

James Searle New President Of Huber Club

ALOHA-HUBER—About 60 members of the Huber Commercial club enjoyed a turkey dinner in the club house last Sunday. Enough of the our big turkeys was left for an evening meal at seven, which was well attended. The club showed its appreciation of the services of the retiring president, Jack Tack, by presenting him with a pointer. The newly elected officers of the club are James Searle, president; Mr. E. W. Green, vice-president; C. W. Hecker, secretary; Henry Pfenning, treasurer.

Senator Ross Speaker
Senator Lyman Ross was the principal speaker at the Lincoln Young Democratic meeting at Newport on Tuesday.

Little Boy in Barber Shop
A little boy in the barber shop setting spruced up said he had to take the part of Santa Claus tonight and was going to Hillsboro to do his shopping.

Man Stays Tract
C. J. Buckley on Friday sold to Charles M. Hinman of Cornelius a 20-acre tract of brush land on Cooper Mountain, on the Gasner road east of Wheeler avenue. Mr. Hinman will clear the land and occupy it for his home.

Russian Attack Surprise
Mr. and Mrs. August Nyland's regular letters from their relatives in Finland have been interrupted for three months on account of that little country's struggle for her life. Their people live outside of the zone of hostilities at Vora, a village near Warsaw and the coast. The Nylands were married in Finland, coming to America 20 years ago immediately following Finland's gaining her independence from Russia. They say Russia's attack was a shock and a complete surprise to them.

Xmas Program Kinton Friday

KINTON—Community Christmas program will be held at the Kinton Grange hall Friday night. Doors open at 7:30 and program will start at 8 sharp. The program will be made up of numbers from the school and Sunday school with carols from a community chorus. After the program there will be a community sing and treats for all the children.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Erickson of Sweet Home spent several days this week at the home of Mrs. Erickson's sister, Mrs. E. W. Wright.

There are so many light cases of flu in this community that we nearly have an epidemic. Almost every home has one or two cases.

Mrs. Charles Ryan and daughter Alice of Portland were week-end guests at the J. H. Aten home.

The Kinton school is filled with the Christmas spirit and is being appropriately decorated. The children are busy making gifts and practicing for the Christmas program.

A large number from this community attended the funeral of Mrs. A. B. Flint at the Scholls Methodist church Monday. Mrs. Flint had lived in this neighborhood many years and was loved by all who knew her.

Urton Breaks Arm In Fall at Home

ALOHA-HUBER—Ed Urton slipped on a wet board while working around his place Friday and broke a bone just below the wrist. Dr. R. S. Welsh is the attending surgeon, and the patient is rapidly recovering from the use of his cast. Though advanced well in years, Mr. Urton preserves a youthful look and vigor to a remarkable degree. The family came to Oregon in 1923.

Mrs. Joe Bush was one of the 42 guests at the Gold Star Mothers luncheon Monday at the home of Mrs. Margaret Melching, East Moreland, Portland. There were four Gold Star sisters. Christmas gifts were exchanged among the ladies.

Twenty-three additions were made to the membership of the Aloha Community Baptist church last Sunday, most of whom are adults.

HOWARD DAVID SHAW
BEAVERTON—Howard David Shaw passed away Sunday. He had made his home with his brother, James A. Shaw, for the past four years.

Survivors include two sisters, Nicolas Shaw Fraser and Eleanor Shaw Smith, of Geneseo, N. Y.; and a brother, James A. Shaw, of this city. He was a life member of the Elk Lodge at Watertown, South Dakota.
Services were at Pegg's Chapel Tuesday.

Couple Honored on 40th Anniversary

COOPER MOUNTAIN—A group of neighbors and friends chartered Mr. and Mrs. Pete Piluso on their 40th wedding anniversary Sunday evening. A mock wedding was held. Frank Garvin acted as minister. The bride wore a lace veil and carried a bouquet of chrysanthemums and greens. She was given away by E. W. Livermore. Mrs. Livermore was bridesmaid. A wedding luncheon was served. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Livermore, Mr. and Mrs. Ves Bany.

Xmas Program Set for Sunday

REEDVILLE—A special Christmas service will be held at the local church Sunday morning. The children in the 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th grades will sing Christmas carols under the direction of Miss Myrtle Moore. The Christmas program of the Sunday school will be given at 8 o'clock Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Isaacson left Tuesday for Rockaway to remain while Isaacson, who is a driver for Oregon Motor stages, makes that town his terminal this week.

Miss Thelma Graham and Miss Myrtle Moore spent the week-end at Monmouth.

Mrs. J. E. Wagonblast returned Friday from a week in Portland, where she received treatment for a streptococcus infection.

Mrs. Clyde Radcliffe of Longview is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Looze, this week.

Al Schappert returned Friday from a week's business trip to Salt Lake City, Utah.

Mrs. Kenneth Sawtell entertained the Star Pique club Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. J. Lorenzen won high and Mrs. Millie Keeney also received an award. Mrs. Keeney and Miss Margaret Inlay were guests. Next meeting will be with Mrs. Nelsa Rutledge.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Wann of Portland visited local friends over the week-end. Mr. Wann formerly taught school here and at Orenco.

