

Mountandale Folk Honored On Anniversary

MOUNTDALE—Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Toates and family attended a party in Portland Saturday evening at the home of their daughter, Mrs. H. E. Fox. The party was in honor of the fortieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Toates and the sixteenth birthday anniversary of Shirley Toates. About seventy were present. The evening was spent in dancing and playing games. Many nice gifts were received by the honored guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Rafferty are the grandparents of a baby girl born August 7 to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Vanderzanden of Gales Creek.

Eight members of the Safeway Employees' association auxiliary of Portland enjoyed a pot luck dinner with Mrs. R. L. Appleton Thursday. Present were Mrs. Mike Cox and friend, Mrs. Jim Stowe, Mrs. Al Nelson, Mrs. Ernie Suthers, Mrs. Harold Slack, Mrs. Wendell Hansen, Mrs. Walter Hess, all of Portland, Mrs. Elsie Weaver and Mrs. Appleton.

Mountandale 4-H sewing club gave a demonstration Tuesday at the home of their leader, Mrs. George Connolly. The girls demonstrated the different stitches that they have used so far in making their different articles. After the demonstration, cards were played in which Mrs. William Wall had high score and Mrs. N. H. Toates second. Games were also played in which numerous prizes were won by those present.

Mr. and Mrs. James Mathieson and Margaret drove to Astoria Friday to bring Jimmy Mathieson home to stay with them. A baby girl was born Friday to their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Rasmus Mathieson.

Sunday evening dinner party guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Appleton were Mr. and Mrs. Mike Cox and Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Graffm of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Corey and family attended the wedding of Miss Bertha Grosbeck of Hillsboro to Arthur Evanson of Portland Sunday at 4 p. m. at the Foursquare Gospel church in Hillsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Van Domelen attended the wedding Thursday morning of Rene Hertel and Dan Herb at the Catholic church at Roy.

Mrs. Andy Christner will entertain the Past Chiefs club September 1.

C. S. Reynolds returned Sunday from several weeks' visit to Day Creek, where he visited his brother, Frank Reynolds. His brother returned home with him for a visit.

Picnic August 21
Washington Grange was well attended Friday evening. Plans were made for the grange to have a booth at the county fair. They will have their annual picnic August 21 in the Rafferty woods.

The Mountandale 4-H Agricultural club went on a judging tour Thursday. They went to the Arthur Ireland place, where they judged Irish cattle. Then they went to the Francis Chalmers place to judge Jersey cattle. Mrs. Joe Baker furnished transportation for the boys. Next club meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. L. Van Domelen.

Free Travel Information
If you're planning on going anywhere or shipping anything, your Southern Pacific agent will gladly give you complete information on costs, accommodations and train schedules. No obligation, just call on:

H. D. OLSEN
Hillsboro—Telephone 621

Southern Pacific

THE SMILE OF Protection
It can come only from sound, adequate insurance! Every element of fear, and worry is taken from your shoulders—and the cost is small.

LET US WRITE YOUR INSURANCE
We represent large, reliable companies and offer you every form of protection.

CHAS. L. WALKER
Every Form of Protection
Phone 1732
116 S. 3rd—Hillsboro

Beaverton Band To Play at Fair

(By Miss Zelma Hooker)
BEAVERTON—Beaverton grade school band is to play at the Washington county fair at Hillsboro.

C. J. Beach is confined to his home by illness.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Earl E. Dean, August 1, a daughter, Raymond, 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Croft, had his appendix removed August 7 at Good Samaritan hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Murdo Hickox are leaving Saturday for a two weeks' visit to Oregon beaches.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Summers spent the week-end at Slalomakaway, visiting Mr. and Mrs. Howard Glenn, their nephew and niece.

Cherokee Club held the fourth of a series of garden parties at Mrs. Elmer Stipes home Friday. Mrs. R. R. Summers was co-hostess. A covered-dish dinner was followed by bridge.

Newlyweds to Live Here
Miss Maye Benson of Portland and George Cuddingham were married in Portland Saturday night. The wedding was followed by a reception at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cuddingham. The couple plan to live in Beaverton.

The new apartment building built by Guy Carr is being opened this week.

A grass fire threatened the rear of the Safeway store for a short time Friday. A pile of paper boxes was being burned, and the blaze swept into the grass.

