

New Officers Elected by Church Groups

(By Mrs. Frank Perold)

ROCK CREEK—The combined Sunday schools of the Reformed church have about 100 members including the adult class. The Sunday school is divided into five classes with the following teachers in charge: John Boeckli, Rev. B. M. Presenberg, Magdalena Boeckli, Mrs. Elmer Guerber and Abe Yung. Mrs. Edward Meyer played a piano accompaniment solo as a special musical number at the Sunday school session Sunday. An election of Sunday school officers was held earlier this month and the following were elected: Abe Yung, superintendent; John Boeckli, vice-superintendent; Donald Staehle, secretary; Helen Yung, treasurer; and Norma Berger, organist. A business meeting of the members of the Reformed church was held earlier this month. John Boeckli was re-elected elder and Elmer Guerber was elected deacon. Dave Tschabold the outgoing deacon, had served as church official for 28 years and members of the church wish to express their appreciation for his long and faithful service to the church.

No plans have been formulated for rebuilding the local church here. Many members think that the church at Helvetia is adequate for the needs of most of the congregation. Plans have been made to have a well dug or drilled at the Reformed church here.

The local and Helvetia Ladies Aid met at the home of Mrs. William Wilken at North Plains Wednesday. Next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Robert Kauer.

Mr. and Mrs. Kie Honored
Several friends and neighbors surprised Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Kie January 8 in honor of their twenty-ninth wedding anniversary. Various games were played. Present besides the honor guests were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Benson, Mr. and Mrs. John Berger, Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Getty, Mrs. H. Congdon, Stanley Congdon, Mike Vricak, Clarence Baderischer, Delbert Olinger, Carlene Olinger and Christine and Hazel Kie.

Mrs. E. Jaggi and family entertained with a card party at their home Friday evening. Lorraine Schneider and Bobby Kauer were guests. The party was held low. Twenty-one were present. Tony Gutschmidt left Friday for Pomeroy. Wash. after more than two months' vacation with home folks and other relatives and friends in this section and in other localities in this part of the state. He plans to seek employment in Eastern Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Olinger and family spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Ben Billeter in Portland. Mrs. Piper and Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Shelton of Milwaukie were guests of Mrs. E. Jaggi and family Sunday.

Mrs. Mills Honored

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mills and son Kenneth attended a surprise party January 7 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Holmes in Portland honoring Mrs. Mills' birthday anniversary. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Chapman and Mr. and Mrs. Humphreys and daughters Thelma and Violet.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Donaldson of Rupert, Idaho, were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Brooks.

Names Stricken From Jury List

The 1939 Washington county jury list "was under the knife" this week and recovered minus a large bloc of names. The paring was done by Mrs. Z. R. Hiatt, deputy clerk.

Various "culling" procedures are responsible for reduction of the list to a workable size. Some names are eliminated by a comparison with the last year's list, those having served in one year not being allowed to serve in the next. Notified of their inclusion, all women on the list have the privilege of refusing service.

The final list, from which circuit court veniremen will be drawn, probably will not be completed for another two weeks, Mrs. Hiatt said.

Shorthand Speed Queens

Unique in Washington county is the record of these four Martin sisters of Sherwood. All are winners of state-wide honors in shorthand writing competition. They are (from left): Dorothy, Tigrad graduate in 1935; Rose (now Mrs. K. A. Svenson) who was graduated from Tigrad high school in 1933; Melvina, Sherwood high school senior, who tied for first place in a state-wide contest two weeks ago; and Alida, Sherwood graduate in 1938.—(Cut courtesy Oregonian)

Record Attendance At 4-H Leaders' Convention Here

About 75 4-H club leaders and members from all over Washington county gathered in the chamber of commerce rooms here last Wednesday night for their first county convention of 1939. The attendance was said to be one of the largest on record.

Geroldine DeLancey and Hildegard Schoeler, juniors at Corvallis high school and winners of state and interstate honors among 4-H demonstrators, presented their demonstration, entitled "Textile Buymanship," to the assembled leaders. Included in the demonstration were comments on care of textiles, significance of labels and manufacturers' instructions and what to look for when buying.

County Agent William F. Cyrus presented his new assistant and "ex officio" county 4-H club leader, Palmer Torvold, who succeeded Larry E. Franklin as county agent.

Hillsboro District Scouts Top Area Council Listing

Another laurel was added Friday in the ever-growing record of distinction earned by Hillsboro district ranking for the month of December, 1938 over 34 districts in Oregon and Washington. Efficiency rating of the eight Hillsboro district troops was 95.9 per cent, compared with 83.9 per cent for the closest contender, district 18 of Portland.

Six of the eight troops received 100 per cent ratings. They are Nos. 210, 222, 228, 247, Rainbow and 311. Troop 219 earned a 96 per cent rating and Troop 227, 69 per cent. A total of 261 troops are listed in the efficiency competition.

Recognition was also given the Hillsboro district for a sharp membership increase during the month. Congratulations were extended to Henry Schanck, deputy district commissioner, in a letter from G. H. Oberholser, Portland area council executive. Hillsboro district troops have increased membership from 156 in November to 205 on December 31, 1938.

No business firm should send out a letter without its being on a printed letterhead and in a printed envelope. It lends dignity to the business and gives it good advertising.
