

H. U. H. S. Junior Class Play on Friday Night

The junior class of the Hillsboro high school will present its class play, "Apron-String Revolt," next Friday evening, December 9, at 8 o'clock, in the high school auditorium.

The play was written by Dorothy Rood Stewart and is produced through the courtesy of Row Peterson and company. The play is being directed by Miss Tennessee Weathered, director of many other successful high school plays.

The cast is as follows: "Elizabeth Holt," a youthful mother, Beverly Hard; "David," her son, David Wiley; "Annabelle," Elizabeth's girlhood love, Rosanne Weil; "Mary Lou," a high school girl, Jean Ann Pasley; "Henry Penstermacher," the football coach, Ned Ross; "Mrs. Alden," a neighbor woman, Leola May Young; "Mrs. Lanning," the hired woman, Ruby Gillenwater; "Jack Alden," David's teammate, Philip Strecher; "Miss Martin," a newspaper woman, Anna Mary Hartman; "Mr. Wade," a newspaper man, Robert Hurd; "Plancy," a police officer, Douglas Seymour; "Grocery boy," Jack Williams; "Messenger boy," Ray Williams; understudies, Ella Rose Mason and Velda Kraus.

The authors' mother will be introduced between the acts. The band, directed by Mr. Bushy, will play preceding the play and a short vaudeville will be given also. Special practices have been held so that every voice will be heard throughout the auditorium. There will not be any long waits between acts.

Faculty members helping Miss Weathered in the production of the play are Miss Houge, Miss Nix, Miss Yoder, and Mr. Leger. The set is being made under the supervision of Lawrence Wisner, former Hills student now teaching at Pacific university.

Production staff includes Leonard Roseland, stage manager; James Allison, electrician; Kate Ivaski, wardrobe; Cary Estep and Katherine Wiley, properties.

Business staff is as follows: Colene MacDowell, business manager; Virginia Havens, advertising; Helen Cyrus, tickets.

Lormors Return From California

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Lormor returned Saturday from a month's visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Lormor, and other relatives at Pomona, Cal. His parents celebrated their 57th wedding anniversary on November 16, with all their sons and daughters present, including the son from Oregon, a daughter from Iowa, and a son and daughter at Pomona. This was the first time in 28 years that a complete family reunion had been held.

The Lormors also visited friends at Long Beach, Los Angeles, and Ontario. They saw the devastating fire of Southern California, and said the smoke was very thick in that section. Arrowhead hotel, which burned at a great loss, was not far from Pomona. Returning home, they passed through Balboa, where the fire had jumped the highway and burned many residences. They also saw the smoke smudge put out to save oranges in the groves.