Mrs. Hooker Honored
Mrs. W. H. Hooker was honored at a birthday dinner Saturday at her home on Canyon road. Dinner was served in the arbor and the table was beautifully decorated. Later in the evening Mrs. Hooker opened a large number of gifts and cut a specially decorated cake. Guests were Miss Irma Salzedor of Portland, Mrs. A. B. Hooker of Spokane, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Williams and daughter, Lilla of Hamilton, Kan. Mrs. A. B. Hooker was a resident of Beaverton several years ago.

Build New Home
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Biddle are new residents in the Johnson tract. They have just completed a small home and have a nice location.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Meyer have moved from the Joe Keller house to the Skidmore property on Lombard street, and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Jakobson have moved into the Keller house.

Laurelle Brown spent a week at Tillamook with her sister, Mrs. Warren A. McMinnie, and friends. Mrs. Ted Hornecker and son Gregory of Coquille left Thursday after a two weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. Essex Marsh, and other relatives.

City Marshal and Mrs. Fred Anderson entertained Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Williams of Denver last week. Billy Woods and Clarence Allen left Sunday morning for Eastern Oregon to spend several weeks visiting places of interest.

Daphne club held a six-o'clock dinner at the home of Mrs. Gust Edlund Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Barry had at their recent guests, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cochran and son Joe of Dallas. A trip was made around the Mt. Hood Loop.

Crandall Peck and Carl Austin returned last week from Boy Scout Camp Meriwether.

Mrs. M. W. Manning and son Maurice returned last Thursday night from a motor trip to California. They went the coast route and came back the inland, stopping at Sacramento, San Francisco and San Diego to visit relatives and friends. They were gone two weeks.

Methodist Epworth League held a business meeting and a pot luck dinner Friday night. About twelve were present.

Robert Shaw, small grandson of Mrs. George Thyng, is much improved from his recent serious illness. It had been necessary to place him under a specialist's care.

Boy Scout troop of Beaverton went on a three-day hike to Cherry Grove.

Mrs. L. D. Shellenberger and her daughter, Mrs. Oscar Effenberger, and small grandson were badly shaken up last week when their car was struck by a machine driven by Mrs. Selma Houck of Portland.

The accident occurred at Second and Watson streets and both cars were badly damaged. Mrs. Effenberger and sons, who reside in Tillamook, have been visiting at the Shellenberger home.

To Have New Truck
Beaverton is to have a new fire truck. Sum of $300 has been appropriated for the purpose.

be held at the Joe Baker home where the boys will judge pigs.

Week-end guests at the Joe Baker home were his mother, Mrs. Henry Baker, and Henry, Antonio, Mary and Miss Matilda Poetz, all of Mt. Angel.

Four-H club gardens of the ten Beaverton members were judged on Tuesday, August 2. Martin Baker was awarded first place on the irrigated gardens while Larry and Natalie Bergin tied for first place on the unirrigated gardens.

Mrs. Robert Hockens of Corvallis spent several weeks in Beaverton as the guest of her sister, Miss Merle Davies.

Four-H club gardens of the ten Beaverton members were judged on Tuesday, August 2. Martin Baker was awarded first place on the irrigated gardens while Larry and Natalie Bergin tied for first place on the unirrigated gardens.

Mrs. Robert Hockens of Corvallis spent several weeks in Beaverton as the guest of her sister, Miss Merle Davies.

Four-H club gardens of the ten Beaverton members were judged on Tuesday, August 2. Martin Baker was awarded first place on the irrigated gardens while Larry and Natalie Bergin tied for first place on the unirrigated gardens.

Mrs. Robert Hockens of Corvallis spent several weeks in Beaverton as the guest of her sister, Miss Merle Davies.

Four-H club gardens of the ten Beaverton members were judged on Tuesday, August 2. Martin Baker was awarded first place on the irrigated gardens while Larry and Natalie Bergin tied for first place on the unirrigated gardens.

Mrs. Robert Hockens of Corvallis spent several weeks in Beaverton as the guest of her sister, Miss Merle Davies.

Four-H club gardens of the ten Beaverton members were judged on Tuesday, August 2. Martin Baker was awarded first place on the irrigated gardens while Larry and Natalie Bergin tied for first place on the unirrigated gardens.

