

Department Officers Here; Auxiliary Dinner Dec. 15

Hillsboro unit, American Legion Auxiliary, had the honor of entertaining two department officers and two department chairmen at the meeting Tuesday night. Mrs. Hazel Snyder of Astoria, state president, Mrs. May Whitcomb, state secretary, Mrs. Edith Scott, U. S. Veterans' hospital chairman, and Mrs. Georgia Weber, child welfare chairman and former U. S. hospital chairman, all of Portland, were present. Mrs. Snyder told of the National President and Secretary conference held in Indianapolis, Ind., recently and attended by herself and Mrs. Whitcomb. Headquarters, she said, occupied completely a four-story building which housed every department of the Legion and Auxiliary organizations as well as the national publications of the two groups. The high spot of the conference, she said, was the telegraphic roll call received November 2, which was very gratifying to the Oregon delegates. She reported that Oregon had over 3000 members on December 1. Fides was stressed in her talk, and she said Hillsboro should be particularly interested inasmuch as the national fides chairman, Mrs. Pat Allen, was an aunt of a Hillsboro member, Mrs. Paul Patterson.

The other department visitors spoke briefly on their work and complimented the local unit on exceeding its quota in membership. Mrs. Rose Case of Forest Grove, president of the U. S. W. V. Auxiliary, and Mrs. Glenn V. Payne, president of David Hill chapter, D. A. R., were also honored guests at the meeting.

The program, which was arranged by Mrs. Emma Dierdorff and Mrs. Ernest Zuercher of the hospital committee, included singing of Christmas carols led by Mrs. L. C. Kramen, with Mrs. Leon Davis as accompanist. A beautifully decorated miniature Christmas tree, and a Santa Claus, Mrs. Zuercher, who assisted the hostesses by serving small boxes of cookies and confections along with other refreshments. She also read a humorous poem describing the party and guests.

Hostesses were Mesdames Carl Christener, Hulda Connell, Eda Boge, R. H. Busch, R. C. Busch, and W. F. Cyrus.

Mrs. Fred Engdinger, president, announced the County Jamboree at Banks Friday and urged the attendance of members. Mrs. Fred Caldwell and Mrs. Davis were named as delegates to the county meeting.

Business transacted included the voting of $5 to the Christmas Seal sale and $5 for the Christmas Cheer fund for men in the Veterans' hospital. The hospital committee will again decorate a Christmas tree in the tuberculosis ward in the Veterans' hospital, an annual event.

Mrs. E. A. Griffith, child welfare chairman, told of plans for packing the Christmas turkey dinner and asked that all members planning to donate cookies deliver them to her home by December 19. Also the gifts to be put in the boxes.

Final plans were made for the benefit turkey dinner to be served at the Legion hall Thursday, December 15, and committees were appointed. Mrs. Caldwell will have charge of the ticket sale, and those planning to attend should purchase tickets from some of the members prior to the dinner. The first seating will be at 5:30 p. m.; the second at 6:30 and will continue until all have been served.

There will also be a sale of Christmas gifts at the hall the same night.

Putnam Jr. and children, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Biersdorf and son, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Biersdorf, Mrs. Gordon Sahnaw and son and Miss Irene Dingfelder, Mrs. Elmer Johnson, Mrs. Dan Burkhalter, and Miss Margaret Johnson.

Vacation Plans Of Local Grade Schools Given

(By J. W. Payne)

It may be of considerable advantage to parents to know how the vacation of the Christmas vacation can be laid accordingly. This year the children get a break as well as do the adults, especially those who are engaged in some regular work. New Year's coming on Sunday necessitates its observation on the following Monday. The Oregon school law arbitrarily says that there shall be no school on legal holidays. So the Christmas vacation which begins with December 24 will carry over to include January 2.

The gaiety of the down-town streets with their Christmas decorations soon will be matched with the usual decorations that come annually to the various classrooms. Spirits run high in and about school from now until Christmas. This important day like others gives the teachers opportunities to skillfully bring to the attention of their pupils the real significance of Christmas. So much of the fine ethical training that children can have, has its presentation made possible through the important days that have been set aside for special recognition.

Visiting Day Success—Already the wheels of progress are turning as a result of our teachers' visiting day on Wednesday of last week. This year our teachers scattered about among several institutions taking in such schools as Oregon City, Salem, Forest Grove, Beaverton, Portland and Vancouver.

Now, while the highlights of their visits are fresh in memory, the teachers are getting together to discuss, consider and criticize their observations. Practically every branch of the elementary school curriculum was seen in action by some teacher. Each branch has come in for its analysis, evaluation, and the practicality of its good points being geared into our own work. The teachers' reports of their visits have been assembled together and to any one who is closely interested in knowing what some schools are doing, a perusal of the reports is very enlightening.

Entertained on Birthday—Mrs. Howard Lehman entertained on Sunday at the home at First and Main in honor of her husband's birthday. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Englen and Faye were dinner guests, and among those joining them later for an evening party of games, gifts and refreshments were the Dale and Harry Englen families, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Buss, Misses Christine Davis, Elizabeth Ott, Lucille Martin, Margery Hockersmith Messrs. Jerry Englen, David Merle, Wilbur Lorenz, Douglas Covey and Milford Brackman.

Couple Surprised On Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hurd were delightfully surprised on their wedding anniversary, November 26, when a group of friends arrived and presented them with an electric roaster containing a complete hot dinner. Twelve were present at the dinner, and singing of old songs was enjoyed in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Hurd were married in St. Paul, Minn., 17 years ago, and the date of the party was also the first anniversary of the arrival in Hillsboro of Mrs. Hurd and the children. Mr. Hurd having preceded them in coming west.

Roy Hay of Cody, Wyo., is here visiting his mother, Mrs. Anna Hay, and aunt, Mrs. Laura Campbell Henry. He is en route to California.

Dick Busch Heads Phoenix Lodge Knights of Pythias

Richard H. Busch was elected chancellor commander of Phoenix lodge, Knights of Pythias, at the meeting Monday night. Officers elected to office were Robert C. Enschede, vice-chancellor, commander, H. R. Sigler, prelate, L. E. Cornell, M. of W. A. W. Haven, K. of R. and S. G. R. Chapman, M. of F. L. A. Long, M. of E. William F. Ziegler, M. at A. A. R. Bradley, I. G. H. S. Rogers, G. G. and J. J. Wisner, trustee for three years.

There will be no meetings of the lodge on December 26 nor January 2 on account of the holidays. Installation of officers will probably be held early in January jointly with the Pythian Sisters.
