Wind Causes Big Damage At Helvetia

HELVETIA — The wind that was blowing a gale Tuesday night and all day Wednesday and Thursday did a lot of damage to buildings and blocked the road with fallen trees. Ed Anderson of Mason Hill claims that it was the worst wind-storm he had experienced. Windows were blown out and part of the roof blown off several of their buildings. Simon Hershey's barn roof was damaged and many report light buildings blown over and moved from their foundation.

All Finland
Mrs. Pete Yunker was hostess for the Sunshine club January 17. Assisting her were Mrs. John Yurkovich, Mrs. Abe Zahler and Mrs. Ted Zurcher. The sick committee reported several cases of flu. The club voted to send a donation to Finland. New members of the club are Mrs. Dan Basick and Mrs. Theresa Morrill. Delegates for the convention of Women's Clubs to be held at the Methodist church in Hillsboro January 25 are Miss E. Martin, Mrs. S. Meek, Mrs. Emma Dierdorff, Mrs. H. Jacobsen, Mrs. D. Mays and Mrs. C. Lague. Several others expect to attend. The Sunshine club voted to co-operate with the young people's club, whose project for this year is to clean up the West Union cemetery. After the business session a short program was enjoyed. Place for next meeting will be arranged later.

Illness Cancels Game
The basketball game between Helvetia and Union schools was called off Friday because of sickness in both schools.

Birthdays Celebrated
Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Korn celebrated their birthday anniversaries last week. Mrs. Korn on January 16 and Mr. Korn on January 19. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hershey and family of Bacona and Mr. and Mrs. Simon Hershey surprised them and had a party at their home January 16. Mrs. C. E. Korn is one of the oldest ladies in Helvetia.

First Aid Class Planned
Henry Schaeck, visited the teacher Joseph Wenzel, last week to arrange for a class in advanced first aid to start about February 1.

Hiteon

Hiteon Progressive club met January 17 at the home of Mrs. Lillie Sanderson. Roll call was on "A traffic hazard in your community." It was voted to send the usual contribution to the scholarship loan fund. Delegates were appointed to the county federation meeting at Hillsboro January 25. The Doernbecher hospital chairman and the buying committee reported eight nighties made for the hospital. Mrs. Jessie Barnum gave a paper on "Child Welfare."

William Barnum, who has been very ill the past week with flu, is reported slightly better.

Mrs. Mildred Lime and daughter Donna Jeanne and Frances Schmetzer of San Francisco visited at the Metzentine home Monday.

Mrs. Jack Way entertained her brother, Mr. Williams, at a birthday dinner Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Haggerty of Portland were week-end guests of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Haggerty.

Husbands Entertained
Hiteon club members entertained their husbands at a party Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Way. The fun started with the singing of songs followed by a skit "Hanging out the Wash," by two colored ladies. George Anderson sang a solo and Mrs. Cora Metzentine gave a recitation. Prizes were given for "500" and rummy. The ladies brought lunch for two in decorated baskets and the judges voted Miss Lillian Owens basket the prettiest. Partners for supper were found by pairing names pinned on each person's back.

William F. Campbell made a business trip to Medford. Mrs. Campbell's niece, Miss Helen Veenken, accompanied him as far as Eugene.