Mrs. Robert Hockens of Corvallis spent several weeks in Beaverton as the guest of her sister, Miss Merle Davies.

Four-H club gardens of the ten Beaverton members were judged on Tuesday, August 2. Martin Baker was awarded first place on the irrigated gardens while Larry and Natalie Bergin tied for first place on the unirrigated gardens.

Mrs. Robert Hockens of Corvallis spent several weeks in Beaverton as the guest of her sister, Miss Merle Davies.

Four-H club gardens of the ten Beaverton members were judged on Tuesday, August 2. Martin Baker was awarded first place on the irrigated gardens while Larry and Natalie Bergin tied for first place on the unirrigated gardens.

Mrs. Robert Hockens of Corvallis spent several weeks in Beaverton as the guest of her sister, Miss Merle Davies.

Banks R. N. A. Silver Tea Set For Friday; Board Installed

(By Mrs. Max Dreeszen)
BANKS—A silver tea set and card party will be held Friday afternoon at the R. N. A. hall. Everyone is invited to attend.

Mrs. E. E. Hopkins, who is spending the summer at Gearhart, where her husband is station agent, spent two days last week at the Hopkins home in Banks, where her daughter, Mrs. Verle Prickett, and family are now living.

Board Installed
A large crowd attended the all-day service of the church Sunday. Following Sunday school a picnic dinner was served on the creek bank near Manning. In the afternoon, three people, Sam Fenimore of north of Banks, Miss Vivian Hudson of Hayward and Mrs. Alice Parmenter of Banks were baptized by immersion. In the evening, at the church, the newly elected official board was installed at an impressive service. Those installed were Bernard Sellers, Mrs. Bernard Sellers, R. A. Cook, Mrs. R. A. Cook, Lloyd Miller, Mrs. Chris Riebel, Mrs. H. L. Jensen, Mrs. A. Heard, Mrs. A. B. McFarlane, Mrs. George Finck, Charles Shipley, Mrs. Fred Wolford. Following the installation service, Sam Fenimore, who is now living in Banks, was baptized by the town council, which is to be added to the $200 the fire department has already raised.

At the service last Sunday in the Methodist church the representatives sent to the institute at Twin Rocks gave their reports.

A large number of Norman Manning's fellow workers at the Oregon American Lumber company attended his funeral in Beaverton Saturday. They came from both Portland and Vernonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Noyes spent several days last week at The Dalles.

A thrilling boat trip was had by Fay Evans and Art Rows last week. They came down the Columbia river from the Bridge of the Gods, through the locks to Portland, making the trip in nine hours.

New seat covers are being placed in the Methodist church.

Miss Betty Davis recently underwent an operation for appendicitis at Good Samaritan hospital. She is convalescing nicely.

A very gratifying incident occurred this week. This column recently carried a news item mentioning Mrs. Fred Corn. The item was read by Mrs. Louise McGeorge of near Reedville, who recognized the name as being that of a very dear girlhood chum with whom she had lost contact. Mrs. McGeorge made inquiries and learned that quite unknowingly the two friends had resided for some time just a couple of miles apart. A happy reunion followed.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kelly and daughter LaVern and son Jack of Astoria, who were visiting Mrs. Kelly's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Dobbins, left last week, after a two weeks' stay. They were to go to Reedville, where they planned to visit with Mrs. Christina Kelly, Mr. Kelly's mother.

Mrs. Gertrude Rickabaugh and her small niece Rosemary of Emporia, Kan., are visitors at the H. H. Hooker home. A trip up the Columbia River highway was taken Sunday.

The Christian church will present tonight (Thursday) an interesting program. Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Caldwell, missionaries to Jamaica, will show pictures of Jamaica.

Beaverton Kiwanis club members and their families held their annual picnic at Avalon park Sunday.

Rev. and Mrs. Harper Burns and family are again residing in the Congregational parsonage after having spent several months in the country.

Miss Thelma Tefft, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Tefft, was complimented with a bridal shower held in the gardens of the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Shellenberger on Watson street.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lacy have returned home after spending several weeks in California visiting relatives and sight seeing.

