

Demonstration Meeting Set For Laurel

LAUREL—A home demonstration meeting will be held at the community hall Wednesday, beginning at 1 o'clock. Miss Kathleen McCrae will be present to organize and plan for future meetings. These meetings will take the place of one ladies club meeting each month. All ladies are invited, whether club members or not.

Ladies Social Club met Wednesday with Mrs. Wanda Rutschman. The president, Mrs. Ruby Meyers, was absent on account of illness. Mrs. Lily Watkins and Mrs. Bernice Brown entertained for a short time for their "birthday month."

Both anniversaries occurred the same day. Next meeting will be with Mrs. Dorothy Buehelfeldt Wednesday, February 21.

A group of young people from the Cascade college or Bible institute in Portland assisted in the church services Sunday. P. S. Clapp, an instructor and activity director of the college, delivered the sermon. A meeting in the afternoon was conducted by the young people.

Convention Set
Annual convention of the Friendly Six Sunday schools will be held at Scholls April 20, according to announcement by Amos Watkins, committeeman from here. A detailed program will be announced later.

Schools included are Kinton, Mountain Home, Mountain Top, Farmington, Scholls and Laurel.

Little Billy Joos of Hillsboro spent the week-end and Monday with his grandmother, Mrs. Fiera Baker.

Charlie Schmidt and Lloyd Dailey, who work in the logging camps beyond Glenwood, were home several days last week on account of icy conditions.

Schools included are Kinton, Mountain Home, Mountain Top, Farmington, Scholls and Laurel.

Several ladies from here were guests of the Fir Grove Ladies' club Tuesday at the A. A. Soule home when Mrs. Robert Soule was given a shower.

Benefit Program Attracts Many

COOPER MOUNTAIN—A large crowd attended the program given at the school Friday evening. The program was put on by the Junior Juniors of Portland. Proceeds are to be used to help the woodworking class of the 4-H club.

Sewing Club Meets Today
Cooper Mountain Community Sewing club will meet today (Thursday) at the home of Mrs. E. W. Livermore. A quilt will be tied.

Mrs. Livermore Honored
A dinner party was given Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Livermore in honor of the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Lovella Livermore. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. Neff and son John, Mr. and Mrs. Ves Bany, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Crocker and son Norman, W. E. Livermore and daughter Esther.

Mrs. Jenefer Blomquist and son Rodney are making their home on the Blomquist place. Mr. Blomquist, who is working in the mines at Sutherlin, plans to join her some time in the near future.

JESS M. PHILIP
Jess M. Philip, son of W. D. Philip, former manager of Donald Lumber Co. of Manning, died at the Veterans' Hospital in Portland, Tuesday, January 29. Funeral services were conducted by the American Legion January 22, and interment was made in Lincoln Memorial cemetery, Portland. He is survived by his widow and three children, all at the home at Coburg.

A Prize Package...

A home of your own... financed conveniently and economically on the FHA program.

Treat yourself to greater home enjoyment this spring by starting plans for a new house now!

Copeland offers:
FHA Financing
Free Estimates
Quality Materials

COPELAND
Lumber Yards
Hillsboro Phone 301

Hilhi News Section

DORIS WILEY, Editor

Miss Pasley Named For D. A. R. Award

Jean Ann Pasley was selected by the faculty and the senior class as Hilhi's representative for the D. A. R. award. She will represent Hilhi at the state convention and she may win a trip to the national capital, Washington, D. C. The two other candidates were Rosanne Weiland and Norma Anderson.

Take in 11 Members

Eleven new members have been taken into the Senate club this year. The boys suffer many tortures but after all is said and done they all agree that it is worth it. Those taken in are: Art Lundeen, David Wiley, David Cooper, Charles Russell, Wallace Rasm, Bill Leider, Ken Westman, Robert Furrow, Del Frank Ryan and Eugene Newberry.

Miss Brogren Representative

Miss Virginia Brogren represented Hillsboro high school at the Kilpatrick study conference held in Eugene January 30 and 31. This conference is sponsored by the Progressive Education association and Dr. Kilpatrick of Columbia university is the chief speaker.

Many Turn Out

There have been many turnouts for the boxing and wrestling exhibition to be held in March. Alvan H. Bogue has charge of this exhibition.

Spanish Club Party Tonight

The Spanish club is having a party at the home of Margie Campion tonight (Thursday). The entire club is going.

New Plays Planned

Frank Roberts is sponsoring some new plays in the drama section. He has not cast all the plays as yet.

This week Miss Virginia Brogren has displayed on her bulletin board a federal land grant given to Bud Williams' grandfather by Andrew Jackson for the then new territory of Michigan. The freshmen have brought in many interesting papers of historical happenings.

The ping pong tournament is progressing rapidly and Hilhi's champion of ping pong will soon be announced.

