First and Second Rook Squads Given

Hilhi's Baby Spartans are versatile. They play basketball as easily as they fight to the finish in football. They have the vim and vigor of the older Hilhi Spartan guards plus the scoring possibility of the high ranking forwards.

The tallest boy, Bill Ziegler, tops tiny Steve McEntee by seven inches.

Alvan H. Bogue, freshman coach, hopes to have more teamwork before the first game scheduled with Beaverton at Beaverton. He also states that in the few weeks practice they are doing remarkably well for never playing together before.

They are Hilhi's future hoop-men and we are looking forward with much interest to see what the future holds for the Baby squad.

They will have an acting captain for each game. Bill Ziegler, center; First squad: Bill Ziegler, center; find the Babe wrapped in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger." And it came to pass that when the angel had gone away from them into heaven, that the shepherds pressed with haste into Bethlehem to see that which was told them. There lying in the manger they find the Babe. The hour had struck. God had sent forth his Son, born of a woman to become one with us—sin apart. Christ, the Second Person of the God-head had stripped Himself of His glory and stepped down to walk among men and reveal the heart-throb of His Father's love for fallen men.

Next came the Magi, the wise men. They fell down and worshipped Him and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto Him gifts; gold, frankincense and myrrh. Gold which spoke of royalty; Christ the King. Frankincense which told God's delight in Him. "This is my beloved Son in whom I am well pleased." And Christ could say that He came not to do His own will but the will of His Father who sent Him. And myrrh; here you see the shadow of the Cross even now at the manger. For later when He laid down His life myrrh was used as they made ready His body for burial. Gold—Christ the King. Frankincense, His holy life. Myrrh—His death for our sins.

Human reason says—"I must see the thing, and handle it or I cannot believe it." Where reason leaves off faith takes up. By faith we see the unseen things of God and are made strong for the tests and trials of life. By faith we see across into the land that is fairer than day where the Father waits over the way. And so we sing—"My Faith Looks Up to Thee; Thou Lamb of Calvary, Saviour Divine! Now Hear Me While I Pray; Take All My Guilt Away. O Let Me from This Day be Wholly Thine."—Paid adv.