Mrs. Carl Beach of Omaha, Neb., was a visitor in Beaverton recently. Mrs. Beach was a former resident of Beaverton.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. West of Raleigh received word of the birth of a daughter, Margaret Elaine, to their daughter, Mrs. John Baden (Harriet) of Houston, Texas. Mr. Baden's sister, Miss Margaret West is visiting here.

Gardens Inspected
Four-H club gardens of the ten Beaverton members were judged on Tuesday, August 2. Martin Baker was awarded first place on the irrigated gardens while Larry and Natalie Bergin tied for first place on the unirrigated gardens.

Mrs. Robert Hockens of Corvallis spent several weeks in Beaverton as the guest of her sister, Miss Merle Davies.

Four-H club gardens of the ten Beaverton members were judged on Tuesday, August 2. Martin Baker was awarded first place on the irrigated gardens while Larry and Natalie Bergin tied for first place on the unirrigated gardens.

Mrs. Robert Hockens of Corvallis spent several weeks in Beaverton as the guest of her sister, Miss Merle Davies.

Four-H club gardens of the ten Beaverton members were judged on Tuesday, August 2. Martin Baker was awarded first place on the irrigated gardens while Larry and Natalie Bergin tied for first place on the unirrigated gardens.

Mrs. Robert Hockens of Corvallis spent several weeks in Beaverton as the guest of her sister, Miss Merle Davies.

Four-H club gardens of the ten Beaverton members were judged on Tuesday, August 2. Martin Baker was awarded first place on the irrigated gardens while Larry and Natalie Bergin tied for first place on the unirrigated gardens.

Mrs. Robert Hockens of Corvallis spent several weeks in Beaverton as the guest of her sister, Miss Merle Davies.

Four-H club gardens of the ten Beaverton members were judged on Tuesday, August 2. Martin Baker was awarded first place on the irrigated gardens while Larry and Natalie Bergin tied for first place on the unirrigated gardens.

Mrs. Robert Hockens of Corvallis spent several weeks in Beaverton as the guest of her sister, Miss Merle Davies.

Four-H club gardens of the ten Beaverton members were judged on Tuesday, August 2. Martin Baker was awarded first place on the irrigated gardens while Larry and Natalie Bergin tied for first place on the unirrigated gardens.

Mrs. Robert Hockens of Corvallis spent several weeks in Beaverton as the guest of her sister, Miss Merle Davies.

Four-H club gardens of the ten Beaverton members were judged on Tuesday, August 2. Martin Baker was awarded first place on the irrigated gardens while Larry and Natalie Bergin tied for first place on the unirrigated gardens.

Mrs. Robert Hockens of Corvallis spent several weeks in Beaverton as the guest of her sister, Miss Merle Davies.

Four-H club gardens of the ten Beaverton members were judged on Tuesday, August 2. Martin Baker was awarded first place on the irrigated gardens while Larry and Natalie Bergin tied for first place on the unirrigated gardens.

Mrs. Robert Hockens of Corvallis spent several weeks in Beaverton as the guest of her sister, Miss Merle Davies.

Four-H club gardens of the ten Beaverton members were judged on Tuesday, August 2. Martin Baker was awarded first place on the irrigated gardens while Larry and Natalie Bergin tied for first place on the unirrigated gardens.

Mrs. Robert Hockens of Corvallis spent several weeks in Beaverton as the guest of her sister, Miss Merle Davies.

Four-H club gardens of the ten Beaverton members were judged on Tuesday, August 2. Martin Baker was awarded first place on the irrigated gardens while Larry and Natalie Bergin tied for first place on the unirrigated gardens.

Mrs. Robert Hockens of Corvallis spent several weeks in Beaverton as the guest of her sister, Miss Merle Davies.

Four-H club gardens of the ten Beaverton members were judged on Tuesday, August 2. Martin Baker was awarded first place on the irrigated gardens while Larry and Natalie Bergin tied for first place on the unirrigated gardens.

