Former Schefflin Girl Weds Sunday

SCHIEFFLIN—A candlelight service was held Sunday evening when Miss Wilma Marie Schaus, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. P. H. Schaus of Snohomish, Wash., and formerly of Schefflin, became the bride of Louis John Kuhlmann, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Kuhlmann, also of Snohomish. The service was read at Zion Lutheran church of Snohomish at 8:30 o'clock by the bride's father, Rev. P. H. Schaus, before relatives, friends, and members of the congregation.

The bride was lovely in a white moire slipper taffeta gown with train. Her long tulle veil was caught about her head with a coronet of pearl flowers. She wore a gold cross and carried a nosegay of roses, buds and carnations and fuchsia with streamers. The maid of honor was Dorothea Schaus, sister of the bride. She wore a gown of green chartreuse net and carried a nosegay of rosebuds, carnations and fuchsia. The bridesmaids were Miss Gertrude Scholnecht, who wore pink moire taffeta with black velvet bows, at her neck, Esther Kahle of Schefflin, also wore pink moire taffeta with black velvet bows, at Myrtle Bosse of Snohomish and Anna Schwanke of Schefflin, both wearing blue moire taffeta trimmed with black bows. Victoria Schaus, sister of the bride, acted as junior bridesmaid and wore green moire taffeta trimmed with black velvet bows. Eunice Kuhlmann, niece of the bridegroom, and Lenore Schaus, daughter of the bride, were flower girls. Walter Bosse was best man for Mr. Kuhlmann and ushers were Edward and Melvin Ohlde, Walter Scholnecht and Paul Schaus.

Following a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kuhlmann will be at home on his farm route 2 Snohomish.

Mrs. Kuhlmann graduated from Hillsboro high school in the class of 1935. Mr. Kuhlmann graduated from Snohomish high school in the class of 1937.

Local Legion Folk Attend Conference

Commander Fred Engeldinger, Vice-Commander Leon S. Davis and B. M. Goodman attended the district No. 2 conference at Yamhill Friday as representatives of Hillsboro post, American Legion. Mrs. Leon Davis, president of the local Legion Auxiliary, represented Hillsboro unit at the conference.

Hillsboro post was awarded an Americanism citation and a distinguished service certificate for individual cards to Commander Engeldinger and Adjutant A. J. Foelker for surpassing in 1939 the average membership for the last four years. The local post is over the top on this year's quota of 92 members already.

Neil Allen of Grants Pass, department commander, was the principal speaker. Sixty four delegates and officers were in attendance at the Auxiliary meeting which was the largest attendance at any conference held to date. There were 12 state officers and a new delegate committee chairman seated on the platform at the afternoon meeting. All were presented with corsages by the Yamhill Unit.

The afternoon was given over to reports of the unit presidents and to talks by state officers, chief of which was the address by the State President, Mrs. Horsfall of Marshfield. A new development in Auxiliary work is a girls camp, called "Girls State" and operated similar to "Boy's State" which the Legion sponsors. The cost per girl will only be $7 for a week and it is to be held at Silver Creek Falls Recreation area, which has been leased for a week from the Salem Y. M. C. A. No girl under 15 years old is eligible. They can accommodate about 100 girls.

Arrangements were made at this time for annual visit of the state president of the Auxiliary to the Hillsboro Unit on February 13 at which time it is planned to hold a pot-luck dinner. Plans will be announced later.
