Temperance Play Scheduled Here Next Thursday

"The Price of a Drink" will be presented in the Methodist church Thursday night, July 20, at 8.

William Johnson, the promoter, while driving in an intoxicated condition, is accused by the state of the murder of a mother and child. One of the leading scenes in the drama is when the father of the prisoner pleads to the district attorney for his son's life. The drama and trial brings an indictment against present day conditions as a result of the liquor traffic.

The drama tells the story of a young man influenced by wet temper propaganda of his own father and trapped by the modern liquor sales system. The promoter pleading for what he values more than life—the judge torn between pity and duty, the attorneys battling bravely for a life at stake, the jury spellbound by the unfolding drama, are among the gripping incidents of this tremendously impressive and effective temperance play.

The twenty local citizens who will assist in the drama are as follows:

M. B. Bump, judge; Leon Wiley, promoter; Frank Eagon, sheriff; John Green, liquor dealer; Al Fuller, defense attorney; Earl McLean, clerk; H. A. Kunkin, bailiff; Mrs. John Green, stenographer; Ralph D. Richards, district attorney; Hayward H. Johnson, father.

Summoned on the jury are: P. A. Anderson, J. W. Poynter, Luman Hall, Mrs. Katie Shipley, Mrs. Charles Austin, George Erickson, Mrs. Fred McLean, Mrs. J. Mackay, B. W. Barnes, John Gilson, R. E. Wiley, Harley Cruse.

Admission to the drama will be free. A voluntary pledge offering will be taken. The drama is being sponsored by the churches throughout the state and everyone is invited.

"Oregon for Me" Says C. S. Webber

"No nothing that would better than Oregon," said C. S. Webber of the Portland Gas & Coke company, who returned last week from a trip with Mrs. Webber and daughter Doris, and Miss Dolores Hahn.

They visited one week with relatives in Los Angeles and from there to Phoenix, Arizona, where they found the temperature at 112 degrees.

They spent two days at Golden Gate Exposition, and while Mr. Webber thinks the fair is fine, he said the afternoons and evenings were so cold while they were there that he wished for two overcoats. He reports poor crops in California, and everything dried up. They returned over the coast route and although enjoying the three weeks' trip, still think there is no place like Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Carleton Hande and family of Silverton are guests this week of Mrs. Hande's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Connell, Mr. Connell, who has been ill for some time, is reported as improving slowly.

Gordon Wood, Ernie Miles and Bud Garrett are spending this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Wood. They are en route to their home in Vancouver, B. C., after a trip to the San Francisco fair.

Miss Florence Jessup of Brooklyn, Wash., spent the week-end with her aunt, Mrs. A. J. Whiddon. She is en route home, after a visit to the San Francisco fair and with friends at Sacramento.

Mrs. Una B. Ricketts and Mr. and Mrs. Elton Byrd and children, Robin and Carol, all of Portland, were Sunday dinner party guests of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Wilson.

Miss Janice Johnston left July 4 with Dr. and Mrs. J. O. Robb for a visit at the World's Fair at San Francisco.

Mrs. Eva Bridges of Portland is visiting Mrs. Max Crandall.

Dakotans Visit Relatives— Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hering have been here during the last two weeks to relatives from North Dakota. His father, Aubrey Hering, and sister, Maude Hering, and Alvin Hering visited last week leaving Friday for their home in Minn. Mrs. Hering's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Olson of Minn., and sister, Mrs. Robert Rindt of Northwood, N. D., arrived Thursday and Mrs. Hering has gone with them on a week's trip to San Francisco, Cal., after which they will spend a week touring in Oregon.