North Plains Bible School Gives Awards

NORTH PLAINS—The vacation school demonstration last Friday was well attended. Of the 54 pupils enrolled 30 received perfect attendance certificates. By popular vote of the school the best citizens included: Eloise Clarno, Willard Brown, Norman Steffen, Cordelia Wilken, Edmond Troutman and Velda Steffen, who were given honor pins. Robert Powers received the honor for coming the longest distance. The following teachers were presented with bouquets by Rev. Ralph Putnam on behalf of the community: Mrs. C. D. Chamberlain, Mrs. Chester Johnson, Mary Penmore and Mildred Bunker. Guest speakers during the last week of the school were Mr. Putnam, P. A. Anderson, business man of Hillsboro, and Mr. Roberts, who has been a missionary in Africa.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cypher, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Davis and Dickie of Salem and Mrs. Thomas Connell of Hillsboro attended the family reunion of the Bagby clan at Willard Springs Sunday. There were about 50 descendants of the late William and Harriet Bagby present.

Genie Cypher left Friday afternoon for a two weeks' stay at Willows lake in Eastern Oregon. She was accompanied by the Misses Anne and Phyllis Knappa of Portland.

Silver Tea Tuesday
A silver tea will be held at the home of Mrs. Emil Miller Tuesday afternoon. Five hundred will be played and the kitchen treasure chest will be awarded. Everyone is welcome.

Picnic Friday
Hillsboro being made for a combination Sunday school and vacation school picnic Friday afternoon.

R. N. Burgess, all of Portland, and Miss Francis Rugg of Heppner. Miss Rugg remained a few days to assist in the Powne store.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Thompson and little daughter Doris of Portland spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Armentrout.

Mrs. E. M. Tilton returned to her home in Cottage Grove Thursday after spending two weeks with Mrs. A. B. McFarlane.

Miss Lillian Sisco, who is employed in the Banks market, spent the week-end at her parents' home near Gaston.

Out-of-town people, who came to attend the funeral of Charles Snook, Keeneth Parmenter, Billy Bird, Leon Buzzard, Gene Davis, Gene White, Joe Jensen, and Billy Finck.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Sandy and son Jack of Seaside were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Sandy and family Sunday.

Don and Bill Moore, who are spending the summer with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Moore, in Banks are spending this week at their home in Portland.

Gene Shipley has a crew of pickers harvesting his crop of pole beans. They began picking Friday.

School Opening Set
Banks grade school and high school will both start September 6. Monday evening of last week a group of patrons of the Banks grade school district met with the school board to discuss the possibility of hot lunches for the children and a school bus to pick up the children in the distant parts of the district. Superintendent O. B. Kraus was present and explained ways and means. An action was taken but a committee was appointed to investigate plans.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Wilcox and two children of Banks and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Kipper and son Louis of Philomath picked up at Helmick park Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry McDonald and son Howard attended a pot luck supper given by the Thatcher Women's club Thursday at the L. Jucker home at Thatcher.

Couple Wed Friday
Edward Graker of Banks and Miss Ethel M. Hussey of Ocean Lake were married Friday in Vancouver.

Mrs. John Kessler is ill with sinus trouble at her home in Banks. Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Wilcox and children vacationed at Long Beach, Wash., last week.

Miss Theresa Paetsch of Oregon Normal spent the week-end at her home in Banks.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Sandy August 8 a boy, Lloyd Ellis, in the general hospital in Forest Grove, Ore. Weight 92.

Mrs. Ellen West passed her 92nd birthday anniversary August 8, at her home in Banks. Friends called during the afternoon.

A. H. Wolford is spending this week at the home of his brother, Emmett Wolford, on Green mountain.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Thompson and little daughter Doris of Portland spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Armentrout.

Mrs. E. M. Tilton returned to her home in Cottage Grove Thursday after spending two weeks with Mrs. A. B. McFarlane.

Miss Lillian Sisco, who is employed in the Banks market, spent the week-end at her parents' home near Gaston.

Out-of-town people, who came to attend the funeral of Charles Snook, Keeneth Parmenter, Billy Bird, Leon Buzzard, Gene Davis, Gene White, Joe Jensen, and Billy Finck.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Sandy and son Jack of Seaside were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Sandy and family Sunday.

Don and Bill Moore, who are spending the summer with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Moore, in Banks are spending this week at their home in Portland.

Gene Shipley has a crew of pickers harvesting his crop of pole beans. They began picking Friday.

