

Verna Dillon Goddess Entry For Auxiliary; Juniors Feted

Miss Verna Dillon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Dillon, was selected as the candidate to be sponsored by the Auxiliary to the American Legion for Goddess of Liberty of the "Happy Days" celebration July 2, 3 and 4. Mrs. Leon Davis, Mrs. Homer Wilmarth, and Mrs. E. A. Griffith, were the committee on selection.

Juniors, all but one being daughters of Auxiliary members, were entertained at the meeting Tuesday night, with sixteen in attendance. Mrs. Fred Caldwell, chairman of the Junior Activities committee, announced the program presented by the juniors. Miss Irene Engdinger entertained with a piano solo, Patty McCoy sang and danced in dark costume. Dorine Foelker sang several songs, and the group sang "God Bless America," led by Mrs. Caldwell, and other songs. Irene Engdinger was the piano accompanist. Mrs. Davis was pianist for assembly singing.

After refreshments were served by the hostesses, the guests enjoyed a game of cards, prizes going to Allene Amacher and Dorine Foelker. Mrs. A. H. Budge, chairman of the Poppy Poster contest, reported that 68 posters were entered in the contest, and most of them were displayed at the meeting. She also reported on sale of poppies in the absence of the chairman, saying that all poppies were sold and more could have been sold.

Mrs. W. R. Manley, chairman of judges, reported on Campship contest sponsored by the Auxiliary. Prizes were awarded for the best papers on "What Camp Fire Can Do for Me," and "What I Can Do for Camp Fire." The papers were numbered and upon checking the names after the awards had been made, she found that Norma Lou Kroeger received the award in the 19 to 23-year-old group, and Patricia Kroeger was winner in the over 23-year-old group. Mrs. George Fischer and Robert Busch were the other judges.

The next meeting will be held on Wednesday night, July 5, instead of the regular night, which falls on the Fourth. The August meeting will be the annual picnic supper, including families, and will be held in the garden at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nye Bristol.

Women of Moose To Elect Officers

Election of officers will be held by Women of the Moose on Friday night, June 16, and an invitation from the Portland chapter to hold joint installation of officers of the two chapters will probably be accepted.

Miss Joan Bowne Weds Ben Stark

BEND—Miss Joan Bowne and Ben Stark were married May 28 at 8 p. m. at the Trinity Episcopal church in Portland by the Rev. Kenston.

Miss Grace Bowne, sister of the bride, acted as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Myrtle Stark and Carline Wolf, sister and cousin respectively of the groom, and the bride's cousin, Miss Martha Olson, and friend Dorothy.

Best man was Len Stark, twin brother of the groom. The ushers were Henry and Dean Bowne, brothers of the bride. Bob and David Stark, brothers of the bridegroom, and Harold Ferris and Mr. Hansen.

The bride wore a gown of lace and carried a bouquet of small white roses, sweet peas and lilies of the valley. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hankle and family of Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bowne and Miss Agnes, Leona of Salem, cousins of the bride, and Mrs. Lloyd Caven and children of Bend. A large crowd of other friends and relatives were also present.

The bride and groom left after the ceremony for their honeymoon, at the beaches and returned Wednesday.

Prof. L. Dossett And Beryl Ramp Give Concerts

Beginning Sunday evening at the North Plains Christian church, Prof. L. Dossett, tenor soloist, and Beryl Ramp, pianist, will give a week of vocal and instrumental concerts in this county. Prof. Dossett, director of vocal music at Northwest Christian college at Eugene, is now pretty well known to this community as the local community chorus director. He is a pupil of Paul Petri of Oregon State college.

His concerts consist of popular secular and sacred solos and instrumental numbers by Beryl Ramp, pianist. The tentative schedule is as follows: North Plains, Sunday, 8:15 p. m.; Monday, Sherwood (not definite); Tuesday, Christian church, Forest Grove; Wednesday, Bethany of Turner; Thursday, Community church, Scholls, 8:30 p. m.; Friday, Christian church, Hillsboro, 8:15 p. m.; Sunday, June 18, Beaverton Christian church.

Members of the community chorus and friends are invited and asked to encourage others to hear these musical artists.

Merle Tallman Weds Miss Alice Mellus

Of interest to many local people was the marriage last Saturday evening of Alice M. Mellus to Merle L. Tallman at the bride's home in Portland. Mr. Tallman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Tallman, and the family formerly lived here. He is now a student at the Pilgrim House read the wedding rites before an altar of potted palms and ferns, topped with huge bouquets of pink and white peonies, and flanked with large branched candelabra. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Barrett attended the bridal pair, and the bride was given in marriage by her brother, Walter Mellus. About 75 guests were invited to the ceremony.

The bride's gown was of white organza, with waist length veil capped with bouquet and blossoms. She carried a bouquet of sweet-peas, gardenias, bouvardia and cream rosebuds. The matron of honor wore a pink lace princess gown, and carried delphiniums.

After a week's honeymoon at the Oregon beaches, the newlyweds will be at home at 3736 S.E. 33rd avenue, Portland.
