Bobby McDonald of Tacoma arrived Saturday for a visit with his relatives, the McKinney families.

Miss Coulter Bride Of Alan H. Schiewe

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCarr on the Mt. Hood Loop highway was the scene of a pretty wedding last Friday night when their niece, Carol Coulter, became the bride of Alan H. Schiewe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schiewe of Portland. Rev. F. B. Matthews of Highland Baptist church, Portland, officiated.

The bride wore a blue suit with rose accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

Miss Lorene Alt, cousin of the bridegroom, played just before the ceremony.

A buffet supper was served later to a number of friends and relatives.

The bride is a daughter of J. S. Coulter of this city and is a graduate of the Hillsboro union high school, and of Behne-Walker Business college in Portland.

The young couple will make their home in Portland after July 7.

Selfridges Return From 5000-Mile Trip Through U. S.

Mr. and Mrs. George Selfridge returned Saturday from a 5000-mile trip east and south. They went by train and after getting a new car at Detroit, visited around that city and Chicago. Their route home took them through Missouri, where they experienced being in an electric storm; Kansas, Colorado and west to Grand Canyon, Boulder dam, San Francisco and the fair. They were gone a month.

They spent three days visiting at Holly, Colorado. Each day they saw a dust storm which interfered with their plans as the air was so filled with dust it was not advisable to be out. Mr. Selfridge recalled the visibility was about two blocks.

Mr. Selfridge said they enjoyed the fair at San Francisco, that Oregon had a good display, but that he did not see anything in it relative to the Bonneville dam. The past it was a part of the Washington state exhibit.

A short business meeting will be held July 7 after which the F. C. degree will again be conferred.

Busy Month for Lodge Planned

A large number attended Tuality lodge June 26 to see the F. C. degree conferred upon three candidates.

Among the interesting talks heard were those by Rachel Fields, who wrote "All This and Heaven To," and Hildegarde Hawthorn, writer of many children's books.

Mrs. Smith was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Roger Graham of Spokane, Wash., and while there they were guests of Misses Lahoma Powell and Dorothy Havens, former Hillsboro girls now employed in San Francisco. They also visited the fair and the beach.

Mrs. McAninch to Report Townsend Meet Monday

Mrs. R. H. McAninch will report on the national Townsend club convention at Indianapolis, Ind., which she attended last week.

The Hillsboro Townsend club meeting at the Methodist church Monday evening. A pot luck supper is scheduled for 7 o'clock.

Fifty-five hundred persons turned out for the Townsend banquet June 24 at Indianapolis, according to Mrs. McAninch, and emergency orders had to be sent out for more food, more waters and more patience. Attendance was 1000 more than expected.

Food ran out early, despite supplies that included 250 gallons of fruit cocktail, 2500 pounds of new potatoes, 15 pounds of pepper and 2500 broilers. At 10 o'clock at least 50 persons still awaited the first course.

Two miles of banquet tables were ranged across the Manufacturers' building. It was estimated that at least 24 hours were necessary to clean up after the banquet, Mrs. McAninch said.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Northrup of near North Plains, who has been in the Emanuel hospital for several weeks, receiving treatment for a broken hip, was brought to Hillsboro Monday and is at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harland Kelly, for an indefinite period.

Vacationing at Yellowstone—Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Easter and daughter Nancy write from Yellowstone national park, where they are vacationing, that they had seen all the geysers on the west side and planned to leave Friday for the east side of the park.

D. A. R. Picnic Sunday—David Hill D. A. R. Chapter will have a picnic at the Memorial cabin at Champoeg this Sunday. Members and their families are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Dannen of near Corvallis were Hillsboro visitors Friday night, coming down to attend the wedding anniversary celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sewell.

L. E. Wilkes went to Tillamook Wednesday of last week and visited his brother Orville and other relatives until Saturday, when he joined the Wolf Creek caravan and made the trip home with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Todd Sonner and son Donald of Sunnyside, Wash., were guests over the Fourth of Mrs. Bessie Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baker. Mrs. Sonner is Mrs. Bessie Baker's sister.

Miss Alice Sewell of Portland was a guest Friday of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sewell attending the open house celebration of their wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bailey and daughter Ann Lee spent the week-end and the Fourth at Crescent Lake.

Smalleys Honored At Farewell Party

A party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Baldwin June 26 for Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Smalley and family who are moving to Corvallis, and presented the honor guests with an electric lamp.

The affair also proved to be a surprise birthday party for Mrs. Baldwin, and a lovely birthday cake was baked and presented by Mrs. T. G. Bronleewe. Mrs. Baldwin also received a gift from the group.

Commander and Mrs. Harding Visit Here—Commander and Mrs. H. S. Harding of Parris Island, South Carolina, arrived last week for a short visit with Mrs. Harding's sisters, Misses Tennessee and Eva Weathered and Mrs. Frank Sholes, and his mother. They are en route to San Francisco. Later they will go to Guam, P. I., where he will be in charge of the United States Naval hospital.

Two Cities Join In Church Picnic

The Congregational church of Hillsboro will picnic next Sunday, July 9, at Camp Adams, the grounds owned by the Congregational Conference of Oregon. The church school will be held at 10 a. m. as usual, but the church service will begin at 10:45 instead of 11 as the automobile caravan will leave the church at 11:30 so as to have the dinner at the camp by 1 p. m. The Congregationalists of Forest Grove will join in the picnic. A vesper service will be held at 5 p. m.