School Opening Set
Banks grade school and high school will both start September 6. Monday evening of last week a group of patrons of the Banks grade school district met with the school board to discuss the possibility of hot lunches for the children and a school bus to pick up the children in the distant parts of the district. Superintendent O. B. Kraus was present and explained ways and means. An action was taken but a committee was appointed to investigate plans.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Wilcox and two children of Banks and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Kipper and son Louis of Philomath picked up at Helmick park Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry McDonald and son Howard attended a pot luck supper given by the Thatcher Women's club Thursday at the L. Jucker home at Thatcher.

Couple Wed Friday
Edward Graker of Banks and Miss Ethel M. Hussey of Ocean Lake were married Friday in Vancouver.

Mrs. John Kessler is ill with sinus trouble at her home in Banks. Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Wilcox and children vacationed at Long Beach, Wash., last week.

Miss Theresa Paetsch of Oregon Normal spent the week-end at her home in Banks.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Sandy August 8 a boy, Lloyd Ellis, in the general hospital in Forest Grove, Ore. Weight 92.

Mrs. Ellen West passed her 92nd birthday anniversary August 8, at her home in Banks. Friends called during the afternoon.

A. H. Wolford is spending this week at the home of his brother, Emmett Wolford, on Green mountain.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Thompson and little daughter Doris of Portland spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Armentrout.

Mrs. E. M. Tilton returned to her home in Cottage Grove Thursday after spending two weeks with Mrs. A. B. McFarlane.

Miss Lillian Sisco, who is employed in the Banks market, spent the week-end at her parents' home near Gaston.

North Plains Bible School Gives Awards

NORTH PLAINS—The vacation school demonstration last Friday was well attended. Of the 54 pupils enrolled 30 received perfect attendance certificates. By popular vote of the school the best citizens included: Eloise Clarno, Willard Brown, Norman Steffen, Cordelia Wilken, Edmond Troutman and Velda Steffen, who were given honor pins. Robert Powers received the honor for coming the longest distance. The following teachers were presented with bouquets by Rev. Ralph Putnam on behalf of the community: Mrs. C. D. Chamberlain, Mrs. Chester Johnson, Mary Penmore and Mildred Bunker. Guest speakers during the last week of the school were Mr. Putnam, P. A. Anderson, business man of Hillsboro, and Mr. Roberts, who has been a missionary in Africa.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cypher, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Davis and Dickie of Salem and Mrs. Thomas Connell of Hillsboro attended the family reunion of the Bagby clan at Willard Springs Sunday. There were about 50 descendants of the late William and Harriet Bagby present.

Genie Cypher left Friday afternoon for a two weeks' stay at Willows lake in Eastern Oregon. She was accompanied by the Misses Anne and Phyllis Knappa of Portland.

Silver Tea Tuesday
A silver tea will be held at the home of Mrs. Emil Miller Tuesday afternoon. Five hundred will be played and the kitchen treasure chest will be awarded. Everyone is welcome.

Picnic Friday
Hillsboro being made for a combination Sunday school and vacation school picnic Friday afternoon.

R. N. Burgess, all of Portland, and Miss Francis Rugg of Heppner. Miss Rugg remained a few days to assist in the Powne store.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Thompson and little daughter Doris of Portland spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Armentrout.

Mrs. E. M. Tilton returned to her home in Cottage Grove Thursday after spending two weeks with Mrs. A. B. McFarlane.

Miss Lillian Sisco, who is employed in the Banks market, spent the week-end at her parents' home near Gaston.

Out-of-town people, who came to attend the funeral of Charles Snook, Keeneth Parmenter, Billy Bird, Leon Buzzard, Gene Davis, Gene White, Joe Jensen, and Billy Finck.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Sandy and son Jack of Seaside were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Sandy and family Sunday.

Don and Bill Moore, who are spending the summer with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Moore, in Banks are spending this week at their home in Portland.

Gene Shipley has a crew of pickers harvesting his crop of pole beans. They began picking Friday.

School Opening Set
Banks grade school and high school will both start September 6. Monday evening of last week a group of patrons of the Banks grade school district met with the school board to discuss the possibility of hot lunches for the children and a school bus to pick up the children in the distant parts of the district. Superintendent O. B. Kraus was present and explained ways and means. An action was taken but a committee was appointed to investigate plans.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Wilcox and two children of Banks and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Kipper and son Louis of Philomath picked up at Helmick park Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry McDonald and son Howard attended a pot luck supper given by the Thatcher Women's club Thursday at the L. Jucker home at Thatcher.