First Mass Celebrated at Roy

Rev. Delplanche
Ordained Into Priesthood

(By Miss Agnes Vanderzanden)

ROY—Rev. Father William Delplanche of Roy, was ordained into the priesthood in St. Mary's Cathedral in Portland Saturday.

Rev. Delplanche celebrated his first mass in his home parish Sunday. Rev. Edmund Vanderzanden was deacon and Rev. Mat Jonas sub-deacon. Rev. Joseph B. Saal was master of ceremonies.

The church was filled to capacity with many standing.

A reception was held in the Roy hall from two to five Sunday afternoon.

William Vanderzanden Injured

William Vanderzanden of Roy fractured his elbow when a horse stepped on him Wednesday, May 31. He is now in the Forest Grove hospital and will be taken to Portland later for an operation.

Arm Fractured

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Friday have been ill at their home the past week. Mrs. Otto Galloway, sister of Mrs. Friday, is helping at the Friday home.

Mrs. Charles Duyck, who has been visiting with her family in Milwaukee, Wis., for the past six weeks, returned to her home the first of last week.

Quits Milk Route

After 22 Years

(By Mrs. Frank Pezoldt)

ROCK CREEK—Edwin Leal of Beaverton has taken over the milk route through here by which the milk is hauled to the condensers at Hillsboro. Louis Staus, the former driver, was on the route for 22 years. Before that Mr. Staus' father, the late Henry Staus, had also been driver on this route for many years when horses and wagons were used to haul the milk.

Extend Route

Hillsboro mail route 1 will soon be extended as far as Dr. Fred Pageler's place and besides Dr. Pageler will serve Herman Kestek, Taylor Oliver and M. Farnstead.

Dr. Fred Pageler, optometrist, now has offices both in Portland and in Salem.

Sells Place

A Zumkehr recently sold his upper place consisting of 20 acres.

Mrs. Alfred Dyale Jr. and small daughter of Agate Beach are vacationing with Mrs. Dyale's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Fugy.

Mrs. Fred Walden expected to leave Monday for California to visit her niece.

Edward Pezoldt of Portland spent several days recently with his brother, Frank Pezoldt. Mrs. Edward Pezoldt and daughter, Mrs. Sig Hagazi, flew to Los Angeles about a week ago to be with Mrs. Pezoldt's niece whose husband passed away. He had been a navy man.

As no supply pastor came to conduct services at the Reformed church at Helvetia Sunday John Boeckl, a member of the church, conducted the church services.

Plans have been formulated for a children's day picnic to be held in the grove back of the Reformed parsonage July 9.

798 Returns Filed

Income tax returns reported in 1938 from Washington county totaled 798. This county ranked tenth in the state. Hillsboro reported 237. Forest Grove 144 and Beaverton 143.

Beauty for Rose Festival

Queen Betty
To Take Parade
Throne Friday

A throne on Forest Grove's float in the Portland rose festival parade was being prepared this week for Queen Betty Herr, 16-year-old high school senior from Scoggins Valley, winner of that community's float queen contest.

The victorious miss was formally presented as Queen Betty I at a court meeting with two of her four princesses in the Forest Grove city hall Thursday night. Princesses who will attend her on the festival float listed in order of placing in the contest, are Emma Coupe of Corvallis, Lucy Ellen Howe of Forest Grove, Jeannette Wilson of Gales Creek and Hazel Shiffer of Timber.

Frank Friday, president of the Forest Grove Breakfast club, acted as master of ceremonies at the public introduction of Queen Betty and her princesses Thursday night. A number of city officials and representatives of the city's service clubs were in attendance.

In charge of Marvin Emerson and Arthur Needham, construction of the float has been aided by many civic groups. Forest Grove's town band, led by five high school majorettes, will accompany the float in its parade appearance.

Wayne Cooper,
Laurel, Passes

Wayne Cooper, 33, Laurel resident for the past two years, died in a local hospital Friday after a short illness. Funeral services were held Saturday in the Dunelton & Sewell chapel, Rev. H. A. Deck officiating, with interment in the Fir Lawn cemetery.

Surviving are his wife, Delpha, Hillsboro route 2, two brothers, Rex of Arkansas and Walter of Wylder, Idaho, and three sisters, Mrs. Nellie Baker and Mrs. Alma McFadden of Elbing, Kansas, and Mrs. Anna West, Wichita, Kansas.

Delbert Crews
To Take Forestry
At State College

(By Harry Niemmann)

Delbert Crews, who was graduated from Hillsboro Union high school this spring, will register in the school of forestry in September at Oregon State where he has been awarded a state board of higher education scholarship.

Crews was given an unqualified recommendation for the honor by John R. Cox, principal of the high school, whose opinion as to his character, ability and worthiness were requested by the Oregon high school contacts committee which makes the selections.

The award recipient, who made exceptionally high grades while in high school, took part in extracurricular activities as well. He was in the junior class play and member of Hillsboro fire department and the assembly club.

Crews plans to arrive in Corvallis in time for the opening of Freshman week, September 25 to 30.