Mrs. A. Nielsen of Great Falls, Idaho has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Charles Woolcock the past two weeks, left for her home Friday.

A large group of young people of the Christian Endeavor society enjoyed a party Friday evening at the church.

A Christmas party is planned in connection with the regular program at the Missionary meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Ed Hooper December 28. Each woman attending is asked to bring a gift not to exceed ten cents.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Drummond arrived Tuesday from Tacoma to spend the holidays at the Taylor-Kirkwood home.

Mrs. E. J. LaRue, Carl Truchel, A. Nordlund, and V. Perry represented the local Missionary society at the quarterly Presbyterian meeting at Forbes Presbyterian church in Portland Tuesday.

The Story of Christmas

The International Uniform Sunday School Lesson for Dec. 21
Text: Matthew 1:18-25; 18:1-6; 19:13-15

INTEREST in the story of the first Christmas has lived through the ages and makes it the most oft-repeated of all tales because it is the narration of the birth of Jesus Christ.

Among all those born of women He has been the incarnation of supreme goodness, the man whose perfect devotion to God, the Father, and whose unselfishness and love of His fellowmen revealed Him as the Divine Being in whom we see the incarnation of God.

The sentiment and interest that attaches to the birth and childhood of every great man has peculiar significance in relation to Jesus of Nazareth, and this alone would always keep the story of Bethlehem fresh and new.

BUT there is another reason which, even though it be a minor one, would be sufficient also to keep this story ever new. It is the story of the festival of the child. It glorifies motherhood and babyhood, and for this reason, if for no other, it would have interest with every succeeding generation of mothers and children. It touches the life of home and family at its tenderest and most sacred place.

It reaches into all the innermost places of romance and love and devotion, and it enriches all these with a sanctity and divinity that is even greater than that which these things inherently have in human life.

The world has not always had at every time and in every place the sense of sacredness of life that is so much an essential part of the religion of Jew and Christian. Even in an enlightened non-Christian world, the exposure of infants was common, and the conception of a love life between man and woman was overlaid with the subjection of woman and the disregard of mother instinct and mother love. Even in a modern time Napoleon could describe as the ideal woman "the one who had the most sons," with the interest of a soldier in boys for his battleguard and with a ruthless disregard of either the pangs of motherhood or the love of mothers for their children.

THE so-called Christian world has fallen deeply enough into the abyss of similar paganism, but not deep enough to blot out or destroy the finer feelings that relate to love and home. Even rough men have tenderness for little children, and the tiny fingers of a babe have often been firmly clasped around lives otherwise evil and sordid.

The birth of the Babe of Bethlehem is not unrelated to the after life of the Man of Nazareth, who came into the world that He might give men life and that He might give it to them more abundantly. If we could bring this story of Bethlehem more vitally to bear upon the world of men and women who are most responsive as they cherish their children, we could do a great deal to make more effective the gospel of redemption and the appeal of the Master to men to live lives of holiness, honesty, and love.

Willis E. Brown Townsend Leader

WILLIS E. BROWN of Orenco was elected president of the Hillsboro Townsend club Monday evening in the absence of President J. F. Buckland, on account of illness.

William Bucher was chosen chairman and conducted the election. According to the Townsend manual the newly elected president at the next meeting is to appoint the other officers and committee chairmen from a list of eleven nominees selected by the club.

Successful nominees are John Rasmussen, C. C. Bannister, R. L. Putnam, J. A. Hockersmith, C. W. Gillett, Miss Marjorie Hockersmith, Arthur Palmer, Mrs. R. M. McAninch, Mrs. Newall Macrum, Harold Carlisle and Fay Harrington.

Next meeting of the club will be at the Legion hall, Monday, January 8. The special feature will be a pot-luck turkey dinner. Members and friends are invited to bring their covered dishes, etc., as usual and the club will furnish the turkey and coffee for a small charge.

Beaverton Schools Aid Cheer Programs

BEAVERTON—The grade school will hold its Christmas program this morning (Thursday) in the school assembly room. A feature of the assembly will be the display of foodstuffs and clothing gathered by all grades for the Christmas cheer work. This is to be turned into the Kiwanis supply for distribution with the combined town cheer program.

Mrs. Merza Halsten is ill in a Portland hospital. The second grade is being taught by Miss Pearl Cook of Beaverton during her absence.

The high school has tentatively set today (Thursday) for the Christmas assembly, at which the Christmas cheer stock which they have gathered is to be turned over to the Kiwanis.

The high school fire squad is sponsoring a dance to be held tonight (Thursday) in the school gym from 8:30 to 11:30. It will be an all-school event.

Xmas Party at Aloha Tonight

ALOHA-HUBER—Aloha Grange meeting tonight (Thursday) will be in the nature of a Christmas party for Grange members and their families. There will be a tree and a program which includes a Christmas one-act play by the adults.

The Grange home economics committee held an all-day meeting at the hall Wednesday. The hall was decorated for the Christmas party tonight.