Cast Named for School Operetta

"Jeanie," the operetta to be presented by Hilhi, has the following cast: Dorine Voelker, June Hatfield, Carol Voelker, Violet Lundin, Philip Streeter, Roy Burnett, Don Becker, Wallace Rasm.

Miss McCrae Speaks

The Home Economics club held a short business meeting on Monday. Miss Kathleen McCrae, county demonstration agent, gave a short talk on personality and the girls checked up on the personality tests which were handed out.

Girl Reserves' dues can be paid at the activity window January 24, January 31 or February 7.

Sandford New Postmaster

NORTH PLAINS—J. R. Sandford assumed the duties of acting postmaster February 1 in the place of L. Troutman, who is retiring after more than 25 years service. The Nifty Needleworkers 4-H Sewing club met with their leader, Viola Westcott, at the school. A letter from Earl Snell on safe driving was read by the leader. The members and the leader discussed the different projects to be made and the first project was started on. Plans for future meetings to be held at the home of the girls part time were also made.

Read the Argus Classified Ads

Save on Silverware

Prices are scheduled for a rise in the not too distant future... so now is the time to buy your set of silverware or complete your present pattern. Inspect our stock of fine quality brands at popular prices.

Convenient Budget Terms Available

J. L. ANDERSON
"Let Andy Fix Your Watch"
Official S. P. Watch Inspector for Washington County
211 E. Main Hillsboro

Sale Ends Sat. Night

Washington County's Largest
Stock Of Wash Dresses

Women all over the county enjoy the privilege of selecting from these nationally advertised WASH FROCKS so well known to Independent Stores. "Nelly Don" - "Miss Personality" - "Betty Baxley" and "Marcy Lee." Sizes 10 to 52.

Thurs. - Fri. - Sat.
YOU MAY CHOOSE

From a Large Assortment of Our

Regular $1.98 and $2.98
DRESSES $1.49
FOR ONLY

AS BEFORE YOU WILL WANT THREE OR FOUR OF THESE FAMOUS DRESSES AT THIS SPECIAL PRICE!

in 1940
McCALL versions cut along the

McCALL
Pattern
3574

A brand-new fashion season highlights stripes and checks in gay color combinations. McCalls, always on its toes, features special designs for interpreting these fashion-right fabrics. Choose McCalls for style, fit, ease-of-use.

McCall's
DEPT STORE

Program for World Prayer Day at Orenco

ORENCO—Representatives from Reedville, Bethany Presbyterian and Tualatin Plains churches met with Mrs. Carlyle Friday afternoon to arrange the program for observing the World Day of Prayer for missionaries on February 9.

Mrs. Lillian Emstrum, who had been visiting friends in Portland since last Wednesday, returned to her home here Tuesday.

Mrs. Carlyle returned home Thursday from Forest Grove and Thatchers, where she spent a week with relatives.

Many children are absent this week from their classes at Orenco grade school because of flu.

Ernest Seitzinger, who is ill in the Veterans' hospital in Portland, is expected home this week.

Mrs. George Persons returned home last Tuesday from Jones hospital. She was treated for pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. George Goodman accompanied their daughter Camille to the Oregon State blind school at Salem Sunday morning and returned that evening.

Mrs. Mary Lou Hathaway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hathaway of Portland, is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Goodman, this week.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. William Bowker, January 23, a girl, Penelope Jean, weight six pounds, nine ounces. Mrs. Bowker is in the Emanuel hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Vermillion and daughter, Virginia, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lyssa, all of Portland, were Sunday dinner party guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rogers and family.

McKinley-Elmonica

Ted Schallenberger, who is suffering from blood poisoning in a Portland hospital, remains in a critical condition.

Mrs. George Bakker, mother of Mrs. W. A. Beach, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. Cron, in Independence.

A new home is being built on the Gray Oaks tract.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Gottfried Krautschied, a girl, January 24.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Meurer entertained the Pinochle players at dinner and cards on Saturday night.

Nine guests were present.

Achievement Meeting Set

ROSEDALE—The Reedville and Hazledale 4-H clubbers met at the Reedville school and made final preparations for a joint annual achievement club meeting at the Reedville school house February 7, at 8 p. m., according to Ed Seitzinger, Hazledale dairy club leader.

L. J. Allen, assistant state club leader, is scheduled to be present for the annual event.

A worthwhile program has been outlined by the members of the two clubs and everyone interested in 4-H activities is urged to attend.

Dinner is Success
The community dinner held at the Rosedale schoolhouse Sunday was a success. Men and boys of the community came and built a baseball backstop, put up basketball equipment, and cleaned the schoolhouse grounds. The potluck dinner was served at one o'clock by the ladies. About 50 were present.

Mrs. Ed. Gonty, who is seriously ill at a Portland hospital, is slightly improved, but no visitors are allowed.

