. They were I. R. Metzler, A. M. Jansson, Albert Wilson, Dayton Peck, Dr. J. R. Talbert, Leonard Adams, H. M. Barnes, Elmer Stipe and Elmer Benson.

Dr. J. R. Talbert, the club's first president, who held that office during the years 1929 and 1930, gave a talk on the history of the Beaverton Kiwanis. He stated that the club, organized on July 10, 1929, with a roll of 23 members, now has 32 active members. Wives of the nine original charter members assisted with the service.

White is a native of Oregon, and a graduate of Oregon State college, with 13 years of agricultural service in this state. He was for eight years county agent in Yamhill county, and for the past three years has been state director of agriculture in Salem. In his new position, White will co-ordinate the field activities of the soil conservation service and other agricultural agencies.

King is well known in Washington county, and last week completed a tour of county pasture irrigation projects, in which he and County Agent William F. Cyrus were co-leaders.
