Mrs. Towne Will Head Women Voters Again

Mrs. D. E. Towne of Gaston will head the Washington County League of Women Voters again the coming year, the result of election Monday at the Forest Hills Golf club. With her new board, the president will represent the local organization at a state convention in Portland May 14. Consideration of the state program will be the business of a meeting of new and retiring members of the executive board, in Hillsboro, May 6, in preparation for the state meeting.

Officers who will serve with Mrs. Towne are: Mrs. Lester Cypher of North Plains, vice president; Mrs. W. S. Roberts, of Forest Grove, secretary; Mrs. Jake Weil of Hillsboro, corresponding secretary; Mrs. W. H. Engelke of Beaverton, treasurer. Directors include: Mrs. Rex Wilson of Forest Grove, hold-over director; Mrs. Ferd Groner of Scholls, elected for one year; Mrs. W. G. Hare of Hillsboro and Mrs. William Moore of Banks, elected each for two years.

Miss Virginia Tooze of Portland, substituting for her mother, Mrs. Lamar Tooze, Portland chairman of government and foreign policy, spoke on "International Law and Propaganda."

Program Special for Club Folk Arranged

"Rural Life" Sunday will be observed in the Hillsboro Methodist church Sunday at 11 a. m. and a welcome extended to 4-H boys and girls. The combined choir and congregation will sing.

In the evening at 7:30 o'clock, Miss Lucille Fisher will present the choir in a program of sacred music, including instrumental and vocal duets, choruses, solos and quartets.

Hillsboro Rotarians Attend Conference

Several Hillsboro Rotarians attended sessions and different functions in connection with the district conference of Rotary International in Portland Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. R. V. (Nig) Borleske, athletic director at Whitman college, was unanimously elected district governor to succeed Dr. H. Cline Fixott of Portland.

Benefit Attracts—

The benefit card party given Tuesday night by the ladies of the St. Matthews hall was well attended. Twenty-one tables were in play. High honors in five hundred were won by Henry Desinger, Carl Desinger, Mrs. Hermens, and Mrs. Ernest Kidney. Miss Nora Costelloe and Mrs. H. Desinger took the bridge honors.

Bishop's Annual Spring Parties Held Wednesday

Spring blossoms lent a festive air to the homes and All Saints Episcopal church where the bishop's annual spring parties were given yesterday afternoon. Hostesses were Mrs. George T. McGrath with Mrs. Alf Johnson assisting her; Mrs. W. G. Hare with Mrs. J. W. Barney and Mrs. Ed Kamna assisting; Mrs. George Laver with Mrs. David G. Cooper assisting; Mrs. R. L. Burnett at the Washington hotel apartment of Rev. Newton Penberthy; and Mrs. J. E. West.

After two hours of cards the ladies went to the church where tea was served to about one hundred guests. Miss Corinne Pennington and Mrs. S. W. Melhuish poured. The tea table was centered with a bowl of calla lilies and white snapdragons and silver candlesticks with white tapers. Mrs. Robert Warren, harpist, of Forest Grove played while tea was being served. Assisting about the room were Mrs. H. P. Barrows, Misses Patty Crockett, Helen Wick, Evelyn Haworth, Margaret Havens, Marjorie and Dorothy Kidney, Virginia Huson, Mary Jean Doane and Violet Lundeen.

Seventh Den Added to Cub Organization

Addition of a seventh den to the Hillsboro Cub pack, No. 511, officially completed at the pack meeting held Monday night in the David Hill school building, now gives the local pack more den units than it has ever had before, it was announced this week by Cubmaster R. P. Rasmussen.

The new group of "young Scouts" will be in charge of Den Mother Mrs. E. K. McCoy and meetings will be held at the McCoy residence.

Two Cubs were graduated from the pack into local Scout troops at the meeting Monday night. Fred Corn was awarded a lion badge, silver arrow and Cub service star and welcomed into the Rotary troop, No. 216, by Scoutmaster Tom Bronleewe. Jack Doyle was awarded a silver arrow and Cub service star and was welcomed into the Legion troop, No. 226, by Scotumaster Ben Faber.

A feature of Fred Corn's graduation into Scouting was his presentation of a gift to his den mother, Mrs. Paul Ringle, in appreciation for her leadership during his Cubbing days.

Other awards were a wolf badge to Jerry Doyle and a gold arrow to Colonel Martin. Each den put on a stunt for entertainment. About 40 boys and a number of parents were present.

Outstanding Women Honored by B. P. Club

Women who have been designated as outstanding because of some community service or economic contribution were guests of honor at a dinner given Friday evening in the chamber of commerce rooms by the Business and Professional Women's club. Miss Bernetta Kummer giving a thumb-nail sketch of the accomplishments of each introduced Mrs. Myrtle Blassing, Mrs. Elva Batchelar, Miss Dulcina Brown and Mrs. Zola Morgan. Mrs. E. C. McKinney Mrs. Anna C. Wells, and Miss Avis Lobdell were unable to attend the dinner. Gardenia corsages were presented to each.

Quite appropriate for this dinner was the talk, "Woman and Her Place in Progress," given by Mrs. Katherine McRae of Oregon City. In discussing the part women have in the economic and spiritual life since Biblical times she said, "Women have been the inspiration through the years and through women has come in part the unfoldment of spiritual harmony. Women must earn their place—they are needed in the world's work. Her compassion, understanding, love, and fidelity are essential now in strengthening our government." The first woman's club was organized in 1818; the Business Woman's club was organized in St. Louis in 1919 with 200 members and now it is the strongest and most powerful agency guarding and putting forward the interests of women everywhere, she declared.

Miss Brown, who conducted a tour of Norway last summer, gave a short talk in which she told of this beautiful and peace loving country and how difficult it is to think of it now as a battlefield.

Other program numbers were two solos by Mrs. Clyde Yount with Mrs. Fred Sewell playing her accompaniment, and a skit in which Miss Joyce Kellington as the girl of 1860 and Miss Joyce Martin as Miss 1940 compared the pastimes of their generations.

Miss La Verne Fries, chairman of the Goddess contest for the Happy Days celebration, told briefly of plans being made by her committee.

Miss Lucille Fisher, president, announced the dates May 17, 18, 19 for the state convention at Grants Pass, and the theme "Wake Up And Live."

Business meeting will be held tonight (Thursday) at the home of Miss Fisher, 768 E. Main street.

May 10 the club will have its annual Mothers-Daughters dinner. Miss Georgenia Brown and her emblem committee have secured Miss Fern Bauersfeld of Portland, national federation chairman of candidate data, a charter member of the national organization, and designer of the official B. P. W. club emblem, as the speaker. Miss Hilda Brierly chairman, Miss Arlene Kamna, Mrs. Marion Soule, Mrs. Gordon Sahnow, Miss Gussie Sigler, and Mrs. Viola Sundberg will arrange for the dinner.