Mary Watts, who has been absent from school for the past two weeks with the flu, returned to her classes Monday.

Mrs. Ruth Schlessler celebrated her birthday January 31.

Mr. Gillenwater Honored
Several young people of the community surprised Frank Gillenwater at his home Sunday evening in honor of his birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Holt of Gari-baldi were week-end guests at the Jake Schlessler home. Mr. and Mrs. Holt came to attend the wedding of their son Bill Holt to Adeline Averson of Cedar Mills.

Ellard Schneider spent the week-end at Rhododendron, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Herb Schneider.

Meeting Friday
An executive meeting of the Rosedale P. T. A. will be held Friday evening at the Ralph Schappert home.

Mr. Churchley Honored
Mrs. Jesse Churchley entertained at her home Saturday evening with a birthday party honoring her husband's 32nd birthday anniversary.

Those present were Myrna and Betty Churchley, Azalea and Helen Hacker, Margot Goebel, Gibb Albee, Ross Hacker, Harry Albee, the house guest and the hostess.

Birthdays Celebrated
Colonel and Mrs. Alvin C. Baker attended a birthday dinner Sunday at the Walton Worrell home in

Benefit Party at Reedville Friday

REEDVILLE—Star Pinochle club will give a benefit card party at the school house this Friday evening following the basketball game. Pinochle and "900" will be played. Cards to begin at 8:30. A small admission fee will be charged and awards will be given. Refreshments will be served. The public is invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Cochran of Seattle, Wash., were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Brownlee.

A debate by the U. of O. public speaking department will follow the P. T. A. benefit dinner, to be given at the school house Washington's birthday.

H. P. Weyandt was rushed to St. Vincent's hospital in Portland Friday morning for an emergency appendectomy.

While ironing Thursday Mrs. B. F. Hinton accidentally upset the iron, resulting in a severe burn on her right arm.

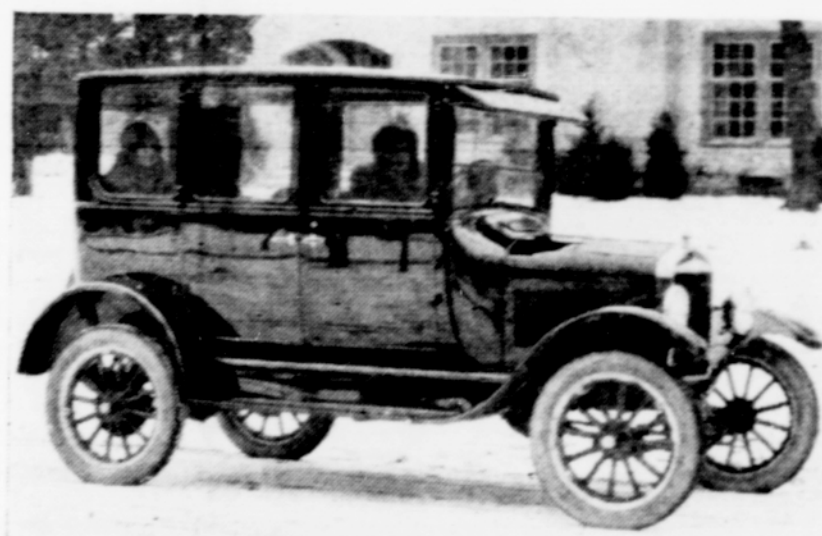

Albany, honoring Mr. Worrell and Frank Powell of Silverton. This was the 41st successive joint birthday celebration.

Mackenzie Motor Co.

This Week Celebrates

15 YEARS

of Successful Business in Hillsboro

1925

"Watch the Fords Go By!"

1940

FIFTEEN YEARS OF BUSINESS in Hillsboro... fifteen years of successful operations thanks to the patronage of Washington County residents... fifteen years that have seen the value built into Fords increase from the Model T of 1925 to the sleek, powerful V-8 of today.

Fifteen years in which MacKenzie Motor Co. has been proud to offer Ford products to the people of this area. Fifteen years in which we have striven to bring you the best in service, repairs, accessories and parts service.

H. L. MacKenzie

MAC KENZIE MOTOR CO. invites you to visit our quarters at 3rd and Washington in Hillsboro... to inspect our showroom with Ford, Mercury and Lincoln Zephyr models... see our stock of R. & G. Used Cars... go through our service shop... see our modern equipment and up-to-the-minute methods. Then top it all off with a demonstration ride in one of our sensational cars.

You have made our fifteen years of business in Hillsboro successful. We thank you and pledge ourselves to endeavor at all times to justify the confidence placed in us as shown by your continued patronage.

Ford V-8 Mercury
Lincoln Zephyr

SEE THEM TODAY AT

Mackenzie Motor Co.

Third and Washington Streets

HILLSBORO, OREGON

Telephone 911