

Three Candidates Enter Goddess of Liberty Contest

Mrs. Zola Morgan, chairman of the Goddess of Liberty contest which is a preliminary feature of the "Happy Days" celebration of July 2, 3, and 4 reports that there is considerable interest already manifested and that from early reports there will be a fine group of contestants for the Goddess and six attendants. She points out that the candidates who get to work early will have the best opportunity to win the $5 prize offered to the girl selling the most tickets to the dance at the Shute park on June 24.

This is the fifth year that the Business and Professional Women's club has co-operated with the Firemen in this feature of the three-day Fourth of July celebration. Serving with Mrs. Morgan on the club's committee are Mrs. Eunice Kimmerle and Mrs. Margaret Sahnow.

This year's Goddess will be given a trip to the San Francisco fair, chartered by Mrs. H. S. Rogers, wife of the mayor of Hillsboro.

Already three young women have entered in the contest, Miss Florence Hanley by the Business and Professional Women's club; Miss Anna Evers by the Women of the Catholic Order of Foresters at Verbort; and Miss Dorothy Kurath by Phenicia Temple, Pythian Sisters.

Miss Steele and Ed Collins Marry

BANKS—A beautiful wedding was held May 27, at 12:30 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Steel of Wapato when their daughter, Miss Lillian Steele, became the bride of Ed Collins of Hillsboro.

The ceremony was read by Rev. Woods of Carlton by a group of friends and relatives.

The bride wore a dress of white tulle and a band of white roses. She carried a bouquet of red and white roses.

She was attended by her two sisters, Florence and Gladys Steele, who wore dresses of pink and blue tulle respectively and carried bouquets of red and white roses.

The bride's brother, Alexander Steele, Jr., was best man.

The Lehengrin's wedding march was played by Miss Evelyn Kessler.

Following the ceremony the bride's mother served dinner to thirty guests after which the couple left for an outing at the beaches.

They will make their home near Hillsboro where the bridegroom is employed. For her going away the bride wore an ensemble of blue with fuchsia colored accessories.

Mrs. Collins lived several years in Banks previous to her marriage.

Those from Banks who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. William Moss, Mrs. Charles Kessler and daughter, Evelyn.

Mr. and Mrs. Denzel Dyer and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rector of Bend were week-end guests at the P. J. Kalkwarf home. They spent Sunday at the Tillamook beaches. Miss Caroline Kalkwarf returned to Bend with them.

Class Confirmation Set for Sunday

The services at Trinity Lutheran church next Sunday will center in the confirmation of the annual catechumen class. The requirements for confirmation include the normal Sunday school course as well as catechetical instructions by the pastor in the fundamental doctrines of the Bible. An oral examination in the presence of the congregation is designed to show that the catechumens have acquired sufficient knowledge of the Christian truth for communicant membership in the church. The examination is followed by the vow of confirmation in which the catechumens pledge fidelity to the faith. "Your Birthright" will be the subject of the pastor's address. Additional features of the service are appropriate hymns by the congregation and a selection by the choir.

Members of the present class are: Eunice Anderson, Doris Kneisel, Harold Anderson, Alvin Kraus, Ray Kaster, Dale Kaster, Kenneth Voies, and George Jurgensen.

Last Sunday Mrs. Albert Thompson, Mrs. Louis Raymond, and Guy Anderson were received into the communion of the church.

Miss Meyers Bride Of Guy T. Willis

Of interest to many friends in this vicinity was the marriage of Miss Bernice Meyers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Meyers of North Plains, and Guy T. Willis, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Willis of Mountaineer, on Thursday, May 25, at Vancouver, Wash.

Following the marriage a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Thursday evening, with about forty guests attending, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Venima of Watertown, S. D., uncle and aunt of the bride; Miss Mabel Sill and Miss Lillian Willis, sister of the bridegroom, of Ilwaco, Wash. Many beautiful gifts were presented to the happy couple.
